ROCK HALL NOTES.

Mr. B. H. Coburn has succeeded in selling 3 more head of cattle this week.

Mr. McCormick addressed the Epworth League Chapter Sunday evening.

A ripple of excitement was on here Monday evening owing to the fire at Mr. Bramble's.

Locust trees in this section are again presenting a sickly looking appearance in the blighting of the foliage.

The frequent rains of late have been detrimental to the tomato growth in this section from the appearance of the vines.

Rev. Mr. Carroll, who is a grandson of Rev. James Carroll, stationed here in 1897, will preach here to-morrow (Sunday) evening.

Death, the relentless foe, entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Walbert on Tuesday morning and removed their infant and only child.

Among the many recent visitors here were: Mr. Willard Durding, at the home of his parents. Patrolman C. S. Middleton, at his parents' home. Mr. Leroy Boyer, at his sister's home. Mr. Maurice Coleman, among his relatives. Mr. Thomas Whaland, among relatives and friends. Miss Daisy M. Ryan is on a two week's stay with relatives in city.

Mr. T. B. Durding is making improvements to his store building by adding a back storage room and removing the stairway leading to the Fraternal Hall above the store and re-erecting it thro' the present storage room. The space made by the removal of the stairway will open into the main store room, thus enlarging the same to accommodate his increasing business enterprises.

"Every man has his price for some objective view point," uttered by Pastor Prettyman in his preliminary remarks in the pulpit on Sunday morning, caused a number of the male attendants to "sit up and take notice." He then proceeded to set forth the price the Son of God had for coming into the world, which is found in Heb. 12: 2. A sermon bristling with strong points on alertness to grasp the opportunities always occuring to the co-worker with God in the salvation of men, followed.

One of the most pleasing incidents noted here in 30 years was a big farm wagon loaded with young men from the city halting at the church gate Sunday morning, where the young men alighted, and, under the leadership of an older man, entered the church and attended divine service. This is an example that is worthy of emulation by the hundreds of young city folks who spend their outings in this section. Mr. L. C. Ayres, the owner of the team, is to be commended for his efforts to get the young people to church.

A locomotive with 10 cars must travel 5 miles before it can attain a speed of a mile a minute. But at this speed it can be halted by air brakes in 700 feet.

A BEAUTIFUL WEDDING

The wedding of Miss Elsie Rosalie Noble, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Maddox Noble, of near Federalsburg, to William Robert Huey, bookkeeper in the Third National Bank, this town, took place at noon on Wednesday at Bethel M. E. Church, Federalsburg, the Rev. W. W. Sharp officiating. The church was beautifully trimmed. The wedding march was played by Miss Gretchen Warren, of Cambridge.

The bride was very tastily attired in a handsome ivory satin gown draped with point de esprit and carried bride's roses. The maid of honor was Miss Bertha Noble, a cousin of the bride, dressed in pale yellow chiffon over messaline. I. F. Huey, was best man. The ushers were T. Kemp Bordley, T. W. Eliason, Jr., Prof. T. Blackiston Wroth and Conlyn Noland, of Chestertown. Among those present from town were Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Copper and Miss Palmer Carroll.

The presents were numerous and beautiful, including gold pieces from the bank. Upon their return from their wedding trip they will reside on High street, in the house vacated by Mr. J. C. Loud.

STILL POND ITEMS

Mrs. Chas. Bacon is visiting her sister Mrs. Fletcher Connor, Middletown.

Miss Evelyn Carter, of Baltimore, spent a few days with Miss Ethel Robinson.

Reaching the Limit.

Gadsby limped painfully off the polished dance floor.

"Its all right about this 'rings or my fingers,'" he exclaimed, "but hang me if I can stand for the 'belles on my toes!"

DEATH'S DOINGS.

Mrs. Helen Carroll Benjamin, wife of Alfred L. Benjamin, died at her home on Cross street, Chestertown, Wednesday about six o'clock of heart failure after being sick but a few days. She had been taking medicine all day and about 5 o'clock arose from her chair, walked across her room, returned and was gone. Her husband was in Easton at the time but her son was with her as were others.

The deceased was a quiet, motherly woman, who made her home the brightest place for her children, kind to everyone and devoted to making her children of good character. She has been a faithful wife and indulgent parent.

She leaves a husband and these children, viz., Mrs. Jessie G. Duyer, Wm. T. Benjamin, Mrs. Walter Smith, of Wilmington, John Benjamin, of Philadelphia. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon, Dr. Barrett officiating, interment in Chester Cemetery. The pall bearers were Wm S. Carroll, D. P. Cox, Earl and Leslie Duyer, Wm. and John Benjamin.

CHURCH NOTES.

There were 4500 persons present at the Shiloh Camp in Dorchester county Sunday. Dr. W. R. Graham, of Chestertown, preached in the afternoon. Rev. G. Q. Bacchus preaches Sunday morning.

Mr. Wm. A Wheatley was the leader at the twilight service in Christ Church Sunday. An address by the leader and solo by Miss Avis Dodd were pleasing features.

Chestertown M. E. Church, Rev. L. E. Barrett, D. D., pastor. Services next Sunday, August 4th, as follows: 10.30 a. m., preaching by the pastor, subject: "Fire of the Gospel;" 2.15 p. m., Sabbath School and Pastor's Bible Class; 7 p. m., Epworth League Song Service followed by brief sermon by the pastor, subject: "How a Beggar Was Saved," the fifth in the twilight series. All invited.

Rev. G. I. Humphries, of Pocomoke City, Md., has been extended a call to become pastor of West Baltimore Station Methodist Protestant Church to succeed Rev. E. C. Makosky, who resigned 10 days ago to accept a call to First Church, Newark, N. J. Rev. Mr. Humphries is one of the younger ministers of the Maryland Conference. On account of his ability he has been assistant secretary of the Maryland Annual Conference for a number of years. He is regarded as an excellent preacher and one of the most energetic and progressive ministers in the conference.

Among those present were: Misses Jessie Birnbach, Emily and Esther Spear, Marie Johnson, Isabelle Dublins, Kathryn Day, Marie and Mildred Gillespie, Gladys Jacobs and Anna Radnor; Messrs John Rosin, Ernest Radnor, Henry Tonkin, Harper Fesmyer, Franklin Spear, John Ahern, Solomon Pippin, Ross Duling, E R Calloway, Allan Jester and Earl Stafford.

GRANGE PICNIC

An Old-Fashioned Basket Picnic in Woods near Chestertown, Saturday, August 10th—Some Good Speaking and Good Music.

The Grangers of Kent and Queen Anne's counties are to hold a farmers' picnic in Klinefelter's grove, near Chester bridge, on the Queen Anne's side of the river, Saturday, August 10th. The committee on speakers are arranging an interesting program to consist of music and addresses.

The exercises will commence at ten o'clock a. m., with an address by the National Lecturer, N. T. Hill, on "The Value of the Grange to the Farm." Another interesting and instructive address will be delivered by Mrs. E. Funk Muhse, on "Farm Sanitation."

There will be quite a display of farm machinery and implements, affording visitors an opportunity to see and inspect the latest improvements in gasoline engines, spraying outfits, plows, &c.

The picnic is to be an old-time, sociable basket gathering, one that is to remind us of the early childhood days which we all used to enjoy so much. So everybody come with your basket and invite your neighbor. Ample provision has been made for the care of teams on the grounds.

Governor Goldsborough has promised, if back from his vacation in time, to be present, and if he gives as good a talk as Gov. Crothers did last year, he will be well worth hearing.

MOTOR BOATS FINED

An investigation of motorboats in the Chesapeake Bay and tributaries was made by the Guthrie following complaints, especially from the vicinity of Havre de Grace, that provisions of the law were neglected by motorboat owners. Upon report of the cutter's officers, Collector Stone imposed fines aggregating $7,050, and served notice that failure to observe the law in the future would bring heavy punishment.

Among those fined were C. J. Rudolph, Elkton, Md., $100 for not having sufficient life preservers, there being six persons aboard, with means to sustain afloat but five people.

Raymond Herbert, of Betterton, $100 for carrying 10 passengers for hire and having only 10 life preservers on board, there being none for the operator.

Henry Stavelev, of Worton, $100 for not having sufficient life preservers, there being 11 persons on board and only eight life preservers; $250 for not having pilot rules, and $100 for having a bell two and a half inches in width, not being an efficient fog bell.

There was a long list of others who were fined heavily.

Collector of Customs Stone, speaking of the imposition of these fines, said:

"At first, owing to general unfamiliarity of the public with the law, lenient action was taken in the majority of cases, and on one occasion as many as 135 violators were admonished collectively, being warned that a second offense would be punished more severely. The authorities have determined to enforce the law hereafter, no matter who may be affected."

LEWIN W. WICKES, ATTORNEY.

Order of Publication.

Mary Jane S. Ashley, versus
James Kelley, Decatur D Kelley, and all unknown Heirs of Thomas Kelley, deceased.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County In Equity. 1822.

THE object of the Bill of Complaint in this case is to ask for the appointment of a Trustee to convey certain land to the Complainant in fee simple.

The Bill states:

1. That by a paper writing duly executed, acknowledged and delivered, bearing date the 15th day of October, 1873, and recorded among the Land Records of Kent county, Maryland, in Liber J. K. H. No. 12, folio 201, Thomas Kelley and Charlottie Kelley, his wife, granted unto Mary Jane S. Ashley, "her personal representatives and assigns, all that parcel of ground and premises situate and lying in the county aforesaid," which said parcel of ground and premises contain one and a half acres of land, more or less, and is particularly described in said paper writing; and that said paper writing contains the following clauses and covenants, namely: "To Have and to Hold the said described land and premises, unto and to the use of the said Mary Jane S. Ashley, her personal representatives and assigns, for all the residue of the term yet to come and unexpired, therein, with the benefit of renewal forever"; and "And the said Thomas Kelley and his wife covenant to warrant specially the property hereby granted and to execute such further assurances as may be requisite." All of which fully appears by the certified copy of said paper writing filed herewith and marked "Complainants Exhibit No. 1."

2. That at the time said paper writing was executed and delivered, as aforesaid, the said Thomas Kelley was possessed of a fee simple title to the said lot of land and that a fee simple price, namely, one hundred dollars ($100.00) the consideration mentioned in said paper writing, was paid by the said Mary Jane S. Ashley to the said Thomas Kelley for said lot of land.

3. That at the time said writing was executed, acknowledged and delivered, the said Thomas Kelley intended to convey an absolute fee simple estate in and to said lot of land to the said Mary Jane S Ashley and it was so agreed and understood between them, and that it was by mistake and error that the said conveyance was made in the manner and form as aforesaid.

4. That immediately after the execution and delivery of said paper writing as aforesaid, the said Mary J. S. Ashley took possession of said lot of land and claimed it as her fee simple estate and has ever since been in the adverse, exclusive and continuous possession and enjoyment of said lot of land as of a fee simple estate, and that no claim to same has ever been made by the said Thomas Kelley or any one claiming by, through or under him.

5. That the said Mary Jane S. Ashley always thought that said paper writing conveyed to her a fee simple estate to said lot of land, until a short time ago, when she desired to sell said lot of land and was then advised that said paper writing was a lease and not a deed in fee simple

6. That the said Thomas Kelley and Charlottie Kelley departed this life fifteen or twenty years ago and that the said Thomas Kelley left surviving him the following children, namely, James Kelley and Decatur Kelley, both of Rock Hall, Kent county, Maryland, and also left surviving him a number of other heirs at law whose names and residences are unknown to your Complainant.

7. That your Complainant is advised that it is necessary to seek the aid of this Honorable Court in order that she may have said paper writing reformed so as to convey to her a fee simple estate to said lot of land.

It is thereupon this 1st day of August, 1912, ordered by the Circuit Court of Kent county in Equity, that the plaintiff by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent county, once in each of four successive weeks before the 2nd day of September next giving notice to the said unknown non-resident defendants, heirs of the said Thomas Kelley, deceased, warning them to appear in this Court by person or by Solicitor on or before the 18th day of September next to show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
