Publications.—Lovers of the beautiful in art and floriculture have in store a rich treat in the perusal of Vick's Floral Guide for the year 1887. Each succeeding year brings great improvement in this popular annual, and the present edition is far in advance of previous issues in beauty of exterior, number and elegance of floral and vegetable illustrations, and the large variety of subjects thoroughly and practically treated. The title illustration, a bunch of pansies, and the page in colors of "Border and Bedding Plants," are triumphs of chromo lithography which have probably never been excelled, while the hundreds of smaller illustrations are true to nature and thoroughly described. The volume opens with a series of practical articles of great service to both amateur and professional gardeners, is followed by faithful illustrations showing the interior of the immense seed house, and then by engravings of all the leading and rare flowers and vegetables, with directions for their culture.

Babyhood for January contains a number of popular medical articles which all parents ought to read. Dr. Delavan points out "The Causes and Prevention of Chronic Troubles of the Throat in Children." Dr. Bissell illustrates graphically "Pigeon Breast" and kindred deformities; Dr. Yale, in his talk on "Fever," tells mothers just what and what not to do in order to ascertain the intensity of fever; and Dr. Walker continues the valuable series of "Domestic Treatment of Slight Ailments of Children." In addition, "The Punishment Ledger," relates entertainingly how a father recorded the punishments of his children and their effects; "Mutter-gartens" and the Kindergarten series offer practical suggestions to mothers anxious to study kindergarten methods; and there are many useful hints in the departments of "Baby's Wardrobe," "Nursery Helps and Novelties," and "The Mother's Parliament." Under "Nursery Observations" are described "A Musical Prodigy," "A Whistling Babe," "The Vanity of an Art Critic," "A Natural Poet," "Somnambulism in a Child," and other interesting experiences of observing mothers. "Nursery Problems" offer the usual careful medical advice. 15 cents a number; $1.50 a year. Babyhood, 5 Beekman St., New York.

The January number of Our Little Ones is full of holiday reading for young folks. Bright, interesting stories, and pretty pictures combine to make this one of the best numbers of this excellent little magazine. Address Russel Publisping Co., 36 Bromfield St., Boston, Mass.

DRESS FABRICS AND NOTIONS

NOW, THEN, THE QUESTION—

WHERE TO BUY A HAT OR BONNET?

Is an important one to every lady in Frostburg and vicinity. If a trimmed Hat or Bonnet is wanted we have patterns fresh from the centres of Fashion, from which a suitable design may be easily selected. In fact, our Millinery Department is one in which we take special pride, and this season we have given it redoubled attention. Every style of Hat or Bonnet, every description of Trimming and Feathers, and all weights, widths, qualities, styles and shades of Ribbon are the cheapest and best of their kind. For this branch of our business we claim that it is not only as good as any and better than most, but absolutely and unapproachably the best! Our stock of

Fall and Winter Wraps

Is complete. So many fascinating styles, attractive designs and all surprising bargains, which every lady, in justice to herself, should carefully examine before purchasing, cannot be described in an ordinary advertisement.

Besides the wonderful specialties alluded to we have "to tell the old, old story" concerning

To our gratification we have very often found that where buyers inspected the goods in other establishments first and ours last of all, the contrast was so overwhelmingly in our favor that numberless such sales gave the greatest satisfaction. Contrary to the usual custom of mercantile invitations, therefore, we ask you to see our goods, not before looking at others, but before buying any other goods, and generally because we want to make your visit a money-saving experiment for you.

Died Away From Home.—Miss Catharine E. Lemmert, daughter of George A. Lemmert, of this place, died at the residence of a sister, in Washington, D. C. last Sunday. She was 21 years, 4 months and 24 days old. Highly esteemed by all her acquaintance, and tenderly beloved by her family, her untimely death is deeply deplored. Her remains were brought to Frostburg and interred.

OBITUARY.

Miss Catharine E. Lemmert.

I am young, but I must die;
In my grave I must lie;
I am ready now to go
If the will of God be so.
Lord, prepare me for my end!
To heaven my soul shall ascend—
Then I shall my Savior see—
Then I shall with Jesus be—
Never more to suffer pain—
Never more to sin again.
Her loving friend,
LAURA.

Laid to her rest! the young and the beautiful,
Dead in the glory of womanhood's prime—
Now her glad spirit "beside the still waters,"
Rapture-bound, walking the jewel-paved shore—
Hand in hand clasping the sons and the daughters—
Her kindred—and angels, in life evermore.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.

NEWS FROM BEYOND THE FLAT.

ECKHART, January 6, 1886.

Mrs. John Bath, of Everett, Pa., spent the holidays at this place.

John W. Arnold has returned from college at Danville, Ind.

Peter Feldman's stable and smokehouse were burned last Saturday. It is supposed to have caught from a firecracker.

Sunday evening last the house of John Stewart, sr., caught fire from a defective stovepipe. Fortunately, it was discovered in time to save the house. Damage slight.

Saturday, 1st inst., intelligence of the death of George Williamson was received here. He was a boss at the Belleville (Ill.) nail mills. While adjusting the removal of a bolt from a piece of masonry with block and tackle, the hook of the upper block broke and the piece, weighing 100 pounds, fell on his head. He lived 20 minutes. The accident took place the day before New Year. He had been promoted to the superintency of the mills, at a salary of $2,500 per year, only six hours before the accident. He was a son of George Williamson, of this place and a son-in-law of Thomas Jenkins, of Frostburg. He was in the 41st year of his age and leaves a wife and five children to mourn his untimely death. The remains were interred at Allegany cemetery, Frostburg, last Tuesday.

An End to Bone Scraping.—Edward Shepherd, of Harrisburg, Ill., says: "Having received so much benefit from Electric Bitters I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know it. Have had a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used, instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and my leg is now sound and well." Elecric Bitters are told at fifty cents a bottle, and Bucklen's Arnica Salve at 25c. per box by G. A. Wingert.

Good Results in Every Case.—D. A. Bradford, wholesale paper dealer of Chattanooga, Tenn., writes that he was seriously afflicted with a severe cold that settled on his lungs; had tried many remedies without benefit. Being induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, did so, and was entirely cured by use of a few bottles. Since which time he has used it in his family for all Coughs and Colds with best results. This is the experience of thousands whose lives have been saved by this wonderful Discovery. THOUGHTS
Inspired BY THE Season

SINCE the establishment of the "Mammoth Hardware Store" in this town the people have enjoyed a service which has met every demand and pleased every taste.

The secret of this phenomenal achievement lies in our strict and constant adherence to the following principles:

1. We make no misrepresentations. The goods are just what we sell them for.
2. We handle durable and substantial goods
3. We keep a large variety in all departments of our business.
4. We sell nearly everything demanded by ordinary needs, and the extraordinary are furnished with almost equal celerity as the ordinary.
5. And we sell our goods as low as they can be priced commensurate with a profit sufficient to justify business.
