CHILD BURNED TO DEATH.

Lillian, the eight-year-old daughter of Mrs. G. C. Woodall, residing in Double Creek, Queen Anne's county, was literally burned to death Monday evening. Just how the accident occurred is not known. The child's mother had left her alone in the kitchen for a few moments and returned to find her daughter's clothing and hair ablaze. She succeeded in extinguishing the flames, but not until after the little girl's face and body were burned almost to a crisp and life itself only a faint flicker. Dr. H. Benge Simmons was hastily summoned and did all that human hands and skill could do to relieve the suffering of the unfortunate child. Death, which was inevitable, occurred a few hours later.

JUSTIFIABLE HOMICIDE!

Irving Hurlock, Son of J. Edw. Hurlock, Shot By Joseph Hessey, on Farm Near Hibernia—Coroner's Jury Exonerates Mr. Hessey.

A very sad affair took place on the farm at Hibernia, owned by Mr. J. Edw. Hurlock, of Millington, and tenanted by Mr. Joseph Hessey, at ten o'clock Wednesday night. It seems that Mr. Irving Hurlock, aged 32, took dinner and supper with Mr. Hessey, and after supper went and hid in the hay loft. He had a room in the house but the tenant did not always know his whereabouts. About ten o'clock that night after Mr. Hessey, wife and several children had retired they heard someone knocking on the shutters and endeavoring to get in the house. A call was made but no reply. Soon the door was hammered open. Then Mr. Hessey got his single barrel gun and stood in his bed room door awaiting further developments. To his great surprise Irving Hurlock came up the stairs with a revolver in one hand leveled at him and holding a hammer in the other. Mr. Hessey at once realized that he must defend his family and himself and fired the deadly load which killed Mr. Hurlock. Mr. Hessey at once telephoned to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Baxter and they in turn to Mr. J. Edw. Hurlock, at Millington. Upon hearing the account of the affair from his faithful tenant of five years Mr. Hurlock exonerated him. Mr. Hessey is heartbroken over the incident and the whole family regret sorely the tragedy.

Coroner Greenwood, State's Attorney Vickers and Sheriff McKee went to the scene and an inquest was held. Mr. Leonard Wilson, of Millington, was foreman of the jury, which brought in a verdict of justifiable homicide.

Farm Purchased.—Mr. E. J. Watson, of near Chestertown, has purchased the "Caulk's Field" farm from Mrs. H. L. Westcott-Hill, of Baltimore. This farm contains about 220 acres, situated at the historic Caulk's Field, near Tolchester. The price is said to have been about $11,000. Mr. Watson will take possession May 1st, and get all of this year's crops and will move there the first of the year. Mr. Watson is one of Kent's progressive and aggressive young farmers. Mr. Lewin U. Skirven next year will tenant the farm of his father, Mr. J. W. Skirven, now occupied by Mr. E. J. Watson.

Serious Shooting.—On last Saturday night at Sharptown, near Rock Hall, a fracas occurred among a party of colored people, during which pistol shots were exchanged, and Catherine Tilghman was shot, and is said to be in a critical condition. As a result of the affray Mansfield Wickes and Norris Tilghman, both colored, were arrested Monday at Tolchester just as they were about to take the boat to Baltimore, and committed to jail, charged with the shooting.

Sad Drowning.—Mr. John Elburn, son of Mr. Wm. Elburn, of Chestertown, a resident of Rock Hall, was drowned early Thursday morning. He had been subject to vertigo, and on this occasion was alone in a boat when he was attacked with a spell, fell overboard and was drowned. The deceased was a man of family and well-known in lower Kent.

A Destructive Otter.—On exhibition this week at the fur storage rooms of Mr. Marcus Ascher, the "fur king" on Cross street, Chestertown, was a huge otter. This animal was nearly six feet long and was killed by Mr. Wm. Burris, near I. B. Church, in Queen Anne's. It killed six lambs for Mr. Burris besides doing other damage. Mr. Ascher gave Mr. Burris $14.00 for the hide.
