Corsica Schedule.—The steamer Corsica will begin to run on the following schedule beginning next Monday: Steamer will leave Baltimore, weather permitting, Wednesday 5 P. M. stopping at Quaker Neck, Bookers, Rolph's, Chestertown, Buckingham, Sprys, Deep Landing, Crumpton. Returning, steamer will leave Crumpton, weather permitting, for Baltimore, Thursday 7 A. M. stopping at the above landings.

Excellent Precedent Established.—Justice of the Peace, Dr. W. D. Troy, of Centreville, has established the precedent that no boys under the age of 15 years will be allowed to attend any of the proceedings which may be tried before him. Very often cases are carried before the local magistrates which the boys of such tender ages should not be allowed to hear, and for this reason Justice Troy has handed down the opinion referred to above. The decision is meeting with the hearty approval of those of more mature years and it has been suggested that other magistrates pass a similar order.

Plenty of Game.—According to the reports coming in this will be a great gunning year for the sportsmen as rabbits and quail are more plentiful than for a long time.

The reasons given by the farmers for such a large number of quail are because the winter weather was not severe enough to kill off the old birds and the spring has been very favorable to the growth of the young. Heretofore each season the heavy rains drowned most of the young birds shortly after hatching but this year the heavy rains did not come until the birds were large enough to seek shelter for themselves.

Former Governor's Daughter a Bride.—Miss Carrie N. Warfield, eldest daughter of former Governor and Mrs. Edwin H. Warfield, and George M. Harris, of Binghampton, N. Y., were married at noon Thursday, at Oakdale, the country home of the bride's parents. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. John Timothy Stone, pastor of Brown Memorial Presbyterian Church, Baltimore, in the presence of about 150 invited guests. Miss Louise Warfield, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and little Miss Warfield, the bride's youngest sister, was flower girl. Joseph Dart, Jr., a classmate of the bridegroom at Yale, was best man.

Attorney Brown Weds.—Mr. Edwin H. Brown, second son of the late Judge Edwin H. Brown, and a prominent member of the Centreville bar, was married on Wednesday afternoon last at 1 o'clock to Miss Mary R. Young, of Washington, D. C., by Rev. Dr. Williams, of Trinity Church, Washington. The knot was tied at the home of the bride. The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of white crepe-de-chine. Only the immediate members af the two families and a limited number of intimate friends witnessed the marriage ceremony. After the wedding the bride and groom left for a Northern tour of several weeks and upon their return will reside in Centreville.

Crime Even to Loan Whiskey.—That a man who loans a pint of whiskey, expecting to have it returned when the borrower receives some by express, is guilty of selling was the opinion given Thursday afternoon by Chief Justice Lore, of Delaware, when he sentenced Thomas L. Hatfield to three months in the county jail and fined him $50. Hatfield testified that a detective tried to buy some liquor from him, but that he refused this, but did loan him a pint on the understanding that, when the detective's whiskey came the next morning, he would receive a pint in return. Justice Lore instructed the jury that a loan or bargain constituted an offense against a Local Option law of the State and a verdict of guilty was returned.

The Romance of the Oyster.—According to the old records the oyster was one of the Indian's principal articles of diet before the arrival of the white man, the coast tribes seeming to have carried on a considerable internal trade in this commodity, judging by the piles of shells that were found hundreds of miles in the interior long after the Anglo-Saxon had subjected the red man to his will. The oyster was one of the Indian's principal means of exchange in his barterings with the first settlers, and it seemed to him, accustomed to regard all shellfish with indifference, rather extraordinary that the white man, who lay claim to a higher civilization than his, should be so ready to relinquish his beads and other pretty trinkets for so different an article of food; little did he know what this luscious reminder of home meant to the early Anglo-Saxon immigrant.—Garnault Agassi in National Magazine for September.

I WILL.

I will start anew this morning with a higher, finer, creed;
I will cease to stand complaining of my ruthless neighbor's greed;
I will cease to sit repining while my duty's call is clear;
I will waste no moments repining and my heart shall know no fear.
I will look sometimes about me for the things that merit praise;
I will search for hidden beauty that eludes the grumbler's gaze.
I will try to find contentment in the paths that I must tread.
I will cease to have resentment when another moves ahead.
I will not be swayed by envy when my rival's strength is shown;
I will not deny his merit but I'll strive to prove my own;
I will try to see the beauty spread before me, rain or shine;
I will cease to preach your duty, and be more concerned with mine.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET IS GAINING GROUND

Is Bryan and Democracy gaining ground? If you do not think so read the following from the Washington Post:

"Mr. Bryan is in a much better position than twelve or eight years ago for these reasons: The cohesion of the conservative and radical elements of his party, which was absent in his previous campaign, particularly in 1896, when McKinley had a plurality of 33,000, the greatest ever given to any candidate for President or Governor, Republican or Democrat; the comparatively conservative platform upon which he is standing when set up against the Republican platform; the active support of Samuel Gompers, taken together with the involuntary idleness of a large number of workmen, in consequence of last October's panic. It should be always born in mind that Maryland is normally a Democratic State."

Now if the above was from a paper that was supporting Bryan it wouldn't be so insignificant, but it isn't. The Post is for Taft. Yet after sending a special correspondent into Maryland to investigate conditions the foregoing was published in connection with a long article on the Maryland situation. It is a grudging tribute to the gains made by Democrats from the opposition, and coming from such a source it represents a good deal.

FOUR of Maryland's greatest orators will speak at the mass meeting in Chestertown, Oct. 20.

LIGHT STREET, Baltimore, now has its right name. From one of the ugliest it now becomes one of the handsomest business streets of the Monumental City. The improvement is certainly a good investment.

THE case of the aged man, who was obliged to go to the Poor House, because his children would not give him the shelter of a home, cannot fail to arouse sympathy. This is not an infrequent happening, but each time it occurs, it is a sorrow to those who are normal. Nothing can be more unnatural than the repudiation of parents by their offspring, and it brings to mind the ancient saying that "a mother can support nine children much easier than nine children can support one mother."

THE Wilmington Every Evening remarks: What is the use of Republicans—President Roosevelt included—getting hot under the collar over Governor Haskell, with the memory of Mark Hanna still fragrant? Did anyone ever hear of President Roosevelt having a fit over the munificent manner in which Hanna expended corruption funds in the aid of McKinley and Roosevelt in 1900? Or of the President's indignation over the manner in which stolen funds of corporations were expended for his benefit in the campaign of 1904?

BULGARIA is free—on paper—and the peace of Europe is said to be threatened Bulgaria has a population of about four millions of people, or approximately the same population as Ohio. But the area of Bulgaria is 400,0000 square miles, while the area of Ohio is only 41,000 square miles. Thus it is clear that the population of Bularia is widely distributed and the matter of holding its independence is to require much skill in the direction of getting enough of them together to make a stand if Turkey tries to object with force of arms.

THE following dispatch from Washington is a fair sample of the rottenness of the Roosevelt regime: Another case of Federal office holder, who was too perniciously busy in politics, has been dealt with by President Roosevelt. As a result of a report of the United States Civil Service Commission, the President has removed Lincoln Avery, collector of customs at Port Huron, Mich., and has directed the removal of Charles H. Bailey special agent of the treasury at that place. Now, the idea of Roosevelt who is doing everything he can to land his pet in the White House, to fine anyone under him of being pernicious in politics? His actions speak so loud that one can't hear his words.

What Do They Cure?

The above question is often asked concerning Dr. Pierce's two leading medicines, "Golden Medical Discovery" and "Favorite Prescription."

The answer is that "Golden Medical Discovery" is a most potent alterative or blood-purifier, and tonic or invigorator and acts especially favorably in a curative way upon all the mucous lining surfaces, as of the nasal passages, throat, bronchial tubes, stomach, bowels and bladder, curing a large per cent. of catarrhal cases whether the disease affects the nasal passages, the throat, larynx, bronchia, stomach (as catarrhal dyspepsia), bowels (as mucous diarrhea), bladder, uterus or other pelvic organs. Even in the chronic or ulcerative stages of these affections, it is often successful in affecting cures.

The "Favorite Prescription" is advised for the cure of one class of diseases—those peculiar weaknesses, derangements and irregularities incident to women only. It is a powerful yet gently acting invigorating tonic and nervine. For weak worn-out, over-worked women—no matter what has caused the break-down, "Favorite Prescription" will be found most effective in building up the strength, regulating the womanly functions, subduing pain and bringing about a healthy, vigorous condition of the whole system.

A book of particulars wraps each bottle giving the formulæ of both medicines and quoting what scores of eminent medical authors, whose works are consulted by physicians of all the schools of practice as guides in prescribing, say of each ingredient entering into these medicines.

The words of praise bestowed on the several ingredients entering into Doctor Pierce's medicines by such writers should have more weight than any amount of non-professional testimonials, because such men are writing for the guidance of their medical brethren and know whereof they speak.

Both medicines are non-alcoholic, non-secret, and contain no harmful habit-forming drugs, being composed of glyceric extracts of the roots of native, American medicinal forest plants. They are both sold by dealers in medicine. You can't afford to accept as a substitute for one of these medicines of known composition, any secret nostrum.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets, small, sugar-coated, easy to take as candy, regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels.
