Mr. E. Thos. Massey, Massey, Md.
My Dear Sir: It is with pleasure that I can write and thank you for the manner in which your Company promptly and without any equivocation on their part paid me the insurance that I had on the wheat burned on my stack-yard last August. As soon as the loss was determined the amount of insurance was forthcoming without any delay, and I find it a decided satisfaction to deal with a company like yours that will do just as they promise.
Very respectfully yours,

DATES FOR RACE MEETS ALLOTTED

Despite the predictions of a stormy session, the annual meeting of the Maryland and Virginia Racing Association at the Hotel Rennert on Tuesday afternoon passed off without anything of a startling nature happening. Besides the allottment of the 1913 racing dates and the granting of a franchise to the Kent and Queen Anne's Driving Club, which is now in control of the new track at Chestertown, Md., there was little or no business transacted.

Several days ago, when it was announced that the Chestertown course would make an application to hold a meeting from August 26 to 29, the same dates which the Rockville Fair Association was seeking, it looked as though trouble was in the air. Fortunately, however, Rockville failed to have representatives at Tuesday's meeting, and the Kent and Queen Annes association was granted its request without a controversy. The failure of the directors of the Rockville plant to be represented at Tuesday's gathering forfeits the franchise of that track in the circuit.

Clifton L. Jarrell, James G. Beck, and E. Le Compte represented the Kent and Queen Annes Association, and after having been granted membership to the circuit it was announced that the Chestertown organization had recently increased its capital stock from $2,000 to $10,000. The association has erected two commodious stables at the new track which will be known as Radcliffe Park. In the spring the association will erect the necessary building for the holding of an agricultural fair in connection with the three day's race meeting.

The two local fair associations, Timonium and Prospect Park, were granted the dates for which they made applications. Timonium gets from September 2 to 8, while Prospect Park's meet will begin on September 9 and continue to the 13. The dates given out were as follows:

Tasley, Va.—July 29 to August 2.
Pocomoke City—August 5 to 8.
Salisbury—August 12 to 15.
Easton—August 19 to 22.
Chestertown—August 26 to 29.
Timonium—September 2 to 8.
Prospect Park—September 9 to 13.

The officers of the Maryland and Virginia Racing Association are: H. A. Brehm, president; E. Gittings Merryman, vice-president; James C. L. Anderson, secretary and treasurer.

THE Rock Hall wrapper factory which has been purchased by Mr. M. Kramer will likely begin operations next Monday. It will employ all the help they can get.

Elocutionist.—Miss Harriet P. Marine, who is to give a recital in Firemen's Hall next Tuesday evening, has a high reputation and we feel confident will please her hearers. Mr. Geo. Morrow, city editor of the Baltimore Sun, says: "I know of no amateur who is her equal nor any professional for that matter. Her natural talents have been carefully trained and her intelligence can always be relied upon. She will exceed her promises, and unless I am mistaken, your expectations."

A SUDDEN DEATH.

Alday Clements Dies After A Few Hours Sickness—A Grand Man.

The shocking news of the death of ALDAY CLEMENTS came as a bolt of lightning from a clear sky. He died at his beautiful home near Chesterville at 2 A. M. Tuesday after being sick only a few hours. He had been to his Merchant farm, near Galena, in company with Mr. Wm. Dudley, and was returning home when he was taken sick. It was just opposite Galena M. E. Church when he asked Mr. Dudley to take the reins as he was sick, and he continued nauseated until he reached home. Upon arriving home he sat in a chair and complained of pains in his body. Dr. Landis was summoned and treated Mr. Clements but did not consider his condition alarming. Soon after six o'clock Mr. Clements became unconscious and all efforts to resuscitate proved futile, death ensuing about 2 A. M. The deceased leaves a widow, three sons—Merrick, of Chestertown; David, of Crumpton; George, at school in Virginia;—three daughters, Annie, Aldine, at home, and Ruth away at school. He also leaves a sister, Mrs. W. E. Jarrell and a brother, Mr. Thos. A. Clements.

The funeral took place Thursday from his late home and was largely attended, Revs. Kuhlman and Gwynn, of the M. E. Church South, officiating, Mr. Bradley, of Crumpton, undertaker. The bearers were James, John R., J. B. T. and W. R. Merrick, W. Frank Jarrell and Harry R. Graham. There were floral designs from the Chestertown Bank, Kent Mutual Insurance Company and others.

In the home circle Mr. Alday Clements was ideal. In religious circles he did what he could toward the upbuilding of His kingdom. In business he was correct and honest and owned nearly 2500 acres of fine land in Kent and Queen Anne's, besides several hundred head of fine horses, mules and cattle, his specialty being horses. He succeeded the late Hon. Charles T. Westcott to the presidency of The Chestertown Bank of Maryland and under his direction this institution has had great success. He was also a director in the Kent Mutual Insurance Co., in which enterprise his counsel was conservative and safe.

In politics he was a Democrat but always declined to run for office. He wielded quite an influence in all circles and his death has removed one of Kent's noblemen.

Mrs. A. L. Houston, widow of the late Dr. Houston, died Feb. 13th of acute bronchitis, aged 85 years. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon from the residence of ex-Senator William M. Slay, the Rev. Dr. Henry B. Martin officiating. The interment was in St. Paul's cemetery, the pall-bearers being Messrs. George B. Westcott, Philip G. Wilmer, Eben F. Perkins, Thomas G. Wroth, J. Frank Connelly and Charles M. Brown. The deceased was a sister of the late Richard Hynson, Esq. She is survived by the following grandchildren: Mrs. E. B. Coy, B. F. Houston, of Wilmington, Del.; B. Chambers Wickes, Lucy H. Wickes, Clare Wickes, Mrs. W. S. Holton, Frank and Douglas Beall, of Baltimore; Mrs. Clarence Caskie, of Philadelphia, and George Beall, Washington, D. C.

The canners are offering only 13 cents for tomatoes in most parts of the county. Gibbs Bros. in Broad Neck are trying to reach an agreement with the farmers and are offering more than 13 cents.
