FIRST CONTRACT FOR TOMATOES.

The outlook for the farmers who raise tomatoes in Kent is very promising. The first contract made in Kent for 1913 is said to be by Mr. Samuel Maslin, of near Edesville. He has contracted to raise tomatoes at $10 per ton, and to ship to Baltimore from Ship-yard.

The farmers who ship from Brown's Lankford Bay wharf, in Quaker Neck, are asking $10.20 per ton, or 17 cents per basket.

SLATE QUARRIES TO BE SOLD.

The Harford county papers contain a trustee's sale, under a mortgage of valuable peach bottom quarries, with manufacturing plant, located on slate ridge in Harford county. The advertisement states that the approximate amount due is $90,000. S. A. Williams, Esq., is the trustee. Kent countians are very much interested in this plant, as a number visited the quarries and afterwards invested quite a sum when the total is considered.

REPORT OF AUDITING COMMITTEE.

The Kent County Auditors, Messrs. E. W. Hepbron, T. G. Wroth and Wm. G. Smyth, make their report this week. It is found on page 6 of the NEWS. It is a comprehensive, plain and full report showing the careful manner in which this committee have looked into the affairs of all the Kent county offices.

It is up to the County Commissioners to carry out the recommendations contained therein. If the law does not provide payment for collecting taxes unpaid after a certain date it should be made to do so. The laborer is worthy of his hire.

KENT GRANGE MEETING

A Splendid Dinner Served—Installation of Officers—Good Music—Interesting Discussions.

A warm welcome was given the Grangers of Kent on Thursday by the local Grange in Chestertown. Col. William J. Vannort, Mrs. Harry Nicholson and others looked after the arrangements and there were 140 who enjoyed the elegant dinner.

Arrangements looking to another annual picnic with the sister grange of Queen Anne's were made, and the feature of exhibits of farm and home products was emphasized and the importance of offering premiums for best articles was emphasized.

An executive committee consisting of two members of each subordinate grange (one man and one woman) was appointed to take the matter in hand and work out all the details of the mid-summer outing.

The installation of officers occupied the attention of the Grange until about 4 p. m., when the lecturer, T. E. W. Crew, announced the program of music, &c. A quartette by Messrs. Warren Hurlock, A. L. Sparks, J. Hydie Thompson, T. D. Bowers, and a duet by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Thompson were much enjoyed, being well rendered. Mr. Conlyn Noland read a most excellent paper "How to Keep the Boy on the Farm." (The NEWS will publish this paper next week). Mrs. Elwood Morris read a paper on "The Profits from the Hen." reading by Miss Anna Leaverton was finely rendered, also one by Mrs. Corey.

As to the cost of producing an acre of $1 wheat, 20 bushels to the acre, the Grand Master, Rev. S. S. Hepburn, put the expense of 50 acres at $120, and depreciation of machinery $17, making a total of $437, leaving a net profit of $11.26 per acre. Mr. W. T. Bramble made the expense on a 15-acre field $7.94 per acre and the profit $2.06. Mr. John P. Nicholson on one acre made the gross $20; expense, $8.16; profit, $11.89.

COOPER—ROE.

Miss Sarah Roe, of Kent county, Md., daughter of Mr. Bedford Roe, and Mr. Benjamin Ralph Cooper, or Kent Co., Del., were married at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Robt. L. Wallis near Kennedyville, Md., on Wednesday, Jan. 8th, 1913, at 12 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by Elder B. F. Cubbage, of Wyoming, Del.

A New Mining Company—Articles of incorportation were filed here today for the Baker Bend Mining Company, of Chestertown, to be a general mining and milling business and to refine ores, metals, etc. Capital stock, $500,000. Incorporators, Louis K. Stam, Chestertown J. G. Gray and M. B. F. Hawkins, Wilmington, Del.

BETTERTON can boast of some pretty good shooters. Miss Edna Lewis, Miss Irene Crownhart, and Miss Ethel Ferguson went gunning near Spesutia Island on New Year's day and succeeded in bringing home several ducks and one goose. Miss Edna can break a bottle, thrown up, nine out of ten with her little No. 20.
