MIGHTY MICHIGAN WINS SILVER CUP

Finishes Third Of More Than 100 Cars In 108 Mile Race

The following telegram was received at the Michigan factory, in Kalamazoo, July 10th:

"V. L. Palmer:

Michigan Forty finished third in road reliability race—Camden to Wildwood, New Jersey—one hundred and eight miles. Over one hundred cars entered. Pierce Arrow first. Our prize: Silver Cup. Car driven by Dr. Faulkner, of Bridgeton, New Jersey.

E. F. GERBER."

This is one of many similar performances that the Mighty Michigan Forty has given this season.

The even balancing of all parts to match the strength represented by the Mighty Michigan Motor and Chassis is a characteristic which has become distinctive of this Car. It is asserted that this accounts for the sensational success of the Michigan among medium priced cars. It is an illustration of the value of thirty years manufacturing success behind the product.

WEDDING BELLS

Mrs. Henry A. Nowland, of Middletown, announces the marriage of her daughter, Mary Blackiston Nowland, to Elias Moore Shallcross. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. R. L. Jackson, pastor of Hanover Presbyterian church on Wednesday afternoon. A wedding breakfast followed the ceremony at Hanna's. Those who witnessed the ceremony were Mrs. Henry A. Nowland, Mrs. Sereck Shallcross, Miss Emma Blackiston, Dr. and Mrs. Edward M. Vaughan, and Ralph Shallcross. Mr. and Mrs. Shallcross will reside at Middletown.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Smith announce the marriage of their daughter, Mabel, to Mr. John T. Benjamin on Thursday October 24, in Philadelphia. The groom is a son of Mr. Alfred Benjamin, of Chestertown, and a former faithful employe of the NEWS. He is holding a responsible position in a large printery in Philadelphia. They will live at 2247 South Croskey street.

A very pretty marriage took place at the parsonage of South Baltimore Station Methodist Protestant Church, 1214 Light street, at 3 p. m., Wednesday, October 30th, 1912, when Miss Anna Rebecca Bryan, a sister of Rev. J. Franklin Bryan, at whose home she was married, and Benjamin A. Bryan, pastor of Bethany Methodist Protestant Church, Lafayette Ave and Washington street, was married to William Arthur Bailey, of Baltimore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Silas R. Bailey, of Aberdeen, Md. Mr. Bailey is a traveling auditor for the Crown, Cork & Seal Company, of Baltimore.

The bride was attired in a blue broadcloth going away suit, with a large picture hat and carried a large shower bouquet of white chrysanthemums. The groom wore a black conventional suit. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Franklin Bryan, pastor of South Baltimore Station Methodist Protestant Church, and a brother of the bride, assisted by Rev. Benjamin A. Bryan, another brother of the bride, and Rev. Richard N. Edwards, pastor of Mortford Avenue Methodist Episcopal church, a relative of the groom. The wedding march was excellently rendered by Miss Naomi Mitchell, of Baltimore, who also softly sang, "Oh Promise Me," while the ceremony was being performed.

The home was beautifully decorated with ferns and cut flowers. Only the immediate families were present at the marriage. After the marriage ceremony refreshments were served. Immediately after refreshments, Mr. and Mrs. Bailey left for a trip South. After their return, Mrs. Bailey will accompany her husband on a business trip to Toronto, Canada.

Married, at the M. E. Parsonage, Chestertown, Wednesday evening, Oct. 30th, by Rev. L. E. Barrett, D. D., Joseph W. Lewis and Miss Della Price, both of Chestertown.

FORD—WALTER

On Wednesday, Oct. 30th, at 7 a. m., Miss Lillias G. Walter, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walter of Still Pond, was married to Mr. William L. Ford, a prosperous young farmer of the community. The Church was beautifully decorated with autumn leaves, rubber plants, palms and ferns. To the strains of Lohengrin Wedding March, skillfully rendered by Miss Anna Smyth of Chestertown, and preceded by the ushers, Messrs. Emory Gray, Elwin Ford, Howard Pumphrey and F. Conrad Stoll, the bride and groom approached the altar and were joined in holy matrimony by the Rev. F. N. Moore, pastor of Still Pond M. E. Church, assisted by Rev. J. W. Gray, of Brooklyn, Md. The bride was becomingly attired in a traveling suit of blue broad-cloth, and carried white chrysanthemums, while the groom wore the conventional black. After the wedding the couple boarded the train for Atlantic City and other northern points. The presents were beautiful and numerous. Among the out-of-town guests were: Rev. J. W. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Bushman, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Gray, Miss Rita Gray, Miss Bertie Stoll, Messrs. F. Conrad Stoll and Howard Pumphrey, Miss Bertha Zenrgraf, Brooklyn, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. George Walter, Mrs. Louise Brinkman, Mrs. Pumphrey, Baltimore; Mrs. George Stoll, Snow Hill; Miss Leah Tipton, Parkton, Pa.

The Weather Prophet.—The weather prophet is around with his impressions. He says the goose bone shows lots of snow; the squirrel and other like animals are laying in a big store of nuts and other food; the fur on their backs is unusually thick, and there is snow and extremely cold weather in England; all of which goes to show that we are to have a long, cold winter.
