Mrs. J. T Twilley is ill at her home on High street, Chestertown.

ROCK HALL NOTES.

My! Old Pat did fine on Sunday. He made us all feel real Irish.

Now beloved, let up, it was not our new fangled spelling that made T-u-e-s-d-a-y spell Tuesday, nor S-h-o-r-n to spell Stevens in last week's Rock Hall items. It was the printers' devil or some fellow in cohutes with him in a play of type.

Good for Senator Beck, he's the oystermen's friend so far. If he stands by us to the last ditch we will love him truly. But oh you School Bond killers.

Last week in the bay the yawl boat of his vessel together with a lot of gasoline tanks belonging to the tongmen of Chester river were swept from his deck and lost.

What's the matter with Rock Hall Methodists? One year seems the limit of a pastor's stay with them This should not be. Mr Corkran was a good pastor and many prayers from here will go with him to his new field of labor. Mr. Prettyman will be well received

Mr. A. J. Andrews is laid up with a severe case of rheumatism

Strong's woods of Grey's Inn Creek is furnishing our fishermen with fish net poles. Hundreds have cut there this season.

The stork passed through this village on last Friday night making several calls. First at the home of Mr. Tillman Hubbard leaving a fine baby girl, then entered the home of Mr. Charles Akers, leaving a nice little daughter.

Mrs Leonard Kelley, of Philadelphia, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Boyer on Sharp street

Miss Hallie Dowling, daughter of Capt and Mrs. John Dowling, and Mr. Chas Parsons, both of this town, drove to Worton on last Saturday and were married.

Mrs. Charles Hamiker and two daughters, Misses Helen and Mildred, spent

UPPER KENT NOTES

The heavy down-pour of rain on last Friday did considerable damage to the roads and bridges of this section. Our rural mail carrier of route No. 2 had quite an experience; he was on the road eight hours and finally had to go back to Crumpton to stay over night, without reaching Millington at all. But all our people rejoiced at the fine change in the weather this week. It made them think about gardening, house-cleaning and all sorts of such things as such fine spring weather brings on.

Mrs. William Baldwin, of Chestertown, is visiting friends and relatives here.

Mr. Earle A. Stafford spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stafford, of Sudlersville.

Mrs. T. M. Britton spent the past two weeks with relatives in Camden and Wilmington.

Miss Pearl Carpenter, of Easton, is employed at the telephone exchange in place of Miss Bessie Wright, resigned.

Mrs. Merritt Brice was the guest of her mother, Mrs. T. Romie Strong, of Rock Hall.

Mr. Henry M. Tonkin, of Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa., is spending two weeks with his mother, Mrs. Kate R. Tonkin.

Misses Marghuerite Ahern and Dorothy Wilson spent the week-end with the former's sister, Mrs. D. B. Ford, of Chestertown.

Mrs. Mary Porter returned last Sunday to Clayton after spending two weeks with her son, Mr. Robert E. Porter.

Among those who attended the M. E. Conference in Wilmington last week were: Messrs. Joseph Mallalieu, John H. Weist, George Dixon; Mrs. Kate Tonkin.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Holy Cross P. E Church met on Thursday evening of last week at the home of Mrs. Finley Collins.

Mr. Harry Tolson, of Chester, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Tolson.

Mr. John Ahern, of Conway Hall, Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa., is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Ahern.

Mr. John R. Gillespie and daughter, Miss Marie, spent Sunday the guest of his father, Mr. William Gillespie, of Sudlersville.

Mrs. Mollie Hurlock returned on Tuesday to her home, near Kennedyville, after spending a week with relatives in and near town.

The lecture which was given in Trinity M E. Church South on Tuesday evening by Rev Spencer Skinner on the subject, "In His Steps," was quite well attended. It was a real treat to all present, especially the fine singing by his wife, Mrs. Skinner.

Mrs. Jessie G. Hackett was detained from school several days this week on account of sickness.

Mrs John E. Woodall and children, Lester and Elizabeth, attended the box social which was given at the home of her sister, Mrs Ida Embert, near town, on Tuesday evening, for the benefit of Holden's Church.

Miss Lillie Marowitz returned on Friday of last week after a two month's stay with her mother, Mrs. S. R. Marowitz, of Baltimore.

Rev. Henry S Thompson, pastor of Millington M. E. Church, is now the oldest member of the Wilmington Conference in active service. Last week he attended the celebration of the 125th anniversary of the Philadelphia Conference, held in St. George's M. E Church, of which his father, the Rev. Thomas J. Thompson, was pastor in the early '20s. H. S Thompson entered the Philadelphia Conference fifty-four years ago this spring and remained in it until the Wilmington Conference sprang up with the appearance of the Mason and Dixon's line in 1868. He has been in active service fifty-one years and since entering Conference has not missed a session.

STILL POND ITEMS.

Mr. Harry Stanley, of Baltimore, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stanley over Sunday.

Moving pictures given in Harper's Hall Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evening were much enjoyed by the town people.

Miss Lillias Walter is spending sometime with relatives in Baltimore.

Mrs. John Robinson and children, Miss Ethel and Ben spent Tuesday in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. James Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Medders, Mr J. B. Crowding and Mrs. Leonard Price returned from Wilmington Conference Monday.

The heavy deluge of rain on last Friday did considerable damage to our roads.

Mr. Penn Norris, of Baltimore, visited his mother, Mrs. Georgia Norris Wednesday

CHURCH

Prof. Howell made an instructive address on Sunday evening at the 6.45 service in Christ M. P. Church. A duet by Misses Anna Smyth and Marghuerite Dodd was a pleasing feature.

Dr. L. E. Barrett preached at Elkton Sunday morning.

Dr. F. T. Little addressed a mass meeting in Baltimore Tuesday night on the needs of greater diligence in home missions, especially in the cities. He quoted some very gratifying figures, showing the growth of the Methodist Protestant Church in this respect.

Still Pond, Fairlee, Piney Neck and Rock Hall all have new pastors in the M. E. pulpits this year. May each have a pentecostal year.

At the session of the Chestertown M. E Sabbath School last Sunday afternoon a beautiful duet by Mr. and Mrs. J. Hydie Thompson was a feature.

On Tuesday next, 26th inst, the Rev. N L. Coley, Rector of St. Jude and the Nativity, Philadelphia, will preach in Emmanuel Church at 7.30 p. m. Mr. Coley is a most fluent and attractive speaker and is in frequent demand outside of his own Parish.

On Friday evening, 29th, Mr. George C. Thomas, of the Baltimore bar, will be the speaker at 7.45 o'clock. A cordial invitation is given to all to attend these services.

The members of the Chestertown M. E. Church are more than pleased to have their pastor, Dr. L. E. Barrett, returned to them for another year. The welcome, however, is not confined to the membership of that church alone, but to the entire community where he is loved and esteemed by all.

Rev. J. E. Nicholson, pastor of Crumpton M. P. Charge, will preach Sunday morning at Providence Church and in Crumpton at night on the subject: "The Power of The Gospel."

Preaching services at the Presbyterian Churches as following: Westminister at 10.30 a. m. Grace at 3 p. m. Worton at 7.30 p. m. Sunday School every Sunday morning at Worton at 10.30 a. m.

Prof. Walter Gale lectured before the Denton Literary Club on Friday night and the Denton Union says it was unusually interesting.

THE trade is very brisk in town. Rote, the jeweler, sold 2 handsome diamonds this week to Chestertown parties.
