SATURDAY, JULY 6, 1912

BRYAN—with all his faults we love him still.

THE Sun gave most excellent reports of the Convention and wielded considerable influence in naming the winner—Wilson.

BALTIMORE, you met every requirement in entertaining the big convention. You could have cared for twice as many more.

OUR Congressman, Hon. J. Harry Covington, served his people faithfully in the Convention as he does in Congress. You're all right, Harry.

THE platform of the Democratic party this year is a new Declaration of Independence, and means a great deal to the masses of the people of this country.

THE Democratic party proved at the Baltimore Convention that it has a host of strong men in it and it is this fact which makes the party worthy the support of all voters.

ROOSEVELT says he will be a Third party candidate. His effort is to organize a party in each State and four years from now capture the whole thing. He has no possible chance to win and will not do other than divide the Republican vote. Poor Mr. Taft is a defeated man sure.

THE RIGHT MAN WON.

FOR PRESIDENT:
WOODROW WILSON,
of New Jersey.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT:
THOMAS R. MARSHALL, of Indiana.

Great battles have been fought and won by valiant soldiers on the field of mortal conflict, but none surpass in triumph and victory that achieved at Baltimore in the nomination of Governor Woodrow Wilson as the Democratic candidate for President of the United States. It was a victory of the people against the combined efforts of the politicians. It is a triumph for civic righteousness, of decency and honesty in politics, for intelligence as embodied in the man, and above all honesty of purpose and conviction of right, above policy or hypocrisy.

Woodrow Wilson was nominated by a healthy public sentiment, which to us is a sign of a better era. Too long has this county, State and nation been in the hands of the bosses and politicians, who legislated for themselves and their friends rather than for the people as a whole. The star of hope has arisen and the sunshine of a new sun is already in the East.

Governor Wilson's nomination means that the rule of the boss is over. It means that the partnership between corrupt politics and corrupt business in national politics is forcibly dissolved. It means that the old regime of protection to privilege and plutocracy is on the scaffold. It means that the old gods are dead.

The United States is back to the benediction pronounced by Abraham Lincoln on the battle field of Gettysburg:

"That this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom, and that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth."

The delegates at Baltimore made a splendid choice. They have offered not only to the voters of their own party, but to those of all parties who are sincere in their professions of a desire to be represented in the Presidency by an honest and able man, the needed opportunity to end the rule and destructive policies of the Republican party.

No party ever nominated a candidate for President more free to enter the Presidency as the impartial representative of the whole people. Woodrow Wilson would have been nominated on the first ballot in Baltimore had he been willing to deal in the usual political way for support, but he has kept himself free to be the representative of the whole people when he becomes their President.

THE nephew of General Joseph B. Seth has been named as road engineer for Talbot under a recent law.

Church Hill Affray.—Just six minutes were required to dispose of the cases of the Church Hill shooting affray before Justice W. E. Thompson. Smith, when arraigned on the charge of doing the shooting, waived a hearing through his attorney, J. H. C. Legg. Paul J. Richards, charged with assault upon Smith, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to 90 days in jail. He took an appeal. The charge against Thomas Whaley for assaulting Smith was dismissed. Smith's bail was fixed at $1500, the same bondsmen who secured his release standing sponsor for his appearance at the November term of court. Robert Whaley, the man who was shot, was at the trial, and though quite weak from his experience, is improving rapidly. The case will be tried before the November term of the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's county.

Children Cry
FOR FLETCHER'S
CASTORIA

SENATOR-ELECT, Ollie James, of Kentucky, made a strong and forcible address to the Baltimore Convention on Thursday denouncing the Republican outrages that have been perpetrated upon the people of this country in the way of broken and unfilled promises, he said: "The Republican party itself recognizing that President Taft has been unfaithful to the great mass of Americans, refused by an honest majority of the convention to renominate him, and it was only brought about by the most wholesale, conscienceless and deliberate unseating of delegates honestly elected that was ever perpetrated in American politics The Republican party flushed with many victories, imperious as a tyrant, unheeding the demands of the people took the reins of government in 1908 under the solemn promise that they would revise the tariff in the interest of the consumer, instead of keeping this promise as they should have, because it was their bond of honor, they betrayed it: they raised the tariff higher than ever before until it reached its minimum of protection being 47 per cent."

COUNTY TAX RATES

The County Commissioners of Caroline Tuesday fixed the county tax rate at 100 cents. This added to the State tax will make $1.23¼. The basis this year is $10,688,792. There was levied for schools the sum of $37,500, and $7,500 extra for the Seventh district for same purpose. For roads and bridges $21,000, and $3,000 for Dover Bridge.

In Wicomico, the rate was fixed as follows: For general county purposes, 71¾ cents; this item providing for all county expenses, schools, etc. The roads, under the new law, 23 cents. The State rate for this year is 23¼ cents, which will make a total county and State rate of $1.15. The appropriation for schools had to be increased $5,000 and for roads, $12,000 over last year under two new laws.

Here are some of the large items of the Levy: Public Schools, $30,000, Public Roads, $15,194.80, Pensions, $5,000 Attorneys, $2,000, Insane, $4,500, City Council Salisbury, Delmar, Sharptown and Pittsville—$2,050; Ferries, $2,500 Health Officer and Vaccination, $1,050, Election, $4,200; Court House and Jail, $2,000; Court Expenses, $5,500; Sheriff's Office, $3,000; Orphan's Court, $600; Treasurers' Office, $3,600; County Commissioners, $2,000.

The rate of 91¾ cents on the one hundred dollars produces revenue for County purposes of $118,702.60 on the assessable basis of real, personal property and stocks and bonds.

A GREAT WEEK

Miles of fluttering flags—brass bands in battalions—parades on the pike—streets streaming with crowds—cars in long lines, loaded to the guards—hotel islands entirely surrounded by humanity—politics seething and boiling up everywhere! Wasn't it a great week?

Sunday never came at a better time. "Sweet Sabbath rest" never did seem so sweet. The proceedings of the past week have disposed forever of the idea that Baltimore is a "sleepy town." Sleep was about the only thing the visitors couldn't find. If the convention hadn't taken a recess for a day, the railroads would have been running sleepers to Philadelphia.

Following is an incomplete summary of the week, according to Mainstreet's report:

"Dixie" played 27,846 times; "Maryland, My Maryland, 17,114; "Houn' Dog Song," 5,211 times.

Number of badges worn, 117,409, averaging about 100 per delegate.

Cheering, 440,406 yell-horns, averaging three-fourths of a yell-horn to each inhabitant.

Hat-bands sold and worn, 54,861.

Ham sandwiches consumed, 1,648,910, including some genuine ham. Terrapin a la Maryland, 9 portions. Soft-shell crabs, 1,740 acres, including claws.

The drinks consumed shall remain nameless in these columns.

Seventy-two candidates for President and 119 for Vice-President have been positively nominated outside Convention Hall, mostly on street corners and in hotel lobbies.

The flags and quick-lunch waiters are still flying; the crabs are able to crawl; here and there a chicken still lives ready to die in the frying pan in a good cause. It has been "some" week, and and after a Sabbath day's journey we start out upon another week, in which history and a President will be made.—Baltimore Sun

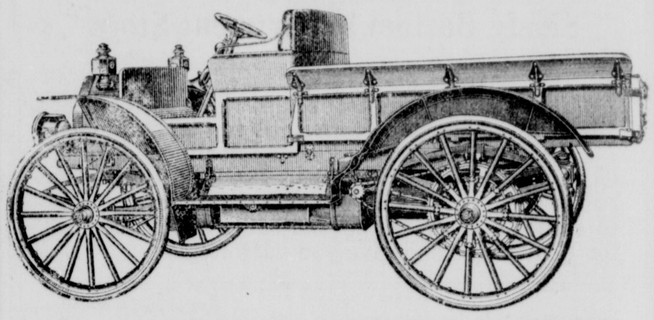
The International Auto Wagon
Or Commercial Car



In use throughout the United States by Farmers, Merchants, Millers, Contractors, Manufacturers, Liverymen and others.

A feature of the International Commercial Car that will appeal to a great many people is the fact that this car can be converted into a vehicle for carrying people. A rear seat and a double top can be added, making a very comfortable vehicle. The space behind the back of the front seat is sufficient so that two seats can be added, making a three-seated rig for liverymen who have traffic of this kind.

The International in the strictest sense of the word is a commercial car—one that can be used every day of the year, through snow and mud, cold weather and hot. The great success this car has attained in the past and the present is the greatest commendation of its usefulness.

The snow storm which tied up traffic in Chicago in February, 1911, did not interfere with the International Commercial Car service. This car was one of the few commercial cars in service in Chicago that was not delayed by the snow. The drivers were not afraid to turn out of street car tracks and into the side streets and places where the snow was deep, for fear they would stall. The car is as efficient in negotiating mud as it is in plowing through snow.

Capacity 1500 to 2000 pounds depending upon conditions of the haul. Speed 15 miles per hour. 20 H. P. Two-Cylinder Engine. Factory output 20 cars per day, which does not meet the present demand. Easily operated and as nearly fool-proof as possible. Solid tires—eliminating tire trouble.

This car will be driven throughout every part of Kent county and will stop at Still Pond, Kennedyville, Locust Grove, Galena, Georgetown, Massey, Millington, Crumpton, Chesterville, Chestertown, Rock Hall, Fairlee, Melitota, Worton, Lynch and Betterton, affording everybody an opportunity to see the car in operation.
