THE new State tax rate for 1913 and 1914 will be 31 cents on the $100.

CLARK and Roosevelt swept everything in the Presidential primaries in Illinois.

IT is fourteen columns extra which the NEWS adds today owing to the demands upon its space.

TALBOT county has had elected a law by which the Commissioners are paid $800 per year. A Road Engineer law has also been passed for that county.

THE NEWS congratulates the Star Democrat upon having moved into a home of its own with a splendid equipment and with a management which knows what true newspaperdom means.

THERE is a movement to agree on a delegation to the State Convention and these shall vote as directed by voters. The NEWS would suggest Hon. Wm. M. Slay as one of these delegates.

THE authorized bond issue of Easton is an even hundred thousand dollars. $40,000 is for sewers, $35,000 for street paving, $5,000 for storm sewers, $15,000 for extension of street paving and the citizens will pay for paving on the abutting property basis.

THE State Convention will be held May 16th. At the meeting of the State Central Committee held in Baltimore Thursday it was resolved by the convention that it would be advisable to send an uninstructed delegtion. This resolution will enableany voter to vote for his choice.

ALBERT CONSTABLE, Esq., was in Chestertown yesterday. He has been visiting down the Shore and making friends wherever he goes. He met with a warm reception at the Grange meeting at Fairlee Thursday and the success of his candidacy grows as the primay day approaches.

ELSEWHERE in the NEWS is an interview with ex-Gov. Brown and it is a most sensible suggestion. All the candidates named are Presidential timber and any one of them can win. The NEWS editors of course have their personal choice but we shall not advise the support of any one man. No Democrat can make a mistake by voting for either Wilson, Harmon, Underwood or Clark.

THE Governor has signed the bill taking over Chester River bridge by the Road Commission. If the representatives from Kent and Queen Annes had done nothing else it was worth the money paid them to get this law enacted. It is now up to the State Road Commission to build a fine concrete structure which will be a credit to the State and a convenience to the traveling public.

REV. J. S. BOWERS ELECTED.

After a warm contest for President between Dr. Walter R Graham and Dr. J. S. Bowers, two well-known members of the Maryland Conference, Dr. Bowers was elected. The vote on the fourth ballot was Dr. Bowers 114, Dr. Graham 97 and Rev. Mr. Phillips 11.

The election of Dr. Bowers is specially gratifying to his friends in Chestertown and Kent. He is the son of a former minister of this conference and his mother, Mrs. A. M. Bowers, is a resident of Chestertown, where for more than forty years she has been superintendent of the primary department of Christ M. P. Sunday school. It was in "Loney's" grand-mother's house that the church here had its early class meetings and his people have been earnest, devoted and faithful workers in the church. We predict a successful administration.

A Notable Occasion.—When Chestertown Council No. 58, Daughters of America, convened Monday evening, April 8th, it was very evident that something out of the ordinary was about to occur. After the business of the evening had been transacted the council room was transformed into a scene of festivity. It was a farewell reception to two of the Council's most honored members, viz: Mrs. A. P. Matthews and daughter, Miss Lillian Matthews. A program having been previously arranged the Council duly entered into the spirit of the gathering. The reception began by singing "The Star Spangled Banner." This was followed in succession with a reading by Mrs. W F Malin and a solo by Mrs. H. W. Reed. The crowning feature of the evening was an address by Mr. J. B. McIntire, who spoke words of sorrow and regret that the council was to lose two of its best members. At the conclusion of his remarks Mr. McIntire requested Mrs. Matthews to come forward and pre-

REWARD FOR BRAVE GUARD

Bill To Pension Jesse G. Duyer, of Chestertown, Signed By Governor.

A delegation appeared before Governor Goldsborough Tuesday and urged him to sign the bill granting a pension of $200 a year to Mr. Jesse G. Duyer, of Chestertown, and because of Mr. Duyer's physical condition it was urged that the Governor approve the measure, which he did.

Mr. Duyer was disabled in 1895 while in the discharge of his duties as guard at the House of Correction. Since then his condition has gradually grown worse and now he is unable to do any work. While Mr. Duyer was on duty as a guard a desperate negro known as "Snapper" Hamilton assaulted with a heavy iron cap another guard named Frank Boteler. As Boteler lay unconscious on the ground, Mr. Duyer ran to his assistance and was in turn knocked senseless by the negro. A third guard then came to the rescue of his comrades and felled the negro, who was entirely subdued by the other guards.

Mr. Duyer afterward received surgical attention at Johns Hopkins Hospital for his sight and hearing, which was impaired. He remained in this hospital for four months and then went to the Polyclinic, in Philadelphia. His eyesight and hearing, however, continued to grow worse.

Mr. Duyer is a carpenter and has a large family. The Legislature of 1910 passed a bill granting him a pension of $300 a year, but it was vetoed by former Governor Crothers.

It was owing to the interest of his friends that he was induced in 1910 to make application requesting the State to come to his aid, his physical condition and disability appealing to the sympathy of the entire community.

The records of the Circuit Court for Anne Arundel county show that the negro was tried at the October term of that court in 1895, when he was convicted of assault with intent to kill and sentenced to the penitentiary for eight years.

Few more worthy cases, it is claimed, are likely to come before Governor Goldsborough for his consideration.

Swift's Premium Ham

The next Ham you buy just try one of these. You will say this is delicious, because its taste and flavor is so much like what we cured on the farm. Also ask for Swift's Sliced Boneless Bacon. Sold by ROBT. MOFFETT and T. C. HADAWAY, Chestertown.

NOTICE

Owing to the refusal of the County Commissioners to levy money or provide for payment of further work on the public roads and bridges of Kent county, damaged and destroyed by the unprecedented storm, the road workers of the several Districts are hereby notified to stop all work upon said public roads until further notice.
