Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a brick dust sediment, or settling, stringy or milky appearance often indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back are also symptoms that tell you the kidneys and bladder are out of order and need attention.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills almost every wish in correcting rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. Corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest because of its remarkable health restoring properties. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

Home of Swamp-Root.

You may have a sample bottle sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Mention this paper and remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

Mrs. Tamsey Ann Reese.

Mrs. Tamsey Ann Reese, who was noted throughout the Maryland district for her philanthrophy, died at her residence in Easton, Monday morning of general debility. She was 87 years old. Mrs. Reese had been in feeble health for a long time, but had only been confined to her house a few months. She was one of the wealthiest women in Easton, and gave largely of her income for the support of the poor and care of the sick. She gave largely to the M. P. church and charitable institutions in the State, and no one who was worthy or needed assistance ever called upon her and went away empty handed.

She was the daughter of the late Col. William and Mrs. Mary Hughlett, of Caroline county, but who for many years prior to their death made their home in Talbot county.

She married the Rev. Levi P. Reese, who died in 1851, who, in his day, was one of the most prominent and eloquent preachers in the Maryland Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church. By this union she had one child, a daughter, Mary H. Reese, who died at the age of 17 months.

She was a life-long member of Calvary Methodist Protestant Church, of Easton, of which her husband at one time was pastor, and was for years treasurer of the church and Sunday School and one of its most active and prominent members.

She was a sister of the late Col. William and Thomas Hughlett, Mrs. E. L. F. Hardeastle and Mrs. I. L. Adkins, of Easton. She was an aunt of Rev. F. B. Adkins, Judge William H. Adkins, Edward B. Hardeastle, Dr. Hughlett Hardeastle, of Easton; Mrs. Charles S. Henry, of Cambridge, and a great-aunt of Col. Henry Holliday and T. Hughlett Henry, of Easton. She was connected with the leading families of Talbot, Queen Anne's, Caroline and Dorchester counties and Baltimore city.

Her funeral was from Calvary Methodist Protestant Church, Tuesday afternoon, and on Wednesday her body was taken to Baltimore for burial alongside of those of her husband and child.

Dr. F. T. Little, of Chestertown, attended the funeral.

Mrs. Margaret Pennington.

Mrs. Margaret Pennington, widow of the late Leonard Pennington, died Monday night at her residence, Maple avenue, Chestertown, aged 77 years. Funeral was held Wednesday afternoon from Christ M. P. Church, services conducted by Rev. Dr. F. T. Little; interment at Kennedyville. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd. The bearers were Messrs. J. W. Lambert, W. Vansant, Joseph Guest, A. S. Crawford, C.S. Smith, Fred. G. Usilton.

Mrs. Emily Meeds.

Mrs. Emily Meeds, widow of the late Wm. J. Meeds, died Friday morning of paralysis, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank R. McWhorter, Church Hill, in the 67th year. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 2.30, interment being made in Church Hill cemetery. She leaves one son, Frank O. Meeds, and one daughter, Mrs. Frank R. McWhorter.

SASSAFRAS ITEMS.

Rev. C. M. Cullum will preach in the Rehoboth M. P. Church a memorial sermon to the members of the Jr. O. U. A. M., and all the whole vicinity and neighboring lodges are cordially invited to come. The members will meet in the Council room and attend the service in a body and we trust there will be a large attendance on Sunday morning, May 30.

Our little town has been on one continual whiz for the past fortnight. There has been so many candidates in our midst visiting their friends here, namely, Messrs. James T. Dixon, Wm. S. Hurlock, Jesse Copper, Walter H. Hadaway, William Tarbutton and many other candidates from Chestertown and lower Kent have been visiting here, and we must add for hospitality Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sylvester take the palm, for they have so frequently entertained our visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis H. Dreka are entertaining Mr. Harry Hinnes, of Wilmington, a friend of their son, Mr. Louis A. Dreka.

Our town is becoming quite prominent. We had two social events on Monday evening.

Mrs. Bradford Johnson left on Monday for Philadelphia to take her little daughter to see a specfalist for treatment of her eyes.

Dr. and Mrs. Money entertained relatives on Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ross and son, of Chestwold. They drove the entire distance on Sunday and returned in the evening of same day.

Children's Day will be duly observed in the Rehoboth M. P. Church on Sunday evening the first Sunday in June. An elaborate program has been prepared and are practicing daily. Our choir will render special music and we trust the whole vicinity will come and assist us in observing the beautiful services.

Mr. and Mrs. Royden Caulk are entertaining her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Toulson and little son, of near New Castle, Delaware.

There will be a strawberry and ice cream festival under the auspices of the Jr. O. U. A. M. in the Mechanics Hall, on Friday evening, June 4th. Ice-cream, strawberries and cake will be in abundance.

Little Misses Elizabeth Ballett and Louise Clift have organized a "Sunshine Circle." They were members of this association whilst living for several years in "Only," Virginia, before the death of little Miss Elizabeth Ballett's father this past winter. The dues they'll gather in will be to help the little invalids and suffering ones at the hospital and we do think these sweet little children not yet more than 10 years should have much assistance and praise.

Beautiful.—This expresses the colorings and patterns of Moody & Lusby's line of Spring and Summer Suitings. They certainly have a lovely array of Men's Suits—prices ranging $10, $12.50 and $15. Boy's and Children's proportionally low. Go see them while assortment is yet complete.

Bulletin.

SUMMER TRIPS AFAR AND NEAR.

Summer days are coming fast. Already vacation days are being discussed in the home and in the office, and in a few weeks the annual exodus to country, seashore and mountain will have been begun.

America abounds with delightful summering places, in valley, on mountain and beside the sea—thousands of resorts whither wend the pilgrims in search of pleasure and recreation.

Pennsylvania Railroad ticket agents now have on sale excursion tickets to the greater number of these resorts; by the first week in June there will be about eight hundred points covered by Pennsylvania Railroad summer excursion tickets.

From the rock-bound bays of Newfoundland to the sunny slopes of the Virginia shores; from the White Mountains of New Hampshire to the Cumberland Mountains of Tennessee; along the forty beaches of New Jersey; even to the far coast of the Pacific Ocean, these summer resorts stand ready to entertain the transient or all-summer guest.

Any Pennsylvania Railroad Ticket Agent will cheerfully give information concerning routes and fares to these resorts, enabling summer pilgrims to plan their outing at a minimum of time and cost.

Information may also be secured by addressing Geo. W. Boyd, General Passenger Agent, Broad Street Station, Philadelphia; C. Studds, D. P. A., 263 Fifth Avenue New York City; Wm. Pedrick, Jr., D. P.
