Toulson's Drug Store

Do You Think For Yourself?

Or, do you open your mouth like a young bird and gulp down whatever food or medicine may be offered you?

When you are an intelligent thinking woman, in need of relief from weakness, nervousness, pain and suffering, then it means much to you that there is one tried and true honest medicine OF KNOWN COMPOSITION, sold by druggists for the cure of woman's ills.

The makers of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, for the cure of weak, nervous, run-down, over-worked, debilitated, pain-racked women, knowing this medicine to be made up of ingredients, every one of which has the strongest possible indorsement of the leading and standard authorities of the several schools of practice, are perfectly willing, and in fact, are only too glad to print, as they do, the formula, or list of ingredients, of which it is composed, in plain English, on every bottle-wrapper.

The formula of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will bear the most critical examination of medical experts, for it contains no alcohol, narcotics, harmful, or habit-forming drugs, and no agent enters into it that is not highly recommended by the most advanced and leading medical teachers and authorities of their several schools of practice. These authorities recommend the ingredients of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for the cure of exactly the same ailments for which this world-famed medicine is advised.

No other medicine for woman's ills has any such professional endorsement as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has received, in the unqualified recommendation of each of its several ingredients by scores of leading medical men of all the schools of practice. Is such an endorsement not worthy of your consideration?

A booklet of ingredients, with numerous authorative profesional endorsements by the leading medical authorities of this country, will be mailed free to any one sending name and address with request for same. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

MOTHER'S DAY.

Last Sunday was "Mother's Day" all over America. Chestertown had a few residents who observed the day but in cities there were thousands who joined in paying tribute to Mother.

Preachers preached on "Mother," Sunday school superintendent and teachers talked about mother, passers along the street in greeting each other mentioned mother.

The object of Mother's Day is to honor the best mother who ever lived—your mother. This is the simple explanation of Mother's Day as given by Miss Anna Jarvis, of Philadelphia, who originated the idea.

In speaking of Mother Day she said: "The object of Mother's Day is to recall the memories of the mothers that are gone, and through loving words and loving care to brighten the lives of the mothers that remain, and to help the children to a greater blessing in honoring their father and their mother.

"To call back mother's prayers, mother's dying words, and the promises made to mother by the big boy that still mourns her, and to stop to think a little of what she was in her life to her family.

"Others who are blessed with their good mother still near them may show their appreciation by some deed of gratitude and love. If away from home, write her a love letter, send a telegram, use the long-distance phone or special delivery of postoffice."

In explaining why the white carnation is the emblem of Mother's Day, she said: "Its whiteness stands for purity; its form, beauty; its fragrance, love; its wide field of growth, charity; its lasting qualities, faithfulness—all a true mother's attributes.

COURT NOTES.

Several Interesting Cases Tried at Centreville Court Last Week.

The May term of the Circuit Court for Queen Anne county continued all last week. The civil suit of W. H. Evans, President of the Evans Marble Company, of Baltimore, Maryland, against Wilbur W. Hurlock, of Queen Anne's county, was first on Friday's docket and occupied the attention of the Court all day. Evans sued Hurlock for $4,000, which the latter owed him on unpaid notes. Hurlock had contracted the debt while conducting a stock brokerage business in Baltimore in 1906, and after the firm with which he was connected had become bankrupt, he disowned the amount, claiming that he had been conducting a gambling business and that the plaintiff had full knowledge of this fact when dealing with his firm. The Court handed down a decision for Evans for $4,700 and ordered that the costs of trial also be placed upon Hurlock. The attorneys in the case were: Plaintiff—J. Calvin Chestnut and J. K. Mullen, of Baltimore; T. J. Keating and J. Frank Harper, of Centreville. Defendant—Sidney P. Townshend and W. W. Beck, of Chestertown, Edwin H. Brown, Jr., of Centreville.

DR. MERRITT'S CASE CALLED

It Is Set For Next Monday, But He Is Not Expected To Appear.

The case of the State against Dr. J. B. Merritt, who is under indictment for criminal malpractice and is out on $5,000 bail, was called in Easton Monday. His bondsmen asked that his case be set for next Monday, which the court granted. Dr. Merritt is not in Easton, and has not been here for some time, and although the request of his bondsmen to give them time was granted by the court it seems to be the general opinion in Talbot county that he will forfeit his bond. It is said his bondsmen have been secured from loss.

$300 DIAMOND FOUND IN A CIGAR.

Levi J. Satterfield, a well-known Milford man, is the most surprised man in Delaware. He wondered why a cigar that he was smoking would not draw, and upon making an investigation found a handsome diamond, weighing two karats and worth $300, firmly imbedded in the "filler."

The only theory that Satterfield has as to the ownership of the jewel is that it was dropped into the tobacco by a packer before the cigar was made.

CHURCH NOTES.

Miss Marguerita Dodd lead the early service at Christ Church Sunday evening. A pretty duet by Misses Anna Smyth and Elizabeth Russell was a feature of the program.

The number of Adventists Sunday schools throughout the world is 3,747, according to a report made by Mrs. Flora Plummer, secretary of the Sabbath School Department before the convention of the Seventh-Day Adventists at Takoma Park, Md.

This was the feature of the session. The report showed that there had been a steady increase in the number of children attending the schools and in the amount of money contributed. The total membership, the report stated, is now 88,843 children. Of the number of schools, 1,269, are in foreign lands, with 22,011 scholars, and the remainder in this country. It was shown that since the Sabbath School Department was established more than $1,500,000 had been contributed.

Christ Church Sunday School will observe June 6th as Children's Day.

The trustees of Bethesda M. P. Church of Salisbury, Md., of which the Rev. W. R. Graham is the newly appointed pastor, purchased from the Col. W. J. Leonard heirs this week the property on North Division street occupied by Mr. Travers L. Ruark. The newly acquired property is to be used as a parsonage. The present parsonage property on Camden avenue has been disposed of to Mr. George Venables for a consideration of $3000.00. It is understood that the price paid for the Leonard property was $8000.00.

Dr. L. E. Barrett will deliver a sermon next Tuesday night before the convention of the Ministerial Association at Easton.

The Chestertown Epworth League has elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Pres., H. H. Klinefelter; 1st vice-pres., Miss Eunice Lambert; 2nd vice-pres., Mrs. H. H. Klinefelter; 3rd vice-pres., Mrs. L. E. Barrett: 4th vice-pres., Mrs. Clara V. Perkins; secretary, Miss Maude Kemp; treas., Miss Mabel Toulson; organist, Miss Ethel Ringgold; pianist, Miss Lillian Matthews.

Chestertown M. E. Church, Rev. Louis E. Barrett, D. D., pastor—Services next Sunday, May 23rd, as follows: 10.30 a. m., preaching by the pastor, subject, "The Eternal Question"; 2.15 p. m., Sabbath school and pastor's Bible class; 6.00 p. m. Junior League; 6.35 p. m. Senior League; 7.30 p. m. services in charge of W. F. M. S. Sermon by pastor, subject, "The Brave Woman." A cordial invitation to attend these services is given to the public generally.

Rev. J. M. Arters has been made State Superintendent of Anti-Saloon League in Delaware. Heretofore the work has been carried on in connection with the Maryland league, but it has grown to such an extent as to require a separate league.

The people of Trinity M. E. Church, Millington, have doubled their shed capacity. They think that a merciful man should be merciful to his beast. They also think that people who attend other churches show a good deal of "brass" when they hitch their horses in the sheds and let the men who paid their money and put in the work hitch outside.

Emmanuel Epworth League of Chesterville, entertained Trinity League on Tuesday night. The first part of the evening was devoted to a joint business meeting, presided over by President Felton, of the Trinity League, after which the following programme was rendered: "The Creed to Be," Miss Julia Brinsfield; duet, by the Misses Skinner and Gale; "The Prayer of Cyrus Brown," Miss Bernice Vansant; "The Angel's Promise," Miss Mary Huey; "My Father's World," Miss Edna Brinsfield; "Co-Workers with God," Miss Bessie King; "Keep the Music Ringing" and a splendid Bible drill by the Juniors. After the program the company repaired to the parsonage, where refreshments were served by Emmanuel Leaguers.

Miss Anna Clements and Mrs. Rood leave Saturday to attend the annual meeting of the W. H. M. S. in Virginia.

Rev. W. S. Skinner will deliver his lecture on Ben Hur and Paul Revere in Emmanuel Church, Chesterville, Saturday night at 8. Fine moving pictures. Sunday-school at 9.30, preaching at 10.30, League at 7.30, followed by address. Wednesday service at 8.

Trinity, Millington: Sunday-school at 2, preaching at 3, League at 7.30.

TREMENDOUS crowds have visited the Hub, Millington, and it is no wonder for if they keep on selling goods the way they started, Millington will carry the largest crowds for its size onthe peninsula.
