

In addition to the foregoing information, I am handing to you the following:

(1) Measured drawings made by the writer as follows:

1. Plan of the Building
2. South Elevation
3. West Elevation
4. North Elevation
5. East Elevation

Scale: 1/2" equals 1 foot

(2) Set of drawings made for the Historic American Buildings Survey in 1936. These drawings were made in the office of Wyatt and Nolting, Baltimore, Maryland, and were drawn by Mr. Howard G. Hall, Architect. The originals are in the Library of Congress, Washington, D. C.

Copies attached are as follows:

1. Floor Plan
2. East Elevation (South Elevation on my drawings)
3. South Elevation (West Elevation on my drawings)
4. Details showing section through the building and interior doors
5. Details of the lock on the exterior door. (This drawing is full-size)
6. Further details of same lock
7. Further details of same lock, showing the key

Scale: 1/4" equals 1 foot

(3) Illustration: The earliest illustration of the building which Mr. Fowler and I were able to find was copied from a picture of the State House Hill showing various buildings, one of which was the Treasury Building in 1789.

(4) Copy of a picture from the files of Judge David Fowler about 50 years ago ~~Mr. Robert Fowler~~, taken ~~in 1862~~

(5) Copy of a sketch on file in the Pratt Library, taken from Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper, March 5, 1881. This illustration is not correct; the building is shown as a stone building and
