A CURE FOR A WEN.—A young lady who has the good of the human race at heart, recommends the following, which she has proved to be effectual; Make a very strong brine, and dip in it a piece of flannel two or three times doubled, and apply it to the wen, keeping it constantly wet night and day, until a separation takes place.—[Southern Botanic Journal.

The New Orleans True American, says:—When the paralysis of the stomach takes place from drinking ice water, a tea spoonful of Cayenne in a cup of hot water repeated every 20 or 30 minutes, will subdue the chill and restore perspiration. Avoid alcohol carefully.

PRICE CURRENT.

Baltimore Republican Office, Saturday 20th July.

GRAIN.—

Wheat—Parcels of the new crop have begun to make their appearance at market, and where the quality and condition were good, have been readily taken at good prices. The sales of good to best new Md. and Virginia reds have ranged from $1,26 to $1,28 and we quote these as the rates to day for those descriptions. A cargo of 1200 bushels prime new red North Carolina was taken on Saturday last at $1,27 1-2. On Monday the first parcel of new Md. red offered was sold at $1 30, but as we have already remarked $1,25 a $1,28 is about the fair quotation for good to best new reds. Within a day or two there has been scarcely any new wheat at market and millers are in want of it Parcels of good new white Wheat were sold yesterday and to day at $1,30, a $1,31, and $1,33. A parcel of good old Md white was sold some days ago at $1,25.

Corn.—White corn has been uniform in price thoughout the week at 78 cents, and we quote the same rate to day. Sales of Md. yellow early in the week at 81 cents—we now quote at 80 a 82 cents

Rye—Some parcels of new have appeared—a sale of new a few days ago, at 81 1-4 cents, and to day, sales have been made as in condition at 76 a 80 cents.

Oats—Sales of new Oats at 43 and 45 cents. Old are worth about 46 cents,

Thankful for the liberal share of patronage extended to him, he respectfully solicits a continuance thereof, and pledges himself to use every exertion to give general satisfaction to all who may favor him with their work.

The subscriber is too well known he hopes, to be injured by any report gotten up merely to effect his business, and assures the public when he determines on declining business, that he will give the notice himself, without troubling any one to do it for him.

He is prepared to execute all orders that may be entrusted to him, with punctuality, and at a reasonable charge.

The public's obedient servant,
EPHRAIM McQUAY.
