FARMERS' CLUB MEETS.

The Rich Neck Farmers' Club, of Queen Anne's county, held its regular monthly meeting Thursday at Ripley Park, the home of J. McC. Rochester. H. P. Skiper stated that the State Live Stock Sanitary Board has used large quanties of cholera serum this year, but that some of the serum has not given good results. The Maryland Agricultural College and Expreiment Station is now equipping a laboratory for the manufacture of this serum, so the Maryland farmer will be able in the near future to get it always of the best quality.

W. Irving Walker, the club president, called attention to the club exhibit for the Maryland week show, and it was evident from the interest shown that the club would make a fine exhibit.

Miss Mary A. Burnite, in charge of domestic science in the public schools of Caroline county, gave a talk on her work.

Dr Richard S. Hill, director of farmers' institutes complimented tha farmers upon raising crimson clover and alfalfa.

MILLINGTON ITEMS.

Mrs. Price Vansant returned on Wednesday to her home in Wilmington, Del after spending several days with her parents Mr. & Mrs. C. W. Clements, of Crumpton and Mr. & Mrs. B. F. Vansant, of this town.

Mrs. Lucy Hobbs, of near Prices, is visiting her son, Mr. N. Hobbs.

Mrs. James Maker, of Baltimore, was the guest a few days this week of her sister, Mrs. Warner Mallalien, of near town.

Mr. E. R. Calloway spent last week with his parents at Delmar, Del.

Miss Indiana Comegys, of Baltimore, is visiting Mrs. Merritt Brice.

Mr. Homer Walls spent a few days this week with relatives and friends in Wilmington, Del.

Mr. George Harrington, one of the oldest residents of this town and who was in the habit of working around for the farmers in the neighborhood left his home on Monday, October 21st to go out to Mr. J. E. Spear's about two miles north of Millington, on the road to Massey, to see Mr. Spear about husking corn for him, which he did and left Mr. Spear's about 3 o'clock. He did not return home that night, but while his wife felt a little anxious about him, no special trouble was anticipated as he was in the habit of working away from home, often leaving Monday morning and not returning until Saturday evening, but much to the surprise of his family and the community on Thursday afternoon, the 24th, news came by telephone that his body had been found in Mr. William Naylor's woods about two miles north of Massey by two young men who were out squirreling; his face and hands were scratched with briars and bushes where he had been struggling; it is supposed that after leaving Mr. Spear's he wandered up the railroad instead of coming down towards Millington and when dark came on he must have stopped to rest and fell asleep or taken sick and perished in the cold rains of last week. His son-in-law, Mr. Eldridge Wilson, went out and identified his body and health officer, Dr. Jones, was summoned but deemed an inquest unnecessary. Mr Harrington was 73 years and 4 months old and leaves a wife and four children: Messrs. William and George Harrington, of Bear, Del.; Mrs. Edward Pinder, of New Castle, Del., and Mrs. Eldridge Wilson of this town. The funeral took place at his late home on Sunday at 1 p. m., Rev. A. E. Owens, of M. E. Church, South, officiated and J. L. Smith undertaker. Interment in Millington cemetery. The pall bearers were: Messrs. George Newnam, George Dixon, Charles Hurtt, Charles Robinson, George Parvis and William Tolson.

Last Tuesday was a gala day in Millington. Many delegates and earnest Sunday School workers from all parts of the county met in Asbury M. E. Church in the Sunday School Convention. ROCK HALL NOTES.

Rock Hall Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., attended service at the M. E. Church on Sunday morning, where Pastor J. W. Prettyman delivered before them and a large gathering a fine, instructive sermon. Subject, "Time Will Test the Work," using as a foundation Gamaliel's advice to the Sanhedrin respecting the treatment of the followers of Jesus, Acts 5: 38-39.

As a result of the revival services, it is gratifying to note the large increase in Sunday School attendance. Time, too, will test the genuineness of this boom. May it be of God.

The trustees of the M. E. Church are having a heavy concrete and cement bed put in the furnace cellar of the church. A steam heater will also be installed, in place of the furnace.

Mr. Leroy Boyer, a Rock Hall boy, who, with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Boyer, moved from here to Baltimore two years ago, seems to be making good. He is a sergeant in the Maryland National Guard. Recently, during rifle practice at Saunders' Range, he won a fine medal as a sharp shooter. In the report appearing in the Sun of the special courses of study for the commissioned and non-commissioned officers of the M. N. G, it is noticed that Sergeant Boyer has been assigned to the Fourth Regiment headquarters as clerk, and is one of the busiest men at the armory.

"The melancholy days, the saddest of the year," does not apply to this glorious October weather. The weather is just fine. Trees and shrubbery are in a halo of beauty, and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Ayres have in their front yard a number of trees which for beauty of foliage cannot be beat.

Misses Daisy M. and Nannie A. E. Ryan are enjoying a week's sojourn in Baltimore.

The Mendells Bros. are taking advantage of a lull in business by closing down the wrapper factory here for a month, in order to put in new lights, heaters, &c.

So many of "we'uns" seem to be noninterested in the election of next Tuesday. We seem to think as to the Presidential candidates "its six of one and a half dozen of the other. This should not be Let's turn out strong and vote for Wilson, Marshall, Covington and Constable.

The police schooner, Anna B. Smith, after a thorough overhauling at Cambridge, Md., has arrived at this port aud placed in commission again. Captain Akers and crew will have to exercise vigilant watching for violators of the oyster laws this season. There are large quantities of oysters on the upper bay bars and lumps, and the dredgers will give them close attention.

Mr. Hiram Crew and Miss Edith E. Ryan, a popular young couple, were married on Thursday evening at the home of the groom's mother, South Rock Hall, Rev. Mr. Prettyman performing the ceremony.

Mr. Norris O. Collyer, who has been been very ill with typhoid fever, is now slowly recovering at his home in Rock Hall. He is being attended by Dr. W. O. Selby and Mrs. Arthur P. Levy, a trained nurse. Mrs. Levy, before her marriage, was Miss Ellen Ryan, of Rock Hall, a graduate of the University Hospital, Baltimore, Md.

Delegates elected to Easton District Annual Epworth League Convention were Miss Pearle Ford and Mr. Robert Bramble.

MISS REBECCA BRAMBLE.

Death Angel came and claimed Miss Rebecca Bramble, youngest daughter of the late John and Sarah (Crossley) Bramble, at the home of her brother, James, near Galena, aged 26 years. She had been afflicted since infancy, so God called her home to live with Him where there is no sickness or pain or sin, for she knew none. The funeral was largely attended Thursday at Delaneys M. E. Church conducted by Rev. A. Burke, of Bethel, Md., who spoke beautifully and Rev. W. W. White, of Sassafras, Md. Six brothers and five sisters survive her. Five sisters and one sister-in-law acted as pall-bearers: Mrs. William Robinson, of Smyrna, Del; Mrs. R. H. Gibson, of Beverly, N. J.; Mrs. W. E. Marter, Mrs. Harvey Jewell, of near town; Mrs. Philip Gallagher, of Burlington, N. J.; Mrs. Fred Bramble, of Middletown.

THE ballot arranged in Kent by the Republicans gives them a big advantage. There is but little space left between the groups of candidates and electors and charges of trickery are heard all over the State. The Republicans were elected on a platform to correct these evils! Did you expect them to do it?

COUNTY ROADS.

The Still Pond Farmers Club, a representative body of Kent's foremost farmers, met on Thursday at the home of Mr. Robert R. Hill, near Kennedyville. A splendid dinner was served and an interesting program presented.

A committee consisting of John Redmile, Arthur L. Harris, S. G. Roseberry, Edw. B. Pennington and F. H. Cornelius was appointed to consider this question. "Why are the roads of Kent County in bad condition?" and to report same to the press and the next meeting. The NEWS has received the following report from Mr. Arthur L Harris: "Having been named as one of a committee of five from Still Pond Farmers Club to make a report on the above question. I respectfully submit the following. It is an undisputed fact that the roads are not in as good condition as they should be. I have asked some of the road workers why they do not repair roads at the request of the Road Engineer. They said the Barroll County Commissioners had not paid them for work already done and they were not disposed to do any more work under the existing political conditions as their pay is too uncertain. There are two remedies. One is to give Mr. Barroll absolute control of Kent County politics. The other is to take all political control from him. The voters of Kent County should do one thing or the other. Until this is done there is no remedy. The road situation will remain in a muddle, at least until there is another county election."
