WE Believe

our line of Clothing for the Spring and Summer is the largest, most up-to-date and down-in-price that was ever exhibited in Kent or Queen Anne's counties, and in our ability to get results.

WE BELIEVE that honest goods can be sold to honest people by honest methods.

WE BELIEVE in working, not waiting; in laughing, not weeping; in boosting, not knocking; and in the pleasure of selling goods.

WE BELIEVE that one sale to-day is worth two to-morrow.

WE BELIEVE in to-day and the business we're doing; in to-morrow and the trade we expect to sell; and in the sure reward which the future holds.

WE BELIEVE in courtesy, in kindness, in generosity, in good cheer, in friendship, and in honest competition.

WE BELIEVE if you will examine our line of Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothing, Hats, Neckwear, &c., we can surely please you both in assortment and price.

Our Spring and Summer lines are now complete and ready for inspection.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

MRS. JAMES R. MICOU.

On Friday morning, April 16th, this community was shocked to learn that Mrs. J. R. Micou, wife of Dr. James R. Micou, Vice-President of Washington College, was stricken down with paralysis while attending to her household duties. While her condition from the first gave no hope to her many friends that recovery was possible, still when death ensued it could hardly be realized that the summons had come.

Mrs. Micou came to Chestertown with her husband in February, 1887. Her tnative state was Virginia and her native own Petersburg.

Possessed of that sunny disposition so characteristic of the children of the south-land, she soon made hosts of friends. She identified herself with all the interests at the college and endeared herself to everybody by many deeds of kindness; specially was she happy in being able to render to the student body so many of those little aids and helps that go far toward making student life less monotonous.

Outside of the College her geniality and warmheartedness drew to her the love of the whole community. Truly the college and town have sustained a loss which is irreparable. The esteem in which she was held was manifested by beautiful floral offerings from friends, faculty, students and from the charitable organization, of which she was a member, "The King's Daughters." Her body was borne to the grave by six of the students of the college: A. D. Mackey, A. H. Porter, E. G. Breeding, W. W. Jump, J. R. Baden and F. R. Davis. The interment was private and Undertaker Ferguson had charge of the funeral arrangements. Dr. Henry B. Martin, officiating.

JOHN J. HURLOCK

Mr. John J. Hurlock died at his home in Snow Hill Monday. The deceased formerly lived at Chesterville where he kept a hardware store. He was a brother to the late S. R. Hurlock, of near Chestertown.

MELVILLE WILKINS

Melville Wilkins, son of the late Justice Bartus J. Wilkins, died suddenly Monday morning at his home in Rock Hall, of heart trouble, aged 30 years. The deceased had been married only about a year and leaves a widow. His mother and several brothers and a sister also survive him. Funeral services were held Wednesday, interment in Wesley Chapel cemetery, Undertaker, Charles L. Dodd. The bearers were Messrs. Barrus, Thos. W., Frank C. and Herbert G. Wilkins, Marion T. Miller, W. Reybold Wilson; Rev. Mr. Compher officiating.

THOMAS T. ESWORTHY.

Thomas T. Esworthy, of Chester, Pa., died at the home of Mr. Chas. Trott, at Betterton on Sunday afternoon of paralysis, aged 81 years. Remains were taken to Philadelphia on Monday afternoon train for interment, undertaker W. H. Krusen in charge.

Charles, the 3-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Meekins, of Worton Station, died on Thursday morning last of pneumonia. Interment took place on Friday afternoon at Union cemetery. Undertaker W. H. Krusen in charge.

CHURCH NOTES.

Rev. A. H. Covey and wife have united with Chestertown M. E. Church.

A reception was planned for last night to be given Dr. F. T. Little at Christ M. P. Church.

The Huntley Standard Bearers met at the home of Miss Stephanie Ford Thursday afternoon.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society met at the home of Mrs. Harry Jefferson Tuesday afternoon.

The Very Rev. John A. Lyons, V. G. will celebrate Mass at Sacred Heart Church Sunday morning at 8 o'clock.

President Sheridan will preach at Wesley Chapel Sunday evening, May 2nd, and at Christ Church, Chestertown, Sunday morning.

Rev. Mr. Fooks will preach at Kennedyville M. P. Church next Sunday. He leaves the following week for Lawsonia, near Crisfield.

Col. Wm. J. Vannort on Thursday evening addressed the congregation of Christ Church on "What I Saw and Heard at Conference."

Mr. Clinton C. Jones lead the song service at Christ M. P. Church Sunday. Dr. Gault made an address on "Excelling" and a quartette composed of Misses Edith Fallowfield, Anna Smyth, J. Hydie Thompson and Fred. G. Usilton, rendered "Lead Me."

Rev. David Moore has been assigned to Elk Creek charge and will preach there next Sunday. Rev. Mr. Moore married Miss Nellie Cacy, of Rock Hall, and is now employed as salesman in C. C. Jones' big shoe store. He and his wife are well and favorably known here and they will enter their new work with the good wishes and prayers of many friends. Elk Creek Church is near North East in Cecil county, and belongs to the Wilmington M. E. Conference. He will have two churches under his charge.

Miss Nettie E. Counselman, of Baltimore, is visiting Chestertown friends.
