SERIOUSLY BURNED.

The little five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Augustine Money, living near Worton Station, was very seriously burned Monday afternoon. A lot of rubbish was set on fire on an open lot and this little girl, attracted by the blaze, ran and jumped across the fire. In doing so her clothing caught fire and men ran and smothered the blaze with their coats. Drs. Barwick and Simpers attended the little sufferer, and though delirious with raging fever they do not think her condition serious. Later—She died Tuesday afternoon.

The funeral took place Thursday interment in Chester cemetery, Rev. G. A. Morris officiating. The bearers were G. M. Sutton, T. B. Ivens, Rosco C. Wharton, G. E. Sheets; C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

Henry, Jr., the four year old son of Capt. and Mrs. Henry Bullen, of Sparrows Point, was burned to death on Wednesday last. The child was left momentarily alone in the kitchen of his parents home and it is supposed that he must have been playing in the fire. Mr. and Mrs. Bullen were formerly residents of Rock Hall, the latter being a sister of Mr. Thomas Willis, of Chestertown. The remains were brought to Rock Hall for interment last Saturday.

WEDDING NOTES.

VANSANT—CLEMENTS.

The first of a number of weddings in Queen Anne's county this fall took place in the Methodist Episcopal Church Tuesday when Miss Ethel Clements was married to Mr. F. Price Vansant, of Delmar, Del. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Daniel Wilson, pastor of the church. The maid of honor, Miss Maud Newman, of Baltimore, wore pale yellow silk and carried yellow chrysanthemums. The flower girls were Mildred Clark, niece of the groom, and Agnes Jarman. They wore white dresses with yellow ribbons, and carried baskets of white and yellow blossoms, which were strewn along the way. The bride was gowned in white silk, with train, and carried Bride roses. Her veil was caught with orange blossoms. The ushers were: Mr. Ford Phillips, of Wilmington, Del., brother-in-law of the groom; Mr. Harry Butler, of Delmar; Mr. Warner Mallalieu, of Millington, and Mr. Joel Clements, of Crumpton, brother of the bride. Mrs. Walter Morgan, of Sudlersville, presided at the organ. The church was prettily trimmed with autumn leaves and potted plants. Luncheon was served to the families from 11 to 12 o'clock. An informal reception was held after the wedding ceremony.

The bride for several years taught in the public schools of Queen Anne's county. She is a daughter of Mr. Charles W. Clements, president of the Merchants and Bankers' Association, of Queen Anne's county.

Many useful and handsome presents were received. A large number of guests were present from Baltimore, Philadelphia, Wilmington and other places in Queen Annes and Kent county.

Mr. and Mrs. Vansant left on the afternoon train at Millington for a wedding tour and upon their return will reside at Delmar, Del.

BOND—CRUIKSHANK.

Mr. Roland More Bond, of Port Deposit, and Miss Lucie Calvert Cruikshank, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cruikshank, of First district, were married Tuesday evening Oct. 12th, in St. Stephens' Protestant Episcopal Chapel, in Cecilton, by Rev. Dr. Walke, an uncle of the bride. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with flowers and plants.

Miss Grace Cruikshank sister of the bride, was maid of honor; Miss Virginia Thomas, of St. Mary's county; Miss Mary Whittle, of Stanton, Va., and Miss Arrie Coudon, of Perryville, were bridesmaids. Mr. Philip Bond, of Port Deposit, was best man. Messrs. Thomas Cruikshank, Jr., of Cecilton; Dr. J. T. C. Hopkins, of Port Deposit; and Mr. Thomas Hopkins, of Havre de Grace, acted as ushers. After a reception Mr. and Mrs. Bond were driven to Elkton, where they boarded a train for a wedding trip.

Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Mr. John Thomas Morris to Miss Henrietta Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Tilford Lawton, of Baltimore, Tuesday evening Oct. 26, in Brown Memorial Church, Baltimore. Mr. Morris is a prominent member of the Baltimore bar, and is a native of Kent county.

Whitaker—Hicks.

A very pretty autumn wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Whitaker, Galena, Wednesday afternoon at 1.30 o'clock, when their daughter, Miss Etta Whitaker, was led to the altar of marriage by Mr. George Ernest Hicks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Hicks. Only the two immediate families and a few intimate friends witnessed the ceremony.

The house, closed and lighted for the occasion, was decorated in evergreens, asparagus, autumn foliage and chrysanthemums. The ceremony was performed in the parlor of the home, beneath an arch of evergreens and ferns, by Rev. A. P. Prettyman, assisted by Rev. J. M. Mitchell. The bride was attended by her sister, Dr. Elizabeth Whitaker, of Philadelphia, as maid of honor, and the best man was his brother, Mr. James Hicks. The bride was attired in a gown of cream lawnsdowne, trimmed in applique and satin, and carried a graceful cluster of cream chrysanthemums. Dr. Whittaker wore a gown of pale blue silk mull, with applique and velvet trimmings, and carried chrysanthemums.

As the bridal couple entered the room the bridal chorus from Lohengrin was played by Miss Gertrude Dempsey, and at the conclusion of the ceremony Mendelsohn's wedding march.

An informal reception followed, after which Mr. and Mrs. Hicks left for a short trip. The bride wore a traveling suit of dark blue diagonal cloth.

PENNINGTON—HUNGERFORD.

The wedding of Miss Mary Pennington, and Rev. R Eugene Hungerford of the Methodist Protestant Conference, took place at the home of the bride in Fredericktown, Md. at high noon Thursday, Oct. 21 in the presence of near relatives and friends. The bride was becomingly attired in white and was attended by her sister, Miss Emma as maid of honor, while Mr. Wm. Pennington was best man. The ceremony was performed by Rev. L. E. Cullum of Warwick, Md., after a reception and elegant luncheon, Mr. and Mrs. Hungerford left for a trip to Atlantic City. The Bride was the recipient of many handsome, and useful presents.
