New Business Locals.

To Butchers.—I will open my cattle yard at Boettcherville, this county, to purchasers Monday, April 21st. One hundred head in fine, fat condition, now ready for market. Want to sell them to the butchers of Frostburg, Lonaconing, Westernport, Cumberland, etc.; do not wish to ship them east. Earliest callers obtain first choice of a lot, everyone of which, however, is good.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT

PUBLIC NOTICE!

To my patrons and the public generally I would respectfully announce that after mature deliberation I have concluded to conduct my business hereafter on the

ONE-PRICE SYSTEM,

Believing this to be the equitable way of selling merchandise.

One Price to All—
—and that the Lowest.

I HAVE consulted with many of my customers on the subject of ONE PRICE, and without an exception they have cordially endorsed it. I have recently re-modeled my commodious store-rooms and marked every article down to the lowest possible price—lower by far than the same quality of goods can be purchased elsewhere in the State. I have just completed an

Additional Trunk and Satchel Department,

Comprising over thirteen hundred square feet, and stocked with the most elegant line of Trunks and Satchels, lower in price and better in quality than ever before offered in this community. My stock of

Ladies, Misses, Childrens, Mens and Boys' Shoes

Is of superior quality and low prices, so low as be in reach of all:

Ladies' superior Dongola Button Boots, all solid leather, for.....$1.25 per pair; real value $2
Child's Spring-Heel Button Boots, sizes 4 to 8, for.....50 cents per pair; real value 75 cents
Men's elegant Bals and Congress Shoes, fine finish, fashionable shapes, for.....$1 per pair; real value $2

☞ My immense Hat Department is stocked with the

Latest New York City Spring and Summer Styles

For Men, Boys and Children.

Only agent for Dunlap's celebrated extra quality HATS in soft Derby and Silk.

Remember, One Price to All, and that the Lowest.

ORIGINAL POETRY.

FOR ——.

In memory of his friend,
HUGH G. MEEM.

Time counteth not by years—
By days, or moments, our allotted span.
Perfect that life that hath fulfilled its end,
Tho' aching hearts with tears
Mourn a bright promise early laid aside.

But death, with gentler hand
And kindlier instinct, hath dissolved the bonds
Of friendship that dear friends might learn to feel
The force of love's demand
And hold more sacred still that sacred tie.

And sorrow cannot last,
But like the shadows of an April day
Running mock races on the sprouging grass
Heralds the sunshine, cast
With greater glory over future years.

That life hath not been vain
That being lightly held for others' sakes,
Leaves the bright memory of a brave man's deed
To soften sorrow's pain,
And link new hands and hearts in sympathy,—

And force the world to own
A broader creed for having known his worth
And felt his gentle influence for good.
Death was a hero's crown—
The triumph of a brave life perfected.

Publications.—The "White House," to most people, means a flat, unpicturesque white house, as generally the view of it shows the severely plain north front; but there are many other views of the home of our Presidents, and we are indebted to Demorest's Family Magazine for laying them before us. The May number of this popular magazine literally takes you to Washington and shows you the "White House" from every point of view, as well as its charming surroundings. The fifteen beautiful illustrations will give you a better idea of the nation's Executive Mansion than you could possibly gain by a personal visit; and never before has it been so fully and beautifully illustrated. This feature alone will make the May number of Demorest's Family Magazine have a phenomenal sale; and those who are so fortunate as to possess it, will find in it a fund of information and amusement, containing, as it does, nearly two hundred illustrations, embellishing such articles as "A May Festival in Florence," "Transformations of a Butterfly," "The Stellar Universe," "The Fairies of the Plains," "Modeling in Glass," "Kindergarten Work and Play for the Home," etc. Besides, in this number Ella Wheeler Wilcox commences an intensely interesting story; and two oil pictures, "I Won't," and "I Will," make it doubly attractive. Published by W. Jennings Demorest, 15 East 14th St., New York.

Many lives, histories, or biographies of the late Jefferson Davis, purporting to be written by Mrs. Jefferson Davis are being advertised throughout the country. The only genuine work of the kind written by Mrs. Jefferson Davis is that to be published by Belford Company, 18-22 East 16th Street, New York, entitled "Jefferson Davis, Ex-President of the Confederate States: A Memoir, by His Wife." All other works claiming the authorship of Mrs. Jefferson Davis must necessarily be injurious to her personally and pecuniarily. The book is sold by subscription, and territory is being rapidly assigned. The work promises to be one of the most popular ever published, and those desiring to canvass for it should apply at once to the publishers, who will furnish circulars and information.

New Business Locals.

Remarkable Rescue.—Mrs. Michael Curtain, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefited from first dose. She continued its use and after taking ten bottles, found herself sound and well, now does her own housework and is as well as she ever was. Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at R. G. Colburn's Drug Store, large bottles 50c. and $1.00.
