Do You Get Up With a Lame Back?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everyone knows of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, because of its remarkable health restoring properties. Swamp-Root fulfills almost every wish in overcoming rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night.

Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble, it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been thoroughly tested in private practice, and has proved so successful that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all druggists. Don't make any mistake but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

GALENA ITEMS.

Mrs. Wm. Rodgers, of Scranton, Pa., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Ella Whitaker.

Miss Florence Dukes, of Queen Anne, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. John Merchant of near town.

Mr. Homer Benton, of Sudlersville, spent the week's end in town.

Capt. John B. W. Aydelotte, captain in the First Delaware Cavalry, visited some of his war comrades in and about town on Monday.

The Base ball nine of Shrewsbury Academy, held a festival in the Town Hall last Saturday evening, clearing nearly twenty-five dollars.

The Ushers Union still continue their work of raising a fund for the relighting of the church.

The many friends of Miss Bertie Brockson will be glad to learn that she is steadily improving.

The Ladies Aid Society held their meeting for May at the home of Mrs. Irving L. Dempsey on Tuesday evening, After the business session, the baby daughter, "Gertrude Esther" was baptized by Rev. R. H. Lewis. All spent a pleasant evening socially.

KENNEDYVILLE NOTES.

Our town is quite a throughfare for touring cars, a number passing through by way of the state road on Sunday.

"The Peak Sisters" entertainment in Weer's Hall last Friday evening, was a great success. The quartette of Stavely and Melvin Bros. Glee Club, gave some exceedingly lively and good cheer music to the great enjoyment of all present. At the close of the regular programme cream and strawberries were on sale, and a most enjoyable social time was spent.

Mr. Thomas Vanpyke, one of the up-to-date farmers of near Locust Grove, is having a large, substantial and convenient barn and granary built. He has a large force of "go ahead" workmen, near a dozen in all, from Cecilton and Warwick, and the buildings will soon be complete; just such conveniences as the patron of husbandry needs and richly deserves.

The nice new home of Mr. Haggerty is nearing completion, and it is a model of convenience and a great addition to our progresive little village.

A number of our farmers are hauling several carloads of lime for their farms, and making other improvements to the soil of the large, beautiful fields of Kent.

A number of strangers attended service at the M. P. Church Sunday morning; among the rest, Miss Evelyn Busick of Baltimore.

The many friends of Mrs. Edgar R. Pennington were glad to see her at the church service Sunday morning, after her indisposition for some week or more from tonsilitis.

Rev. F. H. Mullineaux is in Baltimore attending the General Conference of the M. P. Church in St. Johns M. P. Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Issac Cleaver are both sick, but much improved, at the home of their daughter, Mrs. James Webb.

The annual Children's Day services will be held in the M. P. Church, Sunkay, next, the 26th. An address by the pastor will be made in the morning, 10-31, in the interest of Children Trained for Service in the Kingdom of Jesus The regular programme of music and recitations, with Missonary offering, will be rendered in the evening, 7.30. All are most kindly invited.
