Puss Enterprise was bred by Capt. Thos. Gibson, of Spring Hill, and sold successively to Col. D. B. Cooper, E. H. Douglass, and present owner.

PRODUCE.

1884—b. c., Dandolo, by Tennessee Wilkes. (Gelded.)
1885—b. c., by McCurdy's Hambletonian (owned by E. H. Douglass).
1886—b. c., by Alcamont. (Sold.)

Stinted to Tennessee Wilkes.

No. 26.

ROULETTE. (Standard.) Bay mare, no marks, 15½ hands high; foaled in spring of 1883. By ENFIELD, 2:29.

First dam Chatwood, by BLACKWOOD JR., 2:22½.
Second dam Chieftain's Daughter, by Chieftain, 2:35¾.
Third dam Lee Belle, by Lee, son of Mambrino Chief.
Fourth dam BELLE SHERIDAN (dam of Blackwood Jr., 2:22½), by Blood's Black Hawk.
Fifth dam, by Moreland's Highlander.
Sixth dam, by Virginia Whip.

Enfield, by Rysdyk's Hambletonian, sire of forty horses in 2:30 list, dam Julia Machree, full sister to Widow Machree, 2:29, by American Star. Enfield is bred like Dictator and Startle, and is full brother in blood to Aberdeen.

Blackwood Jr. sired Hardwood, 2:24¾, Little Tommy, 2:27¼, Ravenswood, public trial, 2:26.

Chieftain (Overton's) was by Clark Chief, sire of the dams of Phallas, 2:13¾, Majolica, 2:15, etc.

Lee Belle was a remarkable show mare. She won first premium at St. Louis Fair in a ring of sixty-five roadsters, mares and geldings, getting every vote.

Roulette was bred by John Overton, Esq., Nashville, Tenn., of whom I purchased her.

Stinted to Tennessee Wilkes.

No. 27.

WENONAH. (Standard.) Bay filly, little white on left hind ankle; foaled March 16, 1884. By TENNESSEE WILKES.

First dam Widow Malone, by ENFIELD, 2:29, sire of Robin M., 2:24¼.
Second dam, sister to Maud Williams, trial 2:26, by Second Hiawatha.
Third dam Tena, dam of Maud Williams, by Mambrino Messenger.
Fourth dam, by Young Jefferson (pacer).

For notes on pedigree, see Widow Malone, No. 28.

Bred at Ewell Farm.

No. 28.

WIDOW MALONE. Bay mare, 15¼ hands high, no marks; foaled 1874. By ENFIELD, 2:29, sire of Robin M., 2:24¼.

First dam, sister to Maud Williams, trial 2:26, by Second Hiawatha.
Second dam Tena, dam of Maud Williams, by Mambrino Messenger.
Third dam, by Young Jefferson (pacer).
Fourth dam, by Hunt's Commodore.

Enfield, by Rysdyk's Hambletonian (sire of forty horses with records of 2:30 or better). First dam Julia Machree (full sister to Widow Machree, 2:29), by Seely's American Star. His breeding is identical with that of Dictator, Startle and Aberdeen.

Second Hiawatha, sire of Maud Williams, was by Hiawatha (thoroughbred) out of a mare by Mambrino Messenger.

Mambrino Messenger (sire of Gen. Geo. H. Thomas, and grandsire of Scott's Thomas, 2:21) was by Mambrino Paymaster, sire of Mambrino Chief and out of Lady Messenger, by Coffin's Messenger.

Widow Malone was bred by J. K. Miller, Gallatin, Tenn., and passed from him to W. & V. L. Polk, of whom I bought her. She is a handsome, stylish mare, quite speedy and a good roadster.

PRODUCE.

(At Ewell Farm.)

1884—b. f., Wenonah, by Tennessee Wilkes.
1885—b. f., Watauga, by Tennessee Wilkes.
1886—b. c., Harry Lorrequer, by Tennessee Wilkes.

Stinted to Tennessee Wilkes.