KENNEDYVILLE NOTES.

The country roads are improving rapidly as the weather is clear and drying. Many thanks for this.

The changeable weather of March has caused a great deal of sickness in our village and vicinity. Among the many who are indisposed are the following: Wm. T. Hague, Elias T. Othoson, W. Thomas Jones and Mrs. Wm. T. Baxter. Mr. Elias T. Othoson, a week or two ago, suffered from that old enemy, lagrippe, and was getting better, but now has a relapse, and is suffering from bronchitis. Mrs. Crosley, mother of Mrs. Dr. J. W. Urie, at this writing is still very sick.

Miss Fannie Bramble, who has been in Baltimore for treatment, is reported very much improved and is expected home in a few days, to the delight of her many friends.

The following named persons received Monday evening last, in the Kennedyville Grange, the third and fourth degrees, and thus became full-fledged Grangers: Mr. and Mrs. Harper Carter, Mrs. James Archibald, Miss Eva Jewell, Mr. Roy Loller and Mr. George Whiteley. Committees were named by Worthy Master, Thomas Bramble, to visit and write to the several sick members. A large number were in attendance, and at the close of the business session refreshments were served. Some other new names are reported for membership. The meeting, for Fairlee, of the Pomona Grange, has been postponed from the first to the second week in April.

Mr. Mullineaux made a trip to Baltimore last Monday week the 18th, by the Steamer Susquehanna, returning Tuesday following. On account of fog, in the early morning, the boat was near two o'clock reaching the city. Mr. Mullineaux reported that in all his traveling he had never seen the country roads so washed and cut up as by the recent heavy rains.

Regular services for the M. P. Church next Sunday, the 31st, and an adjourned Quarterly Conference, to be held in the home of the President of the board of Stewards, Mr. Isaac Cleaver, on Monday morning, April the 8th. A full attendance is desired.

MISS DEAN TESTIFIES.

A Former Kent County Teacher an Important Witness in Bribery Charge at Annapolis.

"Whether or not I am an advocate of local option," said Miss Nettie C. Dean, the young woman who was chief witness against John F. O'Malley, accused of attempted bribery of a legislator, at Annapolis Friday night, "I would like to have it distinctly understood at this session of the Legislature I have shown no activity whatever in favor of the bill now being considered."

Mis Dean spoke as she was standing, late Saturday afternoon, in the waiting-room of Fulton Station, after having seen several friends enter a train, and her small figure and intelligent blue eyes spoke as well as her lips. "I am a Democrat through and through," she continued, "and when I testified last night in favor of a Republican I took no pleasure in the proceedings—I only told the truth. I suppose because it was known that I was active in urging woman suffrage—talking to the members of the Legislature and asking them to vote for our cause—it is taken for granted that I have labored as earnestly for local option. But that is entirely a mistake. Ugly things are already being said, and I suppose such is always the result of telling the truth."

"Miss Dean, hasn't your traveling on mileage at the expense of the Caroline county delegation been spoken of as irregular, when you are a resident of Baltimore?" she was asked.

"I should have no right to receive such mileage from Caroline if I were a resident of Baltimore," answered the stenographer, "but I am not. I am merely a boarder in this city. I am not only a resident of Caroline but am a property owner and taxpayer in that county. If I shall ever vote—and I am not in despair of doing so some day—I shall vote at Ridgely, my home in old Caroline."

Miss Dean declined to discuss her testimony given before the investigating committee of the House, and, as the sleet of the afternoon was just beginning to descend, she smiled a farewell and left the station with brisk steps.

Miss Dean, who is in her second session at the Legislature as a stenographer of the House, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Dean, of Ridgely. She is a graduate of the State Normal School and has taught in Kent and Caroline counties. About six years ago she came to Baltimore and was stenographer for several business houses, her last engagement ending when she was appointed to Annapolis.

DOMESTIC SCIENCE

EDITOR KENT NEWS:

Dear Sir—I want to send a few words for the paper this week about the Domestic Science Course down here. Mrs. Patterson has worked so hard for us and so few women have come, compared to the ones who are perfectly willing to sit at home and have Mrs. Patterson come to them. She told me to give this message to the women of Kent county: "They write and write for me to come down and talk to them. They want me to leave my home as busy as I am, leave my work and family, and give my time, all gratis. (She told me that not even her traveling expenses were paid.) But when I prepare something extra fine for them down here they are not willing to leave home for five days and reap the benefits."

This has been a wonderful course. The lecturers are the best in the country. Mrs. Foulks is teaching cooking and all the whys and wherefores thereof. There should not be any guessing after hearing the matter-of-fact explanations she gives. Miss Stern, of Boston, is giving us the chemistry of the kitchen, illustrated in many ways.

Prof. Taliaferro is giving very plain, common-sense, understandable talks on drainage and disposal of waste. Prof. Appleman is a good speaker; his specialty is disease and bacteriology.

About eighty ladies have registered, but Kent county alone should have sent

Sick Women

When shown positive and reliable proof that a certain remedy had cured many cases of female ills, wouldn't any sensible woman conclude that the same remedy would also benefit her if suffering with the same trouble?

Here are five letters from southern women which prove the efficiency of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

LETTER FROM VIRGINIA.

Elliston, Va.—"I feel it my duty to express my thanks to you and your great medicine. I was a sufferer from female troubles and had been confined in bed over one third of my time for ten months. I could not do my housework and had fainting spells so that my husband could not leave me alone for five minutes at a time.

"Now I owe my health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier. Whenever I see a suffering woman I want to tell her what these medicines have done for me and I will always speak a good word for them."—Mrs. ROBERT BLANKENSHIP, Elliston, Montgomery Co., Va.

LETTER FROM LOUISIANA

New Orleans, La.—"I was passing through the Change of Life and before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was troubled with hot flashes, weak and dizzy feelings, backache and irregularities. I would get up in the morning feeling tired out and not fit to do anything.

"Since I have been taking your Compound and Blood Purifier I feel all right. Your medicines are worth their weight in gold."—Mrs. GASTON BLONDEAU, 1541 Polymnia St., New Orleans, La.

LETTER FROM FLORIDA.

Wauchula, Fla.—"Some time ago I wrote to you giving you my symptoms, headache, backache, bearing-down, and discomfort in walking, caused by female troubles.

"I got two bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and a package of Sanative Wash and that was all I used to make me a well woman.

"I am satisfied that if I had done like a good many women, and had not taken your remedies, I would have been a great sufferer. But I started in time with the right medicine and got well. It did not cost very much either. I feel that you are a friend to all women and I would rather use your remedies than have a doctor."—Mrs. MATTIE HODNOT, Box 406, Wauchula, Florida.

LETTER FROM WEST VIRGINIA.

Martinsburg, W. Va.—"I am glad to say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done wonders for my mother, daughter and myself.

"I have told dozens of people about it and my daughter says that when she hears a girl complaining with cramps, she tells her to take your Compound."—Mrs. MARY A. HOCKENBERRY, 712 N. 3rd St., Martinsburg, W. Va.

ANOTHER LETTER FROM VIRGINIA.

Newport News, Va.—"About five years ago I was troubled with such pains and bloating every month that I would have to go to bed.

"A friend told me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I soon found relief. The medicine strengthened me in every way and my doctor approved of my taking it.

"I will be glad if my testimony will help some one who is suffering from female weakness."—Mrs. W. J. BLAYTON, 1929 Hampton Ave., Newport News, Va.
