MIGHTY MICHIGAN WINS SILVER CUP

Finishes Third Of More Than 100 Cars In 108 Mile Race

The following telegram was received at the Michigan factory, in Kalamazoo, July 10th:

"V. L. Palmer:

Michigan Forty finished third in road reliability race—Camden to Wildwood, New Jersey—one hundred and eight miles. Over one hundred cars entered. Pierce Arrow first. Our prize: Silver Cup. Car driven by Dr. Faulkner, of Bridgeton, New Jersey.

E. F. GERBER."

This is one of many similar performances that the Mighty Michigan Forty has given this season.

The even balancing of all parts to match the strength represented by the Mighty Michigan Motor and Chassis is a characteristic which has become distinctive of this Car. It is asserted that this accounts for the sensational success of the Michigan among medium priced cars. It is an illustration of the value of thirty years manufacturing success behind the product.

OCTOBER COURT

Several Appeal Cases for Small Amounts Occupy the Court Several Days—Is There No Relief?

The October term of the Circuit Court for Kent county was called on Monday morning at 10.30, with Chief Judge James A. Pearce on the bench.

The Jury list was called over, and Jurors P. A. M. Brooks, George W. Owens, R. Wesley Moffett and L. Bates Russell were excused from service at this term. C. Frank Wheatley, Howard Turner, Lawrence Stevens and Charles H. Price were drawn in place of those who were excused.

The Grand Jury was then drawn as follows:

Grand Jury—Harry C. Willis, foreman; Francis X. Kraft, Joseph Downey, Perry B. Rasin, William Hepburn, Edwin R. Wallis, Anthony H. Johnson, James S. Bradley, Wm. J. Maslin, John H. Gooding, Jerre Miller, Richard Groves, Harry Nichols, Jr., Alwyn N. Stavely, Paul C. Price, Theodore Dempsey, James A. Casey, John R. Bennett, Samuel G. Caldwell, A. M. Kendall, John H. Wiest, Charles S. Smith, J. Page Gale.

The remainder of the panel comprise the petit jury, as follows:

Petit Jury—Charles H. Price, Elmer E. Leary, M. A. Toulson, Leonard Wilson, John H. Clendaniel, George T. Glenn, Thomas A. Parsons, Curtis E. Crane, Samuel J. Comly, Samuel S. Hurlock, Thomas Rasin, F. H. Greenwood, Jos. M. Norris, James R. Woodall, Jr., A. L. Sparks, John S. Newnam, Wm. R. Price, Samuel Burgess, John L. Deputy, James W. Ivens, Harry T. Williams, Walter B. Barnes, C. Frank Wheatley, Howard Turner, Laurence Stevens.

After Judge Pearce's charge to the Grand Jury, the several dockets were called, appearances entered, appeals noted and cases marked for trial, etc.

The first case called was an appeal case of Wm. Gladski vs. Jas. T. Brown. This was a civil suit over a merchandise sale amounting to $21 49. Jury trial. Verdict for Brown, represented by W. W. Beck. H. H. Barroll & Son for Gladski.

Associate Judges P. B. Hopper and Wm. H. Adkins arrived on the 11 a. m. train and took their respective places.

Judge Pearce left for Annapolis on the 3 p m. train.

The Grand Jury made the following presentments:

Marshall Butler, for carnal knowledge.

John Bayard, for larceny.

"Buddy" Rattler, for violation local option law.

In the case of Enoch Pleasanton, keeper of Chester Cemetery, against Walter Alcott and wife, for pay for services rendered the jury rendered a verdict in favor of defendant. R. G. Parks for plaintiff, H. H. Barroll & Son for defendant.

Lewin Davis was convicted of disorderly conduct, fined $10 or 30 days in jail. R. Groome Parks for Davis, H. W. Vickers for State.

The case of R. Wesley Moffett against Samuel W. Cole and sister, of Millington, for rent of house was an interesting case in that Mr. Moffett bought the house occupied by Mr. Cole and sued for rent from the day of sale. No notice was given to quit the property. Court trial. Verdict for Mr. Cole. H. H Barroll & Son for Cole; W. W. Beck for Moffett.

Robert Danniels was tried and acquitted of shooting crap. S S. Beck for accused; Vickers for State.

The case of the Fidelity & Deposit Co. vs. John Brice was begun but the plaintiff took a non pros and the case came to sudden end for the present.

The suit of C. G. Hadaway vs John W. Newton for recovery of $100 on horse claimed to have been not as represented occupied the Court Thursday. Jury brought in verdict of $15 for Hadaway. John D. Urie for Hadaway; H. H Barroll & Son for Newton.

The Grand Jury finished work yesterday. They have made over 30 presentments and the indictments as follows: Kate Chester, Fred. Thomas, Buddy Rattler, George Erskine, A Merritt Spry, with violating local option law: Albert Terneau, murder; William Monroe, assault with intent to kill; Roy Boyer, Arthur Coleman, Wm. Broxton, John Edwards, Edw. Lusby, Walter Bayard, larceny; A. W. Vansant, forgery; Geo Sampson, Jacob Smith, Cornelius Staten, larceny.

The Vansant case will likely come up Monday.

John Robinson, colored, was tried for assault and battery by a jury and convicted and sentenced to 3 mos. in House of Correction. H. W. Vickers for State; W. W. Beck for defense.

Merritt Spry was tried before Court on a charge of maintaining a gambling house at Lambson's and convicted.

167 COWS SOLD

The biggest sale of cattle reported in Kent county for many years was that held at Galena recently by Mr. S. G. Caldwell. There were sold that day 167 head of cows, the prices ranging from $38 to $85. Mr. Hopkins, from Centreville, bought 25 head; Mr. Hess, of Baltimore, 18 head; Alday Clements 12 head, W. Frank Jarrell 8 head, &c. Mr. Caldwell has a fine stable at Galena and has the utmost confidence of the people.

In connection with the milk business this item will be of interest: All records for milk and butter tests have been shattered by Creamelle Vale, a blue-blooded Holstein, 7 years old, of the Deutschland Farm of F. F. Field and Earl Upton, after nearly 11 months' effort. The cow has given 26,930 pounds of milk, the equivalent of about 13,000 quarts, with a monetary value of approximately $1300, since November 15, 1911. An average cow gives, according to the Department of Agriculture statistics, about 3,000 pounds of milk a year. Creamelle Vale in one month has given 3200 lbs. At her best, Creamelle Vale has given 108 pounds of milk a day, which is at the rate of 4½ pounds an hour. The present record for a year is 27,432 lbs. of milk. This Creamelle Vale should equal in the next ten days, and it is expected that her mark for the year will be more than 29,000 pounds.

In Kent the prospects are reported splendid for poultry of all kinds for Thanksgiving. Driving through this section a great many young turkeys, geese, ducks, guineas and other poultry are to be seen, so that the buyers are assured that they will be able to furnish a great deal for the various city markets. On account of the high prices of meat, it is expected that turkeys will command good rates. We asked a farmer near town what he would take for a flock of 56 fine turkeys, and he replied, "Not a cent less than $3 each now, or $3 50 each when fat!"

WEDDING BELLS

Mr. David A. Clements, son of Mr. Alday Clements, President of the Chestertown Bank of Md., and Miss Laura Virginia Clements, daughter of Mr. Charles W Clements, a well-known merchant of Crumpton, were married in Wilmington on Monday afternoon at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. F. Price Vansent, 618 Van Buren street, by Rev. W. F. Corkran, pastor of Union M. E. Church. They left on a wedding upon their return they will reside in trip to Baltimore and Washington and Crumpton.

The bride wore a blue tailor-made suit and a corsage bouquet of violets, the groom wearing the conventional black. The bride and groom were unattended and only a very few relatives and friends of the popular couple were present.

The home was beautifully decorated with ferns and autumn leaves and the bridal party entered to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, rendered by Mrs. Price Vansant, the bride's sister. "O Promise Me" was rendered during the cer mony.

An elopement that occured August 26 last became known Monday. The couple are Miss Bessie Orah Nesse, aged 19, daughter of Rev. G. R Neese, pastor of Kingswood Meth. Episcopal Church, Wilmington, and Twyford Noble Jarrell, aged 26, son of Robert Jarrell, a wealthy canner of Goldsboro, Md They eloped from Wilmington to Trainor, Pa., just bey nd the Delaware State line, and were wedded by Rev. C. W. W. Bishop, of that place. The romance began when they were students at a business school.

JONES—JUMP.

Salem M. E. Church, Fairlee, never looked prettier than on Saturday the occasion of the wedding of Clinton C. Jones, the shoe merchant of Chestertown, and Miss Bertha K. Jump, a teacher in the Chestertown High School and a daughter of former school Commissioner Purnell Jump, now in the West. The edifice was filled with friends of the couple. The windows were darkened and the new acetylene plant shed a soft light over the scene. Rev. T. N. Given performed the ceremony in a most impressive manner while Miss Susie Dunbracco, organist, and Mr. Warren Hurlock, violinist, made sweet music during the ceremony. The best man was J. S. Kreeger and ushers were Conlyn Noland, Chas. W. Kibler, Jr., Charles Nicholson and Webster Hague. Miss Nellie Nicholson acted as brides maid in a most graceful manner and was becomingly attired in a blue charmeuse gown trimmed with chiffon and lace, a black hat and carried a large bouquet of pink roses. The bride was tastily robed in dark blue velvet trimmed in brocade satin and lace and piped with silk She wore a blue hat trimmed with old rose roses and carried a shower bouquet of white Bride's roses. After the wedding the couple took a bridal trip to Washington and elsewhere. They will reside in the France house on High street which has been remodeled and made nearly new.

STEINBACH—WATKINS.

Miss Edna May Watkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Watkins, of Baltimore, and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Brice, of Chestertown, was married to Mr. Rozier L. Steinbach, of Baltimore, on Wednesday. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents, 2621 St. Paul Street, at four o'clock in the afternoon by Rev. J. W. Kirk, of St. John's M. P. Church. The home was decorated with flowers, plants and streamers of ribbon. The bride wore a blue traveling suit and a black picture hat. After a brief reception, Mr. and Mrs Steinbach left for a southern wedding tour. Upon their return they will reside at 723 East Forty-first street. Mrs. James Brice, grandmother of the bride, attended from Chestertown.

Announcements.—Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Walter have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter Lillias Gray to Mr. William Lambert Ford to take place October 30th, at 7 a. m. No cards issued in the county.

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Wink have issued invitations for the wedding reception of their daughter Jessie Edith, and Mr. Herbert L. Everhart, on Saturday evening, November 2nd, 1912, at their home near Chestertown.

Sudlersville folks were given a surprise last week when word was received from Mr. E. H. Foster stating he was to become a benedict next month. Miss Nellie Vaillant, formerly principal at the Academy, but at present of Indianapolis, is the young lady in the case. Mr. Foster is no doubt one of the most popular gentlemen ever raised in that community and the shore will be lined with a host of friends to wish him bon voyage as he rushes his bark out on the matrimonial sea.

A marriage license was granted Edward E. Urie, 23, Rock Hall, and Christina B. Davidson, 22, divorced, of Baltimore, Saturday.

GRANGE MEETING

The Grange meeting in Kennedyville Tuesday was a splendid affair. The reception and dinner by the local Grange surpassed any heretofore held, and the program was enjoyable to every one. Mrs. Walter Fletcher's reading in the German dialect was funny indeed.

Mr. J. T. Anthony announced a meeting of the Maryland State Grange in Baltimore on December 17 and 18. He also announced another free course in Domestic Science at the Agricultural College on January 12.

The following officers were elected:

Worthy Master—Rev. S. S. Hepburn.
Overseer—George R. Rasin.
Lecturer—Mrs Harvey Moore.
Steward—W. T. Baxter.
Assistant Steward—Irving W. Spry.
Chaplain—Rev. T. N. Given.
Treasurer—Dr. J. W. Urie.
Secretary—Edgar Pennington.
Gate Keeper—Roland Corey.
Ceres—Mrs. S. S. Hepburn.
Pomona—Miss Bessie Newton.
Flora—Mrs E. A. Corey.
Assistant Steward—Mrs. Samuel Roseberry.

The next meeting will be held in Chestertown on the second Thursday in January, 1912.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

William R. Aldridge died at his home in Chestertown on High street early Sunday morning after a long illness of Bright's disease, aged 49 years. The deceased was a son of the late John Kennard Aldridge. He was for a number of years engaged in the mercantile business with T. G. Wroth but for the past year or more has been assistant freight agent of the Maryland Delaware and Virginia Railway Company here. He was a genious in many respects and a great home lover. On account of his bad health he had to give up mercantile life and seek out door work. He is survived by a widow, who was before marriage, Miss Mary Bowers, sister of Rev. Dr. John S. Bowers, president of the Maryland Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church. He leaves also one son, John K. Aldridge, and two daughters, Gladys and Mary Rebecca Aldridge.

Funeral services were held at noon Wednesday, from his late residence, conducted by the Rev. Walter R. Graham, D. D.; interment in Chester cemetery. A duet "Lead Kindly Light," was sweetly rendered by Miss Clara B. Usilton and Dr. Dodd. The pall bearers were Dr. Harry L. Dodd, Charles L. Dodd, C. W. Wroth, Wm. B. Copper, Wm. F. Russell and Harry Nichols. Undertaker Chas. L. Dodd.

MISS NANNIE S. HYNSON.

Miss Nannie S. Hynson, sister of Dr H. P. Hynson, died at her home, 2034 North Calvert street, Baltimore, at 3.30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon after a short illness. Miss Hynson was stricken with paralysis Sunday. She was the daughter of the late Nathaniel Thornton and Anna Maria Medford Hynson, of Kent county.

Miss Hynson lived in Baltimore for a number of years. She is survived by two sisters, Miss Frances L. Hynson, of Baltimore, and Mrs. Benjamin D. Canby, of Montgomery county, and three brothers, Messrs. Medford and Nathaniel T. Hynson, of Washington, and Dr. H. P. Hynson, of Baltimore. The body will be brought to Kent and interment at I. U. to-day.

PERRY W. HAGUE.

Perry W. Hague died at his home near Rock Hall, Saturday morning, Oct. 19th, age 64 years. The deceased was a son of the late Thos. Hague. He is survived by a widow, three sons and two daughters. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at Rock Hall M. E. Church by the pastor, Rev. J. Prettyman, assisted by Rev. Dupuy of the M. P. Church and Rev. T. N. Given, of Salem M. E. Church, Fairlee. Interment was made in St. Paul Cemetery. Undertaker, T. H. Casey & Co.

Miss Esther Geist, a former student at Washington College, and who is kindly remembered by a wide circle of friends here, died at the home of her parents in Glydon, Baltimore county, last Saturday of consumption.

Thomas J. Gore died at the home of his son-in-law, John Younger, Green Point, last Sunday, aged 52 years. The funeral was held Wednesday, services conducted by Rev. Father Erner, of Chestertown; interment in Union cemetery; Undertaker, W. H. Krusen.

Michael Cain, a well known resident of lower Kent, died suddenly Monday at the home of Mr. Wm. E. DeFord, aged 60. He had been living with Mr. Frank Jester all summer. He was buried at Catholic cemetery in Rock Hall.

Thomas B. Howard died at his home in Melitota on Monday last after a long illness. He was 75 years of age and leaves a widow, Mrs. Sarah Howard. The funeral took place Wedneseay, interment Union. Bearers were John Duyer, Joseph Atwell, C. W. Fletcher, Samuel Latham, H. T. Rash and W. J. Tarbutton. Rev. Mr. Given officiated, C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

STILL POND ITEMS.

Mrs. Lester Coleman of Roland Park, Baltimore, and Mr. Laurie Hackett, of Chestertown, are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Hackett.

Mr. W. Claude Hackett, after serving three years service in the U. S. Army received his honorable discharge Tuesday and is now visiting his parents.

Our church was re-opened Sunday with a crowd both morning and night. $700 was raised during the day. The preaching during the week has been fine.

Mr. Lemont Hackett and friend, Mr. Archie McCohen, of Baltimore, of Baltimore, visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hackett.
