The play in Centreville Thursday night with orchestra accompaniment was a big success. Messrs. Warren Hurlock, Arthur Bacon and T. Kemp Bordley assisted from Chestertown.

LOCAL NOTES

At a public meeting of subscribers to the local telephone service, held in Firemen's Hall, Monday evening, Sidney P. Townshend, Esq., and Wm. B. Usilton, Jr., were named to attend a conference of the Public Utilities Commission held at Cambridge, Jan. 30th. Representatives from every section of the Eastern Shore were present at this conference when the question of telephone rates, etc., were considered. Herbert E. Perkins, Esq., represented Chestertown, owing to the impossibility of Messrs. Townshend and Usilton being present.

At the regular meeting of the Board of directors of the Kent Building and Loan Company, held Monday night, all of the incumbent officials were re-elected as follows: President, L. Bates Russell; Vice Pres., Fred. G. Usilton; Sect'y and Treas., J. Waters Russell; Attorney, John D. Urie, Esq.; Executive Com., the foregoing and Thomas S. Bordley.

The Samuel Newcomb property located near Betterton was sold at public sale Tuesday by S. S. Beck, Esq., attorney, to Messrs. John N. Bennett and Robt. R. Hill for $800.

The Sunshine Society which meets at the apartments of Mr. Samuel Bennett in Broad Neck recently elected officers and directors: President, Charles Vickers; Vice-Pres., Milton Crew; Secretary, Gilbert Hadaway; Treasurer, Wm. Shriley; Directors, Herbert Fletcher, Howard Hadaway, Samuel Bennett, James Taylor, Charles McCreery, Thos. Blackiston, Henry Jones.

We venture to assert that Dr. Louis E. Barrett, the popular pastor of the Chestertown M. E Church, is one of the healthiest preachers in the Wilmington Conference. He has been preaching 46 years, and during this long period he has lost but two Sundays from his pulpit because of sickness! One of these Sundays was last month.

T. V. Simpson announces himself as a candidate for town commissioner in opposition to Mr. Clements.

Mrs. L. E. Barrett's Sunday School Class will hold a "Pie Social," Friday evening, Feb. 7th, in Mr. Eliason's building on High street.

W. Frank Jarrell moved into his new office this week. This office is located in the brick garage on Washington avenue recently erected by Contractor W. T. Pippin. It is heated by hot water and brilliantly lighted.

The Boy Scout movement is being agitated in Chestertown. Prof. Kemp Bordley has charge of the "army" for the present and took the boys on a "hike" Saturday.

Hope Copper found a field daisy in bloom in his field, near Chester bridge.

There is serious talk of a second cannery at Chestertown. Encourage this enterprise. They help every community.

Many farmers in Kent have ploughed whole fields since Xmas.

On a recent Sunday morning two unknown dogs ran a fox through the lower part of Delaware into Maryland and the fox to save himself jumped through a window in the home of Mr. Clarence Parker, at Smithville, and hid under a couch, where he was made an easy captive.

An Otter five feet long was caught last week by Mr. Henry Price and his faithful Chesapeake bay water dog "Bruce" at his home near Betterton

The Still Pond Grange will meet today and Saturdays hereafter in the Still Pond public school building at 2 P. M.

Entertainments.—The St. Paul's Social and Domestic Club advertise "Aunt Dinah's Quilting Party" and "Social Outcast," to be given in Fairlee Hall next Monday evening, Feb. 3rd. It will be fun for all.

Miss Harriet P. Marine, elocutionist, of Baltimore, will give a miscellaneous recital in Firemen's Hall Tuesday evening, Feb. 11th, under the auspices of the ladies of Christ M. P. Church. Good orchestra music will be a feature also.

A Wilson Dinner.—A Wilson dinner given by a Progressive Republican at which Rev. G. A. Morris, the popular pastor of St. James M. P. Church was the guest of honor, occurred at the home of Mr. Jos. W. Atwell in Worton last Friday evening. It seems that Mr. Atwell was so positive that Teddy Roosevelt would be elected that he remarked to Rev. Mr. Morris, an ardent Wilson supporter, that if Wilson was elected he would give him a big supper! Friday night's spread was the result. It was a veritable Wilson dinner, too, for everything was up-to-date in quality and in service and all made great Progress in its consumption. The menu comprised swan, wild duck and trimmings served to the Queen's taste. Among those present were: Rev. G. A. Morris and wife, B. F. Rash and wife, Marion Rash and wife, Arthur Loller and wife, John Dwyer and wife, Barney Cooper and wife, Mrs. Burris, of Dover, Jack Dwyer, Jos. Atwell and wife. Parson Morris thinks Mr. Atwell is allright and vice versa.
