MAYOR PRESTON "Tripped" the whole crowd of politicians.

SENATOR W. W. BECK's picture was numbered 13 in the Baltimore Sun's gallery. This is certainly a good omen.

THE Baltimore American had fine cuts of Kent's delegation in its issue of Thursday.

THE State Roads Commission will ask the next Legislature to pass a law regulating the passage of traction engines over the state roads. The Commission realizes the impossibility of preventing their traffic entirely but hopes to effect some law whereby a wheel may be used which will not injure the road bed, such as the big wheels now used will do.

THE American Bible Society is sending Pastor Russell, a renowned Brooklyn divine, to the old countries to investigate the methods and progress in the various mission fields. Pastor Russell will tell of his observations in a series of letters to THE NEWS. Practically everybody contributes to the various missionary funds, and everybody will be interested in this renowned minister's communications, which will begin within a few weeks.

VOICING his sentiments against the scientific cultivation of oysters, State Senator Milbourne, of Somerset county, joins the KENT NEWS when he let it be known recently that his stand is with the men who are making their living by harvesting annually the crops of bivalves sown by nature.

"Oyster culture is all right theoretically," he said, "but it cannot be worked out in practice according to the plans advocated by the Maryland Shellfish Commission.

"Take, for instance, the proposed amendment that would allow the planters to take up their oysters with dredges. If this were to pass everybody who wished to engage in the oyster business would lease a lot and with power dredge boats go upon the natural bars—even though they might be tonging bars—and help themselves.

"The law? Of course, it would be contrary to law, but that would make no difference to the oyster planters. To enforce the law against stealing oysters the State would have to have a fleet of warships."

TO RAISE prize-winning ducks use the family bathtub is the advice of a Boulder man. J. C. Brown, this Boulder man, owns a number of Indian runner ducks and he wanted them to be in good condition for the Boulder poultry show. But cold weather came on and the ducks began to look shaggy. Brown studied over the situation. Finally he gathered up his choicest ducks and took them to the house, where he announced to the family that they would have to return to the tub back of the range or use the kitchen kettle for their baths for he needed the bathroom.

Filling the tub with water and placing the ducks therein he closed the door of the bathroom, a broad smile wreathing his countenance. The birds won first prize.

Wm. F. Russell Qualifies

Takes the Oath as School Commissioner in Place of W. B. Copper, Elected Judge of Orphans' Court.

Mr. William F. Russell, whose appointment as School Commissioner by Governor Crothers was announced in the NEWS some weeks ago, did not qualify until Thursday. He understood that Mr. Copper had not resigned and with his usual courteous manner waited more than a reasonable time for said resignation. However, being informed that Mr. Copper was trying to hold on to two offices, he began to take steps to finding out the law in this case. Governor Crothers stated that he had a perfect right to qualify but referred him to the Attorney General whose opinion is here given as follows:

January 2nd, 1912.

WILLIAM F. RUSSELL, ESQ.,
Kent County Savings Bank,
Chestertown, Md.

Dear Sir:—

I have your favor of the 30th ult. in reference to your appointment on the Board of School Commissioners for Kent County in the place of Mr. Copper.

Article 33 of the Declaration of Rights provides as follows:

"No Judge shall hold any other office, civil or military, or political trust or employment of any kind whatsoever under the constitution or laws of this State or of the United States, or any of them or receive fees or perquisites of any kind for the discharge of his official duties."

I understand that Mr. Copper qualified as Judge of the Orphans' Court for Kent County on December 2, 1911. In my opinion upon his qualifying as Judge of said Orphans' Court, Mr. Copper ceased from that moment to be a member of the Board of School Commissioners for Kent County. A vacancy therefore exists in said Board which the Governor has a right to fill under the law.

EDGAR ALLEN POE,
Attorney General.

With this opinion in hand Mr. Russell appeared before Clerk Dixon and took the oath and will take his seat next Tuesday.

He is thoroughly competent and will give more satisfaction to the people at large than any appointment that could be made. Governor Crothers exercised good judgment in picking Mr. William F. Russell for this position.

MARYLAND'S MODEL GOVERNOR.

Governor Austin L. Crothers can retire to private life after the inauguration of Mr. Goldsborough with perfect satisfaction that he has served the people well and that the people without regard to politics, can truly say of him and his administration, "thou good and faithful servant."

Future historians of the State of Maryland will write on his pages that the administration of Governor Austin L. Crothers has been the most successful for the people of any administration in this State from its foundation to the present time. What will come later we do not know, but we do know that the people of Maryland will be extremely fortunate if their future Executives are men of caliber to think out and put into execution policies which will produce as much good for the whole people as the policies of Governor Crothers have produced.

The Message of Governor Austin L. Crothers to the General Assembly is one of the strongest documents which has ever been issued from the Executive Department of this State. It contains more sound advice and good suggestions for the people of Maryland than any Message which has ever come from the pen of a Governor in this State. It is a strong Message from a strong man. Governor Crothers has not simply been an office-holder during his administration. He has not been a parade Governor, but he has been a working Governor whose brain and ability has built up things within the State which will have a lasting effect for good for many years to come. There has not been a minute of his time since his inauguration four years ago which has not been spent in formulating some new ideas and in constructing some new plans which would produce something for the good of the people of Maryland. His administration has been rich in constructive Legislation which has placed Maryland in the foremost of the Progressive states of this Union, and it has all been done without any blare of trumpets or parade of show.
