Still Moving

is our Reduction Sale and no wonder, for the trade have learned some time ago, that

Our Reductions

Are Reductions

i. e., prices reduced from former low quotations. This is the cause—'tis and has been our getting rid of plan for a number of years.

We still have some good things left, yet we advise

AN EARLY CALL

All winter wearables such as—Suits, Overcoats, Gloves, Sweater Coats, Separate Trousers, etc., included in this sale.

Moody & Lusby

Directly Opposite Court House,

CHESTERTOWN, MD.

LOCAL NOTES

A BOAT is expected at Tolchester today.

THE entertainment at Fairlee Saturday evening was a most successful affair and about $40 was cleared. The full account will appear next week.

QUITE a number of Kent countians attended the big automobile show in Baltimore this week.

The steamer B. S. Ford made the trip to Rock Hall Thursday and was hailed with joy by the people there. Chestertown was reached about 7 o'clock and but little ice encountered. All were glad to see the steamer.

AN interesting debate will take place Tuesday evening at 8 30 in Fraternal Hall by the members of P. O. S. of A. The question is, Resolved, that women shall be allowed to vote. The affirmative will be John C. Davis, W. F. Malin, J. F. Wheatley; negative, Prof. L. J. Smyth, J. B. McIntyre, W. B. Coleman.

THE Orphans' Court Tuesday granted letters of administration to John Eliason, Esq., on the estate of his father, Mr. Wilbur Eliason, and bond in U. S. Fidelity and Trust Co. for $45,000 accepted. Among the list of personalty is life insurance for $40,000. Mr. Eliason did not leave any will.

W. W. Beck, Esq., was granted letters on estate of Robert W. Reeves, colored.

THE friendly rivalry in window decoration in Chestertown is interesting and pleasing The Washington day trimmings were especially unique the first prize going to Dr. Sterling in Toulson's drug store with Mr. Carl Bordley's big show window a close second followed by the Stam Drug Co. third. Moody & Lusby had a well-dressed man in their window with one of their $6 reduction suits on marked "this is not George Washington, the father of his country, but the father of low prices!"

STILL moving, Moody & Lusby tell us —their reduction sale of clothing is still attracting buyers from even distant points. Go see them and be fairly treated.

DON'T forget the "bake" this Saturday in Eliason's store-room by Miss Bessie Wheatley's class. Next Wednesday evening the classes taught by Mrs. S. R. Matthews and Miss Mayme Thompson will give a luncheon of chicken salad, etc., in the same room. All for good purposes.

AT the regular meeting of the Mt. Vernon Literary Society last Saturday evening the following subject was debated: Resolved, that the education of the negro should be industrial rather than liberal. On the affirmative were Messrs. Harris, J. E and Wheatley. On the negative Messrs. Jones and Simmons. The judges decided unanimously in favor of the affirmative.

MR. FRANK DUYER has been busy this week putting a cabin on his launch preparatory to attending the Democratic National Convention in Baltimore in June! Nothing like beginning in time.

MORE than 4,000 packers and canners attended the National Association in Rochester, N. Y., last week. It developed at the convention that packers are contracting for the tomato crop of 1912, according to location and cost of production, all the way from $8.50 to $11 a ton. For shoe peg sweet corn the price ranges around $12 a ton for this year's contracts. The Kent farmers do not grow this crop, planting instead Stowell's Evergreen, which commands two dollars a ton less in all markets than the shoe peg.

Two young girls, Dorothy Wherritt and Josephine Saunders, were burned so that one died immediately and the other at the Emergency Hospital in Easton, when one of them attempted to hasten a fire with the use of the oil can at Bruceville last Saturday afternoon.

WHILE everyone was more or less concerned about the 250 people on Holland's Island during the recent freeze, here is how they fared: "The people are not in need. Wild fowl were never known to be so plentiful as they are around the island waters this year. The people have been shooting great quantities of wild geese, brant, red heads, black heads, canvas backs and bald crowns. These wild fowl congregate in great numbers, especially at the Northeast point and in Holland Cove. The latter has a grass bottom, on which the fowl feed, and here the boons of guns has been constant every morning."

J. E. DUTTON, one of the best known men in Sussex county, had 30 acres in cantaloupes last year from which he is said to have netted $7,000

THE News of Salisbury says: "Wicomico packers are closing contracts for tomatoes to be delivered this year, the prices ranging from $10 to $11 per ton. The outlook is for a heavy pack in 1912."

MOSES MEEKINS, of Quaker Neck, lost a good mare Monday. He was driving to town when the horse without any notice fell dead in the road.

THE Penna. R. R. surveyors have been looking over the proposed railroad route to Nicholson's station the past week.

A VERY HIGH TIDE flooded some cellars along the water front Thursday.

THE home of Mr. James Brice on Washington avenue was ransacked one night last week by parties who were to all intent and purposes looking for money, but found none. A plan has been made to catch the thieves if they ever return. Mr. Brice and wife are in the South but have faithful guardians of their property.

Fatally Burned.—While playing around a hot stove at her home, near Warwick, Wednesday, Grace Briscoe, colored, aged 3 years, had her clothing ignited and was frightfully burned. Medical attendance was summoned, but she died within a few hours after the accident.

Son Outweighs Father.—Mr. Samuel Hicks, the obliging clerk to the county commissioners, has a son who had been promised a trip just as soon as he weighed as much as his father. Leon challenged his father on this promise one day this week and Lofland & Culp's scales was to tell the tale. Mr. Hicks had an idea the boy would come very close to his weight, but, to be doubly sure, put a few bags of shot in his pockets and was weighed. Leon also had some misgivings as to his weight, and put a couple of flat-irons in his pockets and won by two pounds!

Bride Skates To Groom.—Accompanied by her brother last Sunday week, Miss Hattie Middleton, of near Church Hill, skated from Church Hill to Chestertown where she met Mr. Benjamin Everett, of this town, and an hour later they were made man and wife. The young couple returned to Church Hill Sunday evening and received the congratulations of many friends. Monday morning they started out on the ice again and skated to Kent county, where they will spend two weeks with the bride's sister, Mrs. Vansant.

New Merchant.—Mr. Jas. T. DeCorse, of near Chestertown, has purchased of Mr. James S. Bradley his stock of goods and good will in store and takes charge at once. Mr. Bradley has been in business here for more than forty years and by economy, honesty, industry and fair dealing has built up a good business retiring with a competence. May his last days be his best and his rest from active business life be sweet indeed. Mr. DeCorse some years ago was in the coal business with Capt. T. D. France and made a success of it. He has rented the home on Front street lately tenanted by J. D. Urie, Esq., and removed in at once.

Long Fasts.—At the sale some three weeks on Mr. Manlove's farm, a six months calf was overlooked by its buyer and remained shut in a stall in the stable, without food or water for 18 days during the coldest weather of this severe season! When discovered it was alive and well, though apparently able to swallow the entire "water wagon"! It will recover. This four legged faster beats Dr. Tanner's great feat "all hollow."

Mr. Wm. Lusby says that during the blizzard some years ago a hog was buried under the snow for three weeks and when he came out he was almost wild. He ran away and was never seen afterward. At the same time there were fifty shotes killed by cholera but this hog escaped!

Washington Loses.—Mr. John F. Crosby, of Georgetown University, speaking upon the subject "Mission of America," was declared the winner of the second annual inter-collegiate contest in oratory, which was held in McCoy Hall Friday night, between the colleges of Maryland and the District of Columbia, under the auspices of the Maryland Peace Society. He received $75 in gold. Mr. Crosby won the second prize last year.

The second prize in the contest Friday night was won by T. Brooke Price, of Johns Hopkins, who spoke of the "Popular Fallacies About War." Mr. Theodore Marburg, president of the Maryland Peace Society, was the presiding officer and awarded the prizes.

Others in the contest were Edward J. Hanrahan, of Loyola College; Edgar T. Fell, of St. John's College, and Wendell DeWitt Allen, of Washington College. The judges were: Messrs. Bernard N. Baker, J. Kemp Bartlett, Douglas M. Wylie, Dr. Hans Froelicher and Dr. James W. Bright.
