WEDDING BELLS

HARRIS—HARPER.

Still Pond was the scene of a beautiful wedding Monday evening, the contracting parties being popular and well-known residents. The palatial home of Mr. George W. Harper was a bower of beauty it being his attractive daughter, Miss Mary, who was the bride, while the groom was Mr. Walter Barrett Harris, the well known apple king, and son of Hon. and Mrs. James S. Harris, of near Still Pond. The rooms were beautifully adorned with cut flowers. A large marriage bell made entirely of flowers was suspended over the heads of the contracting parties. The bride was attired in white and the groom in conventional black. The ceremony was performed at 8 30 p. m. in the parlor, the parties standing before an altar of roses and kneeling upon a satin cushion. Rev. Louis E. Barrett, D. D. assisted by Rev. F. X. Moore made them man and wife, after which a sumptuous wedding supper was served by the well-known caterer, Mr. Hanna, of Wilmington. About 10 o'clock the happy couple left in an automobile for Middletown where they took the midnight train for the North. The guests present were from Brooklyn, N. Y., Summit, N. J. and different parts of Kent county. The presents were numerous and costly. Upon their return they will reside in the new home provided by Mr. Harris on his farm in Still Pond Neck.

On the 3rd instant, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Cornelius, near Lynch Md., Mr. Wallace R. Busick and Miss Ethel M. Ogle, by Rev. Henry K. Miller. Mr. Busick is one of Baltimore's young business men and Miss Ogle is the only daughter of Robert Ogle, who for 12 years was Clerk of the Baltimore City Superior Court, but now of New York.

Rich Neck Farmers' Club.

"Royston," the home of Hon. and Mrs. W. Irving Walker, was the meeting place of the Rich Neck Farmers Club Thursday. The following officers were elected: W. Irving Walker, president; H. P. Skipper, vice-president; H. H. Klinefelter, secretary; Jas. S. Newnam, treasurer; J. Thos. Smith, Charles E. McKee, members of executive committee. "Liming of Soils," by H. J. Wheeler, director of Rhode Island experiment station, was read. A committee was appointed to select soil samples from spots in field infested with sheep sorrel and forward same to experiment state and department of agriculture at Washington for analysis with the idea of determining whether they need lime and proper amount to apply per acre for the purpose of neutralizing the acidity.

The Club decided to make an exhibit at the State Horticultural and Crop Improvement Association Show of all cereal and forage crops from farm.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Skipper, on August 22nd.

Delegates to Bankers Convention.—The Maryland State Bankers Convention will be held at the Blue Mountain House June 20-22. The following are delegates from Kent: Chestertown Bank, Samuel Vannort, Allan A. Harris; A. P. Prettyman. Kent County Savings Bank, W. F. Russell, J. D. Bacchus, P. G. Wilmer.
