SATURDAY, APRIL 27, 1912

THE vote for Chief Judge is decided by total vote of Judicial Circuit, therefore every vote counts. Vote for Constable.

VOTE for Albert Constable for Judge There will be no judicial convention, nor any delegates. You vote direct for Mr. Constable. His candidacy has nothing to do with the Presidential Primary.

KENT's new State's Attorney, Harrison W. Vickers, Esq., is to be congratulated upon the excellent record made at the recent term of Court. He lost the Vansant case through no fault of his for he prosecuted that case ably and aggressively. His address to the jury in the Spear case was remarkably strong and impressive.

WITH this issue of the NEWS is sent to our readers a splendid portrayal of the fitness of Congressman Underwood as a Presidential candidate. It is an advertisement and the NEWS would not have any of its readers to conclude that because of its circulation we are in favor of his candidacy. Mr. Underwood's name does not appear on the ticket in Maryland.

IN case of the choice of Judge Adkins as Chief Judge of this Circuit, it would be necessary for him to resign as an Associate Judge. This would leave a vacancy, which would be filled by appointment by the Governor. This would mean a Republican Judge in a Circuit so strongly Democratic that no Republican candidate has even entered the contest. The safe way to avoid this condition is to give Albert Constable such a majority in Kent that he will unquestionably be the nommee for Chief Judge.

CHESTERTOWN has made a number of efforts to secure an appropriation from Congress for a public building, but has failed. This week Cambridge was given $103,500 for a building and Crisfield a large amount, all through the efforts of Senator John Walter Smith. Now is the opportunity for Chestertown's Board of Trade to get in some practical work. The town sorely needs a public building for postoffice, etc., and by a united effort we feel confident our Senator and Congressmen can accomplish it. A meeting of the Board, appointment of committee and visit to Washington with facts and figures would be the first steps.

THE drinking fountain erected on Kent Square, Chestertown, by Hon. James A. Pearce, to the memory of his father, the late United States Senator James A. Pearce, was put in place this week. The gift is, indeed, a gem and so typical of the kind and courteous donor. There has been no blare of trumpets nor waving of banners in the erection of this memorial, and its reception by the Commissioners on behalf of the town none the less sincere nor appreciated. Would that Chestertown had more such noble, generous and intelligent men as is HON. JAMES ALFRED PEARCE.

JUST after the disaster to the Titanic a number of scientific men of this country, and among them a learned professor of Johns Hopkins University, made the prediction that none of the bodies that went down with the giant steamer would ever come to the surface. During this week scores of bodies have been found floating on the ocean in the vicinity of the wreck, many of which have been identified and brought to land. All of which goes to show that there are yet many things in heaven and earth that the scientists haven't found out.

THE Governor's veto of the bill providing for the building of State roads through the towns of the State came as a surprise to the people of Kent. That the Maryland Governor should show such an utter disregard of the people's wishes, which were very plainly apparent through the action of their representatives in the Maryland General Assembly, came as quite a jolt to those who had believed that the Governor was trying to serve the people so that their interests might always be the first consideration. It is certainly a big farce to work 90 days on legislation and then place the power in one man's hands to make nil that work, however meritorious the measure. The fault, as we see it, is in not passing legislation earlier, put it up to the Governor, and then if he vetoes it, the Legislature can over-ride it.

QUEEN ANNE'S BY 1,000!

Hon. Albert Constable, of Cecil county, candidate for the Chief Judgeship in this Judicial Circuit, was at Rock Hall Saturday night greeting scores of friends who wish him abundant success in the coming primary.

The Queenstown News of Saturday says: "Albert Constable, candidate for

BY the recent Primary Law passed in 1912 requiring candidate for delegates to the State Convention to run through the county, MESSRS. HERMAN B. MASSEY, CAPT. CURTIS E. CRANE and A. CARROLL WILLSON have submitted their names to the Democratic voters of Kent. They will vote for delegates to the National Convention who will vote for the candidate for President receiving a plurality of the votes of our county. They state that their personal preference is for Gov. Woodrow Wilson for President, but any voter has the right to vote for Wilson, Clark or Harmon, as their names will appear on the official ballot, and whichever of those three receive the plurality of votes in Kent county will be entitled to the support of the Delegates elected to represent Kent county in the State Convention. These delegates, Massey, Crane and Willson, are simply to register the will of the majority of the people as expressed on Monday, May 6th, 1912.
