TO THE PUBLIC

We, the undersigned, having disposed of our stock and discontinued the partnership of Moody & Lusby and retired from the clothing business, we take this opportunity to thank the public for their liberal support during our long career in this business.

We ask all indebted to said firm to kindly settle their accounts with the undersigned or either W. U. Lusby or W. E. Moody, on or before March 10, 1913.

Respectfully,

MOODY & LUSBY

CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND

Personal and Social

Mr. Charles S. Smith is able to be down stairs.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis E. Fitch, nee Miss Mary Ahern, are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a fine boy at their home in New York.

Mr. A. M. Culp made a business trip last week to Virginia where he met the brothers of the late Prof. T. H. Topping. He found them to be just the type of our beloved fellow citizen and showed him every courtesy possible. Mr. Culp bought a large cargo of lumber there.

Mr. Wm. T. Edwards, of Pomona, was reported to be in a very critical condition yesterday afternoon.

Master Clifton Tucker Slaughter gave a party in honor of his fourth birthday last Saturday afternoon at the home of his mother, on High street.

Master David McMenamin gave a birthday and valentine party last Friday afternoon at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David B. McMenamin, in honor of his tenth birthday.

Mrs. James Brice, who has been ill with typhoid fever, is convalescent.

Miss Josephine Hicks left for Dillon, S. C., last Wednesday to resume her position in a large millinery establishment.

Mrs. Mollie Farringer, who has been quite sick for the past two weeks is greatly improved.

Prof. Arthur Greenwood, of Galena, and Prof. Leon Jones, of Piney Neck, spent Saturday and Sunday in town with friends.

Mr. Philip Wilmer, who has been sick in Baltimore with rheumatism, is convalescent. His uncle, Mr. P. G. Wilmer, visited him last week.

Mrs. T. D. Bowers entertained the Embroidery Club at her hospitable home on Washington avenue Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Marghurita Howard, of Chestertown, left for Clifton Forge, Va., this week, where she is employed as an expert milliner.

Miss Gertude Newman ,of Massey, is the guest of her Aunt Mrs. Samuel Cranor near Chestertowu.

Mrs. Mary Buchanan, of Centreville, and Mrs. Samuel Cranor, of near Chestertown, left last Wednesday for Kinsale Va., to visit Mrs. Buchanan daughter, Mrs. John Crossley, Jr.

Miss Emma Buchanan, of Centreville, is the guest at the home of Mrs. Samuel Cranor, near Chestertown.

Prof. Leon H. Jones, principal of Piney Neck High school, was raised to the sublime degree of a Master Mason on Wednesday evening last by the Chestertown Lodge of Masons.

Mr. Thos. Jones is baggage-master on the Kent railroad. Mr. Jones married Miss Mamie Layman, formerly of Chestertown, and her friends will be glad to welcome her return.

Miss Hope Sappington visited her sister in Wilmington last week.

Mrs. Fred Russell, who was injured two weeks ago by being thrown ont of a buggy while driving on the State road, was taken to Mercy hospital, Baltimore, last week for treatment. An examination under X Ray disclosed a fracture of her hip bone, necessitating the limb being put into a plaster cast. She was brought home on Saturday. After six or eight weeks the cast will be removed.

Mr. Harry R Graham attended a banquet at Easton one day last week, given by the Shanahan Company to "Buick" agents and dealers.

Miss Avis Shepard has been visiting a Chicago friend in Philadelphia during the week,

News from Mr. and Mrs. William J. Hudson states that they have both been sick and that a number of their friends have been laid up with grip because of the open winter. Mr. Hudson has been engaged to move on a 500-acre farm owned by a bachelor, and which is considered by his friends to be a "snap." The farm is in Illinois, near Plano.

Miss Fannie E. Stuart is conducting a night school at her home for the benefit of the boys about town who are employed during the day and are unable to attend public school. Miss Stuart is giving her services absolutely without charge. This is surely a highly commendable philanthropy.

Mr. Wm. Hendrix returned from the hospital last week after a long treatment of his hip. He is still confined to his bed at his home near town.

Master Jack McIlhenny, of Baltimore, is visiting his uncle, Mrs. Jas. W. Lambert. Jack has just completed his studies at the Baker School at Buckeystown, and will learn the jewelry trade with Mr. Lemmert in Florida.

Mr. Adkins, of Salisbury, was a visitor in town over Sunday.

Mr. Allie Hudson attended the funeral of his cousin, Mr. Harry Usilton, in Philadelphia on Thursday. Harry had been sick sometime. He was a son of Lieut. Edw. L. Usilton.

Mise Myrtle E. Taylor, of Skinner's Neck, is visiting Mrs. Chas Smith, of Tolchesterr

Mr. A. S. Crawford is housed with la grippe.

Mrs. Walter C. Skinner, a former resident of Broad Neck, carried her youngest child to the Mercy Hospital, Baltimore, one week ago Friday for treatment.

Mrs. W. Mason Shehan gave a beautiful auction bridge party at her home on South Harrison street Friday afternoon from 3 till 6, the honor guest having been Miss Louise Crane, of Chestertown, who has been a house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Shehan during Four tables were in play. Enchantress carnations were the flowers used in the decorations.—Easton Gazette.

Mr. Thomas Jefferson, now in his 95th year, Smyrna's oldest citizen, is ever a source of wonder to his friends. Hearty and hale he comes up town every day and moves about and takes as much interest in things as men several years his junior. One of his friends is looking at a chart giving pictures and data of all our presidents from Washington to Wilson, pointed out that Mr. Jefferson had lived within the lifetime of all presidents of the United States except George Washington and the adminsitration of all the presidents except four. Since Mr. Jefferson's birth the country has been revolutonized and the blessings we now enjoy were never dreamed of then. Mr. Jefferson has many well wishes who hope to see him celebrate his centennial anniversary.—Smyrna Times.

LOCAL NOTES

Two lambs were shipped to Baltimore Monday, Feb. 17th, from Chestertown Local buyers are paying $5 for early lambs. This shipment weighed about 30 pounds each. It is reported that some big hotels pay about 90 cents per pound for inauguration lambs!

The Capt. Wm. Crouch place, on Lankford Bay, has been purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hudson. Mr. Pierson Jewell will occupy the property this year.

Dr E. H. Clark cut his throat with a razor at his home 2035 E. Stella street, Philadelphia, last Saturday and died. He was known as "Doctor" Clark and claimed to manufacture a variety of medicines. He was a frequent visitor at the Pippin House, Chestertown, where he and his wife were well and favorably known.

W. S. Collins has purchased of J. W. Russell and Walter Needles lots on Calvert street on which he will erect six or eight double dwellings.

In another column will be noted the sale of the clothing business heretofore conducted by Moody & Lusby to Brown Bros., of Cape Charles City. For twenty years Wm. E. Moody and Walter U. Lusby have served the public faithfully and with unrivaled reputation. We are sorry to see them retire. They are too young to quit business and we hope to see them embark in other and more congenial lines.

The bible class taught by Dr. L. E. Barrett will hold a "bake" in the Eliason building on High street this Saturday afternoon beginning about three o'clock.

One of the busiest places near Chesterthown is at Schauber's Dairy farm, He has from 15 to 20 men employed and they are at work at various occupations. Several are cutting off a big branch, some are sawing cord wood and delivering it about town, others are making corn harvesters while others are constructing sheds, milking cows, etc., etc. The Schaubers are a busy family.

The classes taught by Mrs. S. R. Matthews and Miss Mamie Thompson will give an entertainment in Firemen's Hall, Chestertown, early in March. Particulars later.

The first tailoring opening of the season will be at Vansant & Newsome's Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week. See adv.

The tomato growers in Worton Point held a meeting with Numsen's agent Thursday but failed to reach an agreement on price. The canners only offered 13 cents per basket.

The Town Improvement Association are preparing to hold a society vaudeville during Easter week at which the public will receive rare entertainment. Particulars later.

The Rich Neck Farmers Club of Queen Annes met on Thursday last at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Owen C. Smith, near Chestertown. A very pleasant day was spent about fifty being present and a splendid dinner was served.

The Kent County Branch of the Just Government League of Maryland met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Herbert Perkins. The meeting was quite an enthusiastic one and a number of important questions relating to local conditions were discussed. The next meeting will be held March 3rd at the home of Miss M. L. Urie, East Front street. All interested in the question of Just Government are cordially invited to attend.

The Tenth Grade of the local High School will give a play entitled "Merchant of Venice Up to Date," in the school auditorium, on Friday evening, March 14, 1913. To fully appreciate the play, all should read Shakespeare's "Merchant of Venice."

The Washington College basket ball team, under the leadership of Captain Paul Wilkinson, won a very interesting game last Friday night in the new gymnasium from Johns Hopkins, by the score of 37 to 21.

Four colored men were arrested at Cherry Hill, near Locust Grove, Thursday, charged with selling liquor. They are held for Grand Jury.

STILL POND ITEMS.

Miss Mabel Norris has returned home after a pleasant day in Baltimore.

We are glad to say Miss Jennie Bowers was able to return to her school at Savage, Howard county, after a couple of weeks rest home.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ford visited Mr. and Mrs. John Boulden, Queen Annes, a few days.

Miss Grace Hurlock and children, of Bridgeville, is spending the week with her mother, Mrs. Jane Howard.

Mrs. Elizabeth Bowers and daughters, Misses Jennie and Anna, entertained a few friends very pleasantly last Friday night after church.

Mr. Baynard Harper, of Newark, spent the week end with his motner, Mrs. Lavinia Harper.

Revival meetings are still going on in our church and we have had some conversions. Railroad John Clark is alright and can tell you something if you will come out and listen to him. Don't miss these services.

The fireman on the eastern railroads won a victory Tuesday in their dispute with the railroad managers, when the latter agreed to arbitration under the Erdman Act, which provides for a tribunal of three men to hear aud if possible adjust differences between employers and employees. Questions of such great moment to the public should always be submitted to arbitration, and we hope this one may be settled satisfactorily to all parties concerned.
