Use of Copies
Black and white photocopies supplied by the Reprographics Department in response to this order may be used and photocopied subject to any copyright restrictions (see below). Any copies other than black and white photocopies supplied by the Reprographics Department in response to this order may be used only for purposes of research, private study or education. The copies may be used, and further copies of those copies may be made, for education purposes in the course of instruction or examination, or of preparation for instruction or examination by a person giving or receiving the instruction or preparing or taking the examination. Applications for permission for any other use should be addressed to the PRO Image Library. Infringement of the above conditions may result in legal action.

Copyright
The reproduction of reprographic, photographic or digital copies, verbatim transcripts or literal translations of records in the Public Record Office may infringe copyright. Not all records held in the Public Record Office are Crown Copyright. Anyone wishing to reproduce the material in transcript, translation or facsimile is responsible for identifying the current owner(s) of copyrights in non-Crown copyright material, and for obtaining any permission required. No permission is needed to transcribe, index or publish information from Crown copyright public records or to make further copies from black and white photocopies of them. The PRO Copyright Officer will provide further information upon request.

Deemed Acceptance
Any customer who has previously dealt with the Public Record Office Reprographics Department on the terms and conditions set out above, and displayed in the Reprographics Department will be deemed to have accepted them by virtue of having made a request for copies. Any customer who has not previously dealt with the Public Record Office Reprographics Department on the terms and conditions set out above, and displayed in the Reprographics Department, and who does not wish to accept such terms and conditions must return all copies immediately, properly packed, by any means affording proof of delivery. The customer will be deemed to have accepted their Public Record Office terms and conditions if all copies are not returned within three days of their receipt by the customer in the UK or seven days of their receipt outside the UK.
