HON. J. H. COVINGTON will accept our thanks for a new map of the U. S.

SPOT wheat was quoted at $1.49 yesterday; July, $1.13.

KENT is glad to welcome Mr. Joseph George among its taxpayers. The purchase of the Aldridge farms Tuesday evidences the fact that he appreciates Kent farms. He now owns 32 farms, among them being the Crew farm and the Aldridge farms, near Chestertown.

SALISBURY has appropriated over $250,000 for permanent work on its streets, and Dover has appropriated over $160,000. Ought the citizens of Chestertown be alarmed over "high expenditure" at the spending of $2,000 on our streets? We are but a drop in the bucket to our sister towns in the matter of street appropriations. Let us display a little progressiveness and town pride in at least making an effort to do a little permanent work. We should be past the days of coal ashes and red sand.

DIRT WILL SOON FLY!

Elsewhere in the NEWS the State Road Commission advertises for bids to build $3\frac{3}{10}$ miles of road between Chestertown and Kennedyville. The bids will be opened on May 27th in Baltimore. This looks like business for sure and all our citizens are mightily pleased that Gov. Crothers and his road commission are determined to push the good road project in Kent and all parts of the State. It cannot be begun too soon or pushed too strenuously for our people. Before the summer is over we hope to see the dirt fly in the upper and lower sections of Kent county.

DEMOCRATIC PRIMARIES

The Call Issued for June 12—The Law Says Every Candidate Must Run Through the Whole County—State Central Committee Obeying the Law.

In another column will be found the call for Democratic primaries and the names of the chief judges, as required by law.

The date selected, is Saturday, June 12th, and the plan is the Crawford county plan, to be conducted under the Primary Law as interpreted by Attorney-General Isaac Lobe Straus.

The whole communication between Lewin W. Wickes, Esq., Chairman of the State Central Committee and the State authorities is given so as to show the people that Mr. Straus had before him all the facts before finally deciding the point raised as to how to conduct the primaries as regards the county commissioner.

Mr. Straus makes himself as plain as words can do it and if some want to think otherwise, of course, nothing that he could say will change their opinion. The NEWS is in favor of the lawful way. If Mr. Straus had said the commissioners should run in the districts then we should be perfectly satisfied, for we feel sure that under either system the party will nominate a winning candidate. The law as interpreted by Mr. Straus says:

"IF the State Central Committee for Kent county adopt the Crawford County system, or the direct vote, as the method of nominating county commissioners in that county, it will be necessary for the candidates for the nomination for county commissioner to submit their names in the Primary Election to all the voters of the entire county, that is to say: it will be necessary for each candidate for county commissioner, under that system of nomination, to make his run and his fight throughout the entire county, and the nomination, under the system mentioned, cannot be made by any limited number of voters in any particular district or districts of the county or any part of the county to the exclusion and virtual disfranchisement of the other party voters in other parts of the county not included in the section or district to which the nominating power is sought to be limited.

"Such an arrangement as the latter would be as entirely repugnant to the direct vote or the CRAWFORD COUNTY SYSTEM as to be an absolute violation of the system."

Among the candidates whose names have been mentioned in connection with the different places, as far as learned, are the following:

Clerk—James T. Dixon, Walter H. Hadaway, Frank P. Cochran and Dr. G. F. Barwick.
Register of Wills—Harry I. Griffith and Jesse H. Copper.
Treasurer—William S. Hurlock, William Tarbutton and John Bell.
Legislature—J. S. Harris, Harry C. Willis, Dr. W. W. Beall and Dr. G. Allen Jarman.
Sheriff—Andrew Medders, Charles H. Davis, W. W. Clayton and O. B. Crisfield.
Commissioners—John E. Morris, Frank C. Wheatley, Benjamin Crew and C. D. Wood
