WE Believe

our line of Clothing for the Spring and Summer is the largest, most up-to-date and down-in-price that was ever exhibited in Kent or Queen Anne's counties, and in our ability to get results.

WE BELIEVE that honest goods can be sold to honest people by honest methods.

WE BELIEVE in working, not waiting; in laughing, not weeping; in boosting, not knocking; and in the pleasure of selling goods.

WE BELIEVE that one sale to-day is worth two to-morrow.

WE BELIEVE in to-day and the business we're doing; in to-morrow and the trade we expect to sell; and in the sure reward which the future holds.

WE BELIEVE in courtesy, in kindness, in generosity, in good cheer, in friendship, and in honest competition.

WE BELIEVE if you will examine our line of Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothing, Hats, Neckwear, &c., we can surely please you both in assortment and price.

Our Spring and Summer lines are now complete and ready for inspection.

Miss Mamie Toulson, of Wilmington, Del., is visiting Mrs. S. A. Ivens.

Mr. Herman Blackway, of Baltimore, spent Sunday the guest of his mother, Mrs. S. T. H. Pheffer.

Mrs. Wm. Waddell has been quite sick at her home on High St. but is better at this writing.

Mrs. Geo. W. Copes and daughter, Miss Mollie, of Baltimore, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. B. McIntyre.

Mr. Wm. H. Lambert is able to be at his post of duty in the post office again after a week's illness.

Mrs. Annie H. Stam has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Dr. Hooker, in Philadelphia.

Miss Agnes Estes, we regret to state, is quite sich at her home on Cannon St.

Mrs. James W. Chapman, Jr. and two interesting children are at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Vannort.

Miss Bertha Constable, of Baltimore, has been visiting Mrs. Allan A. Harris, on Front street.

Hon. James H. Baker delighted his fellow bank directors by attending the meeting of the Board on Wednesday. He is certainly looking well.

Mr. Samuel Jefferson, of near "Flatland School" has been quite sick with rheumatism for some days.

Miss Caddie Nickerson and sister, Miss Margaret, have decided to quit housekeeping because of the bad health of the latter, and have rented their home on Mill street to Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Parrott.

We are sorry to report the condition of Miss Mary Elliott unimproved.

Mr. S. J. Coleman and family have moved from High street to the Hubbard house, on Princess street.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Blackway and son, of Cecilton, spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of Mrs. Mary E. Hadaway, who accompanied them home on Monday.

Mrs. Charles M. Vickers spent a part of last week with friends and relatives in Baltimore.

Miss Violet R. Beck has been visiting friends and relatives in Havre de Grace.

Mrs. William G. Trew, who has been confined to her room for the past few weeks, is able to be out again.

Mrs. J. E. Conine is visiting friends in Philadelphia.

Nobby Vehicles!

IT PAYS TO INVESTIGATE.

In the carriage line this is doubly true, because vehicles are apparently alike when vastly different

If you will take a look at our "Waterloo Jobs," note the snappy styles, the good class of work and all that goes to to make a vehicle of value—then consider the fact that we as dealers are under no expense whatever to sell these jobs, no rents—(We buy only in solid carload lots and to the very best advantage)—you will readily see why we can sell as we do, and why it is to your own good interest to buy from us.

Terms made satisfactory.
