assigned to me immediately upon my producing the Order to assume it, and that their Lordships Letter before alluded to, bearing date the 4th of November, was sent to Sir John Warren purposely to prepare him to give it up upon the arrival of a Commander in Chief to the American Stations as that Letter annulled the Commission he previously held for the Combined Stations.

In these expectations I have been disappointed, Sir John Warren persisting to hold the Command until his departure and I have consequently been kept in total ignorance of the State of the Squadron, notwithstanding I officially informed him of the Troops I daily expected
