Corn Planters

"BLACK HAWK" CORN PLANTERS

have been used with unusual satisfaction by a great many of our customers for years. They have given us less trouble than any machine we have ever sold. There is not a more accurate dropper on the market. We know this is a broad assertion, but statistics prove it to be true. Ask the man who has one. Its many strong features will gladly be shown if you will visit our store.

Don't fail to see it before you buy a Planter.

COURT ADJOURNS.

Two Cases Against Andrew W. Vansant For Forgery Tried And He Is Acquitted —Grand Jury Finished Saturday.

There were twelve cases against Andrew Vansant, a well-known auctioneer and farmer, of near Lambson's, all for alleged forgery of the names of Commissioner Thomas C. Roe, Treasurer C. S. Hurlock, Chris. J. Conner, Benj. Dill, E. L. Spear, brought in by the Grand Jury which adjourned Saturday. These proved to excite great interest and the court room was crowded during the trials. The note for $100 on which Messrs. Roe and Hurlock were endorsers was taken up first and the jury returned a verdict of not guilty. This jury was composed of the following:

H. P. Jones, Jesse H. Usilton, Alex Mair, A. P. Emerson, Wm. S. Carroll, C. Romie Skirven, R. G. Nicholson, J. Leonard Price, Wm. S. Hurlock, Benj I. Ashley, R. J. McWhorter, Alfred T. DeShane.

The second case was that on which E. L. Spear, a former neighbor, was on a note for $65, and in this charge also the jury brought in a verdict of "not guilty." This jury comprised the following: A. Earle Nicholson, S. G. Lee, J. F. Ernest, P. G. Wilmer, Edw. P. Beck, Thos. S. Toulson, Harry B. Rote, John Brock, Jas. S. Bradley, J. B. Hessinger, W. W. Webb, Wm. F. Wink. Messrs. W. W. Beck and S. Scott Beck represented the defense and H. W. Vickers, Jr., the State. The prisoner was released on his own recognizance until next October when the other cases may be tried.

In the case of Simon Grollman vs. R. F. Parks the jury returned a verdict for plaintiff for $128.55.

S. L. Hopkins was fined $50 and costs or be confined in jail for 60 days for assault.

Grace Rasin was acquitted of receiving stolen goods.

Mansweld Wickes was acquitted of carrying concealed weapons but W. Morris Tilghman, convicted and sentenced to House of Correction for 12 months.

Grover Greenwood was sentenced to House of Correction for 10 months for violating local option law; Will Waters, to 12 months; Clarence Lively, 12 months; Mary Coleman, 12 months; Thos. Roberts was convicted but paroled in custody of Mr. Clendaniel; Martha Harris was convicted of selling liquor but sentence was suspended; Bertha Walley was convicted of larceny and sent to School for Colored Girls; Bert Riley was sentenced to Md. House of Reformation, for forgery, confessed.

The case against Kent county brought by Mr. Richardson for damage to horse was removed to Easton Court.

Be Wise.—The trustees of Denny Hoffecker are offering rare bargains for clothing, etc., in Chestertown. The suits are mostly new spring goods, with a few suits carried from last winter, and are being sold, say those who know, at prices lower than was ever known for first-class merchandise. Anyone doubting the genuineness of this claim will drop in and see for yourself; it will be left to your judgment. Suits that were $15 and $18 are now $10 and $11; $10 suits are now $6.50 and $7.00. Like other trustee sales they have but a specified time to dispose of this mammoth stock—hence, the very low prices.

SPIRITED ELECTION

Chestertown's municipal election was held on Monday, when the tax-payers voted for the election of one member of the Board of Commissioners, three members of the Water Board and upon the question of issuing bonds for extension of sewer improvements. The contest was spirited and 281 votes were cast, an unusually large vote.

It is very gratifying to state that the gentlemen who used every effort to prevent a contest were successful in electing the Water Board endorsed by them.

Mr. Wm. T. Duyer, president of the Board of Commissioners, was re-elected without opposition. Messrs. Harry R. Graham, Wm. M. Culp and Charles N. Satterfield were elected members of the Water Board, and the proposition to issue sewer bonds was defeated.

The vote in detail was as follows:

FOR COMMISSIONER.

William T. Duyer	200
(No opposition.)

WATER BOARD.

William M. Culp	129
Harry R. Graham	209
Stewart R. Matthews	80
Thomas W. Perkins	108
Charles N. Satterfield	196
For Sewer Bonds	137
Against Sewer Bonds	100

THE first horse to enjoy a draught from the new Pearce fountain was Mr. Philip G. Wilmer's and he seemed to enjoy it.

The New College Gym.—Action looking to the erection of a new gymnasium for Washington College has been taken. The State gave Washington an appropriation to begin this building and the Visitors and Governors have a committee composed of Senator Wm. W. Beck, ex-Senator Clarence W. Perkins, Capt. C. E. Crane and Dr. J. W. Cain looking at various gymnasiums and will report their investigations in June. Messrs. S. Scott Beck, Dr. H. G. Simpers, Wm. B. Usilton and Philip G. Wilmer were appointed a committee to recommend a site for the new building.

NEXT Wednesday will be Registration Day. All persons entitled to register, who are not already on the books, must avail themselves of this opportunity if they wish to vote at the primary election on May 6. Young men coming of age before the day of election in November will be entitled to register.
