HON. JAMES ALFRED PEARCE.

Our friend and fellow townsman, HON. JAMES ALFRED PEARCE, retires from the Bench this week to the regret of everyone. Evidences of the esteem in which he is held have been showered upon him, but they have been well deserved and richly merited.

The very highest attributes of character which he so completely possesses, the purity of his life, the gentleness of a woman and the firmness of a great man, the profoundest of learning, all seem to be wrapped in an unassuming, kindly patience and forbearance that stamp him in the very truest and highest sense a gentleman.

Judge Pearce is Kent's pride as a citizen and as a Judge. He is unfailingly courteous in manner, chaste in diction, conscientious, industrious, and unbiased in his mental attitude toward all. He is of a charming personality, kindly, warm-hearted and considerate. In the words of the Master we may well say, "Well done, good and faithful servant."

It is interesting to read what Judge Pearce says in response to the manifestations of approval of his official conduct for which he is deeply grateful. Says he "I shall not attempt to disguise the regret and reluctance with which I shall part with my valued associates and with each and every member of the bar of this circuit, for in my experience there is no association more delightful than that which exists between congenial members of the bench and between the bench and a bar such as it is the good fortune of this circuit to possess. During the fifteen years since my election I have enjoyed the unbroken confidence and cordial support of six associates upon this circuit, all men of acknowledged legal ability and of rare personal qualities, without whose presence and aid I should have felt unequal to the responsibility involved in the office. To have followed such men as Judges Robinson and Wickes, and to have sat with such men as Judges Stump, Martin, Brown and Crothers, and with such as my associates here present is as great an honor as it has been a pleasure. During all these years I have received only courtesy and kindness from every member of the bar of the circuit, and whenever I have been within its limits I have been able to feel the assurance that the responsibility which is inseparable from judicial decision or legal controversies would be lightened by conscientious and thorough presentation of the causes by the bar. Contact with such associates and with such a bar has bound me to them, as it were, with hooks of steel and makes the parting sad and painful to him who withdraws from the charmed cicrle. But at my period of life I must recognize the fitness of giving place to younger men in the public service and as accepting cheerfully the opportunity for repose at home and tranquil reflection upon the not distant change from time to eternity.

I retire, therefore, profounnly grateful to my associates, to the bar and to the people of the circuit for the kindness I have received and the confidence they have reposed in me. I rejoice in the years of continued honor and usefulness that lie before my associates and I welcome my successor with confidence that he will maintain the honorable traditions of the circuit."

THE committee from the Farmers' Club of Kennedyville consisting of Messrs. E. B. Pennington, John C. Redmile, S. G. Roseberry, Arthur Harris and F. H. Cornelius appointed at a previous meeting of the Club made a report at the meeting last week and declared that the present manner of working the roads was deplorable and recommended that the system be changed.

The NEWS published a few weeks ago Mr. Harris' report from this Club and his opinion found an echo in most of the people. This is an old question and the NEWS, as the spokesman for the whole people, will be glad to receive opinions and suggestions on this matter. Of course everyone will admit that roads cannot be worked without money, without system or competent officials. These three things are the first essentials.

SOME QUESTIONS TO ANSWER

MESSRS. EDITORS KENT NEWS—

Gentlemen: In replying to the question asked me by Mr. Thos. D. Bowers in his letter of Nov. 30th, in the Chestertown Transcript, I wish to state that it is not my duty to inform violators of the law, such as Mr. J. E. Morris, or any other person, that they have violated the Corrupt Practices Act or any other law.

It is my sworn duty to present all violators of the law to the Grand Jury, and I would have violated my oath of office as State's Attorney if I had not reported the matter. In so doing I was performing my duty, in which I should be upheld by every law-abiding citizen.

I informed the Grand Jury of Mr. Morris' violation of the law, whereupon the Grand Jury recommended that all treasurers in the future be more careful in filing their reports. The Grand Jury's recommendation upheld and sustained my position.

Mr. Morris violated the law, and Mr. Bowers, in his letter in last Saturday's Transcript, admitted Mr. Morris' guilt.

Criticism does not affect me while I am attempting to fulfill all obligations of confidence and trust which the people have placed upon me in electing me as State's Attorney.

Mr. Nichols was not suspected in any manner of violating the law. I am content if Mr. Nichols prefers to allow his SO-CALLED FRIENDS to place him in a false position in this community under the stigma of holding office elected by violations of the law.

I shall call several matters to the attention of the citizens of this county. In doing so I shall cast aside my personal rights and feelings and deal with these questions in a plain, truthful and dignified manner, without indulging in personal abuse or even noticing the malicious and unwarranted attacks upon me.

I shall ask Mr. Thomas D. Bowers, of the Chestertown Transcript, the following questions, and request of him to give this community good and sound answers, without indulging in personalities, and that each answer shall be a reply to the question; for if Mr. Bowers has been sincere in his representations to the public he will not hesitate to give a truthful and dignified answer:

No. 1. You know and have admitted in your paper that Mr. James E. Morris violated the Corrupt Practices Act. Now tell the public why, if you believe in upholding the law, do you shield him? Do you believe it is a good law and do you wish it enforced?

No. 2. Why did you, in your issue of Nov. 2nd, inform the public, and expected them to believe your statement, that only one conviction resulted from the investigations of the detective employed by the county, when the court record shows that twelve were indicted, resulting in seven convictions, two acquittals and the remaining three left the county? Did you not know that your statement was incorrect? Why did you not come out and state the truth when you found you were wrong?

No. 3. Why is it that you are opposed to the County Commissioners complying with the recommendation of the Grand Jury to furnish funds to assist in suppressing the numerous violations of the local option law? It would be a great saving to the taxpayers of the county if the commissioners would comply with this request. They have to bear most of the expense arising and resulting from the violations of this law. This is a moral question, independent of the cost to the county, and if the people of this county want these violations stopped let them request the county commissioners to furnish these funds. It is absolutely necessary to employ an outside person unknown to these violators to stop these numerous and increasing violations. This is not a personal matter, but I am simply trying to break up the illegal whiskey traffic in Kent county. Why don't you assist?

No. 4. Why is it that in your issue of Nov. 2nd you stated that you were in favor of a change in the law so as to make it less difficult to secure evidence against the violators of the local option law? I drew such a bill, upon the recommendation of the whole court, and Senator Beck passed it in the Senate; but your representatives (the Anti-Organization legislators) never passed it in the House. Tell the community were you in favor of this law which prohibited the taking of orders for whiskey in this county? And if you were, why did the delegates from this county, who belonged to the same faction that you do, not pass it through the House? It was a local bill for Kent county, and therefore it was entirely in the power of Messrs. Harris and Miller to pass or defeat it. The law-abiding citizens of the county are entitled to know your position on this matter.

No. 5. Why did you write an editorial in last Saturday's paper stating that in 1909 the Organization treasurer's report showed that he had given to one person $292, and intimated that he had not used the money in a proper manner? I have examined the treasurer's report and your statement that $292 was given to one person is not correct. The highest amount given to any one person was the sum of $80 to Mr. Simon Westcott, balance of salary due him. Mr. Westcott, during the campaign, was in charge of the Democratic headquarters in the old Armstrong House and was paid a salary for his services. Why is it you persist in telling these kind of things?

Now, tell the public. They have a right to expect from you an honest and straightforward reply to these questions.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

Bulletin.

CONVENIENT TRANSPORTATION FACILITIES

The Pennsylvania Railroad, by main lines, branches, subsidiary lines and connections, covers the Eastern country so completely that the people of almost every community may avail themselves of its facilities.

The lines reach the cities, the big towns and the little towns, so that whether the impulse to travel be for business, pleasure, or social purposes, it may be satisfactorily carried out, as far as transportation facilities are concerned, by taking a Pennsylvania Railroad train at the nearest point.

Through cars are operated over the lines between all important centres of population, and an excellent dining car service is available at the usual hours for meals on the through trains. The all-steel equipment of the trains adds greatly to the security and comfort of the passengers.

The spirit of the holiday season stimulates the wish to travel, and the facilities of the Pennsylvania Railroad and its connections appeal with equal force to the home-coming young folks and the migrating people of maturer years.

The comprehensive train service, apart from the local trains well known in each community, covers a wide extent of territory.

BETWEEN THE EAST AND THE WEST

There are splendid limited trains between New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, Harrisburg, Altoona, Pittsburgh, and points in the West, notably Chicago and St. Louis. Included among these are the "BROADWAY LIMITED," the 20-hour train between New York and Chicago; the 24-HOUR ST. LOUIS," to St. Louis and Chicago; "THE PENNSYLVANIA LIMITED," to Chicago, St. Louis, Cleveland, and Cincinnati; and the "CHICAGO LIMITED," to Chicago, Cincinnati, and Cleveland. These are all-Pullman trains and provide the highest grade of service. In addition there are a number of express trains to Chicago, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, Columbus, Cleveland, Toledo, Detroit, and other important centres of the Middle West, which provide both Pullman and all-steel coach service. Among these are the "Chicago Special," "Chicago Express," "St. Louis Express," "Western Express," and the "Cleveland, Cincinnati, and Chicago Express."

TO THE SOUTH

Those contemplating a trip South, to the resorts of the Carolinas, Georgia, Florida, and the Gulf Coast, will find a number of fine trains between the important terminal cities of the Pennsylvania Railroad; and cars to the more important cities of the South, running through from and to New York via Washington, Baltimore, and Philadelphia. On January 6, 1913, the through Limited Trains between New York and Florida will be placed in service.

COMMERCIAL CENTRES LINKED.

An examination of the time tables of the Pennsylvania Railroad will show that practically all important commercial centres on its lines and connections are linked by through trains, through cars, or convenient connections, affording accommodating service.

Anyone who wishes to go anywhere should consult the nearest Ticket Agent of the Pennsylvania Railroad. He can give all the information a traveler requires.
