GALENA ITEMS.

Mr. Wm. Clark, of Baltimore, is spending a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Walters.

Mrs. Thos. Caldwell who has been quite ill is reported somewhat better at this writing.

Clifton the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Mulford has been quite sick but is improving.

Miss Mildred Boyd who has been spending the week in Baltimore returned home Saturday night.

Mr. Irving L. Dempsey who has been quite ill, at Dover, is reported better at this writing.

The Ladies Aid Society are beautifying the interior of their parsonage with paper, paint, etc. Expect to have the work completed this week.

Mr. Harry Boltan is building an addition to his house, and several others have caught the "spring fever" and begun to make improvements.

The old "Pennington stable," that has stood nearly in the centre of the town for so many years, was removed last week and the lot cleaned up nicely and seeded in potatoes. Mr. McIntyre has charge of the work.

The friends of Miss Bertie Brockson report that although she is still quite ill she is improving as fast as could be expected and has made many friends in the hospital.

Galena had quite a "Mad-dog" scare on Saturday last when a white dog, belonging in town while playing with some of the children seemed suddenly to develop an ugly temper. John the little son of Mr. Jno. Quinn was bitten on the limb before any one realized what was the trouble. Later the dog snapped at other children so it was killed the head packed and sent to Baltimore on the afternoon train.

Word was received that the dog showed every indication of rabies and the little boy was taken on Monday morning to the Pasteural Institute in Baltimore for treatment. A number of dogs in town it is reported were bitten by a dog going through and when we remember that two little ones in Cecil were bitten by a supposed mad dog on Friday we wonder that so many lives should be risked for the sake of dogs.

The time of the mid-week prayer meeting has been changed from Tuesday to Wednesday evening.

The sermon Sunday evening in Olivet M. E. Church was on the "Titanic Disaster," Text. "Be still and know that I am God."
