THE Senatorial Primary takes place on election day in November! The local primaries will be about the first week in September or last of August.

AN effort is on foot looking to better postoffice accommodations. It is certainly needed. Stam's Hall building could be utilized to good advantage for this purpose.

A DELEGATION of progressive citizens from Still Pond and vicinity were before the county commissioners Tuesday asking the county to do their part toward building a State road to Still Pond Station. The citizens have raised their proportion of the money and now ask the commissioners to co-operate in this worthy undertaking.

WE have no commendation for the "hikers" who have been advertising the cause of woman suffrage, but this proposition of giving the people a right to vote on the subject is sure to carry and that soon. We trust however that our suffragettes will not forget that it is more important to be a lady than to vote, and it is not necessary that one act unladylike in order to accomplish this end.

ISAAC Loeb Straus when approached in reference to his withdrawal from the Senatorial race said. The only statement he would make, was the following, which he wrote himself, in order, he said, that there might be no mistake.

"If anyone retires, it will not be I."

This would seem to mean that Mr. Straus, intends to stick in the fight to the finish. His friends maintain that he has gone too far and received too much strength to retire and that he will not do so. They are urging him to continue his fight before the people as the only real and genuine progressive candidate and to turn his guns upon Marbury as well as Smith.

Candidate for Commissioner.

The friends of Capt E. M. Taylor, of Worton District, have presented to the Democrats of Kent his name as County commissioner against Mr. T. B. Crew, present incumbent. Capt. Taylor is a farmer strictly honest, of upright character and steady habits. It is a pleasure to support his candidacy and a credit to the party to nominate him. He is known by his intimate friends as "Capt Bun."

CANDIDATE FOR TREASURER.

The many friends of JOHN P. AHERN, of the First district have gotten his consent to be a candidate for Treasurer. He is an ideal candidate--competent, worthy and aggressive. Mr. Ahern has never been before the people as a candidate but has fought many battles for the Democratic party and always wins He solicits the votes of all Democrats. The NEWS bespeaks for him a successful fight and promises to aid him as far as possible. He wears no man's collar and will make the contest on behalf of freedom and against the policy of villification and untruth.

POLITICAL NOTES.

The Straus meeting in the Firemen's Hall Tuesday afternoon was well attended by persons from all factions, but their attendance by no means signified their intention of voting with Mr. Straus. Hon. Wm. M. Slay presided with dignity and made a few opening remarks but was non-commital as to his support of any candidate. The Chestertown Band furnished fine music under Mr. Arthur Bacon's leadership.

Wm. L. Marbury, of Baltimore has announced his candidacy for the long term Senatorship against John Walter Smith and Isaac Loeb Straus, claiming to have the support of President Wilson and his administration. His claim to preferment at the hands of Democrats has not yet been presented.

The NEWS is glad to welcome the Barroll organ into the Lee ranks. Its sponsor, Mr. Barroll, has declared for him so the public may look today for his organ to grind out the Lee tune.

The KENT NEWS again would recommend to all Democrats this sterling man, Hon. Blair Lee, of Western Shore for short term, and Hon. John Walter Smith, of the Eastern Shore for the long term. They are worthy.

Next Tuesday Hon. Woodrow Wilson will be inaugurated President of the United States. The ceremonies as planned will not be so elaborate as in the past, but will be in keeping with the dignity and glory of our great country. Democrats have great faith in Mr. Wilson. May his administration be a wise one, an honor to himself, his party and his country.

William Jennings Bryan, that Peerless leader, will be Secretary of State, and guide Democratic Ship over the shoals. Josephus Daniels, another good Democrat, will be Secretary of the Navy. He is worthy of this honor.

MARYLAND'S REPRESENTATIVES

Mr. Wm. L. Marbury, in announcing his candidacy for the United States Senatorship now held by Hon. John Walter Smith, bases his claim on this—that he has been asked to become a candidate by Hon. Woodrow Wilson. There are so many logical reasons why Mr. Marbury should NOT be the Democratic candidate that we ask the readers of the NEWS to weigh his qualifications before deciding to support him.

He may be, and doubtless is, a refined, intelligent and well-to-do citizen, but judging from his past record he is not a fit man to represent the DEMOCRATIC PARTY in Washington.

In the first place, he is not a Democrat. How do we know it? The Baltimore Evening News, one of the rankest independent Republican papers in the country, who loves Mr. Marbury because of his past support, calls him an "OCCASIONAL DEMOCRAT!" while it classes John Walter Smith as a Regular Democrat. Is not this enough to cause all Democrats not to vote for Marbury, a man who votes the party's candidates when it suits and against them when they do not suit. How long would the grand old party last with such a man at its head?

A Democrat in the Baltimore Sun of Thursday says: "I never knew of Mr. Marbury as a Democrat or progressive until he got into the counsels of Governor Crothers to get offices for his law partners, relatives and friends.

"He unloaded Carroll Bond on the bench, put his kinsman, Mr. Benjamin Fendall, on the Public Utilities Commission, which Marbury tried to defeat in the Legislature, and got Gov. Crothers to give appointments to others of his (Marbury's) friends. Aside from these things, where are the progressive laws he brought out? I don't know of any.

"True, he is a fanatic on the negro question, but even on this he stood with Bonaparte and the Republicans against the Poe amendment, although he favored the Straus amendment later.

"For over a quarter of a century of his political life Mr. Marbury has been a leading supporter and backer of the Republican party in Maryland. He has done nothing I know of for the Democratic party, unless getting himself and his friends in office is a party service.

"No fight can be made against Mr. John Walter Smith if Marbury is the progressive (?) candidate.

As to Mr. Wilson's right to say who Maryland voters shall support will be dealt with later. However, it is well to quote from Senator Smith's announcement made some weeks ago before Mr. Marbury thought of being a candidate which is as follows:

"I am in complete accord with President-elect Wilson in the progressive policies he has enunciated both before and since his election and, as I have before stated, whether I am re-elected or not I propose to do all in my power to uphold the hands of the President and aid him in carrying out his policies and in the redemption of the party platform pledges, no matter what the outcome of this fight. I will be in the Senate until March 4, 1915, to do this.

"I shall do all that I can to make the incoming administration a success, to the end that the people of the country may entrust the Democratic party with the control of affairs for many years. In pursuance of that idea I shall use my best efforts, personal and official, to see that the Federal appointments in Maryland are filled by competent men who are in harmony with the administration under which they serve.

"I have no quarrel with any person or faction in the Democratic party in Maryland. I harbor no grudge; seek no vengeance. I want harmony and will use my efforts to keep our party united. I propose to conduct my canvass in such a way as to cause as little bitterness as possible, seeking first the welfare and success of our local and State candidates."

FAIRLEE NOTES.

Mr. Archie Ramage is still in the Hospital. We hear he is improving slowly.

The young ladies of the Fairlee Embroidery Club tendered a member, Mrs. Howard C. Jones, a very pleasant surprise last Saturday evening. About 35 were present. All enjoyed themselves to the full extent and an elegant collation was served.

We understand there is a club of ten Fairleeites and surbanites, who will combine and purchase that number of automobiles in the early spring, one for each, and all of the same make, hoping by this method to get them a little cheaper. It might be well for dealers to let our mayor, Mr. Keyser, hear about the merits of their machines.

Miss Edith Bordley, daughter of Mr. Wm. H. Bordley, of a department of the Baltimore postoffice, visited Miss Cattie L. Kendall the first of this week, and the week's end with the Misses Smith, in Chestertown.

The sudden death of "Bob" Hodges, an industrious colored man of Sandy Bottom, is reported. He did a good deal of hauling.

Mr. T. B. Kilbourn, of the firm of Kilbourn & Bramble, has been in the city this week purchasing spring goods.

Mr. George Faulkner, the "handy man," with Kilbourn & Bramble, has been on the sick list during the week with La Grippe.

The Mutual Fire Insurance Company is insuring a lot of property in the Sixth district. One of our people carried a policy in this "Old Home Company" for 20 years. He sold the property about Christmas, settled with the company and got back about one-half he had paid. Cheap insurance!

A stranger was in Fairlee one day this week, remained during the day in different public places, no one knows from whence he came or whither he went. His presence occasioned many conjectures.

The presence of every member of the Ladies Aid Society is desired at the next monthly meeting of the Aid to be held at the home of Mrs. J. B. Crowding Wednesday, March 5th. Business meeting will begin promptly at 4 o'clock and at 5 30 p. m. supper will be served to the members of the Aid and their families for the small sum of 15 cents per plate. Don't forget your baskets. Come out and have a good social time together and bring new members for the Aid.

TO THE CITIZENS OF KENT COUNTY IRRESPECTIVE OF POLITICS AND FACTIONS.

There has been considerable controversy in the county papers lately in regards to the defeat of the bill (named by Mr. Thomas D. Bowers, the Junior Editor of the Transcript, the "Vickers Bill") which bill had for its object the prevention of the soliciting of orders for whiskey and thereby making it easier to convict any one violating the Local Option Law in this county. The Editor of any newspaper should wield a large power in his community and therefore should be held to a strict accountability for any statement eminating from him

Here are the two statements made by Mr. Bowers in regards to this important bill. On January 24th, 1913, after Mr. Bowers published the Vickers Bill, he made this comment: "That is the bill that Mr. Vickers drew up at the suggestion of the Court. We desire to call the attention of the people especially our temperance friends, who have been grossly deceived in the matter by the Beck faction, that there is not one provision in the above bill making it less difficult to secure evidence against violators of the local option law. It is simply a bill to prohibit the soliciting of orders by purchasing agents, etc, nothing more, nothing less.

"Under the provisions of that bill any man in Kent county may write for and secure a barrel of whiskey if he wishes it, and no one can prevent. In our next article we propose to show why this bill failed of passage in the house."

Then on February 1st, 1913, just one week later Mr. Bowers used this language in reference to the same bill, "why, then, should Charlie Miller want to defeat a bill that was for the moral and social welfare of his constituents?"

The above statements are taken from Mr. Bowers' paper, word for word, and if any one doubts the correctness of them, he can verify it by examining the copies of the papers of the above dates, which can be seen either in the offices of the Transcript, KENT NEWS or my own.

It must be remembered that this bill was recommended by the Court and the citizens of this county and are entitled to know whether Mr. Bowers favored or opposed this bill. There are two ends to a poker, Mr. Bowers, both of which are red hot for you.

On one end of the poker you say "That there is not one provision in the bill making it less difficult to secure evidence against violators of the local option law and it is simply a bill to prohibit the solicitors of orders by purchasing agents. etc., nothing more, nothing less." And on the other end you state "why then should Mr. Miller want to defeat a bill that was for the moral and social welfare of his constituents."

Now which do you mean?

The public will not be satisfied by you evading this matter and making a personal attack in your paper on me or my friends. It wants you to explain whether you were or were not in favor of this legislation, and if you were in favor of it why did you speak disparagingly of the bill in your paper of January 24th, last; and if you were not in favor of the bill why did you say in your issue of February 1st, "why then should Mr. Miller want to defeat a bill that was for the moral and social welfare of his constituents."

Respectfully,

WILLIAM W. BECK.

AS A WOMAN SEES IT

Suggested by Sermon of Rev. G. A. Morris, "What Is In Thine Hand?"

FEBRUARY 22, 1913.

To-day the nation pauses to study the life of him who was "first in war, first in peace and first in the hearts of his countrymen." Every school boy is taught to regard him as the embodiment of that passion inspiring one to serve one's country—the type of true patriotism. Following this train of thought, the question arises, are patriotism and politics one and the same? Consulting Webster, I learn that politics is "the science and art of government; also, formerly, the branch of ethics dealing with the ethical relations and duties of states or social organizations; in a bad sense, artful or dishonest management to secure the success of political candidates or parties." Ethics is defined as "the science of moral duty; the chief problems with which ethics deals concern the nature of the highest good." Surely Washington dealt only in the former kind of politics, where ethical principles dominated his words and deeds. How different the politics of to-day that justifies itself in assailing the character and veracity of men in positions of high honor, even that of a chief magistrate of our country. Real issues are swallowed up and lost in personal attacks and vain attempts to disprove the statements of others. Such a course cannot fail to have a demoralizing influence in any community, to say nothing of the shadows left in many homes. Except in legal investigations for protection or punishment is such procedure wise or justifiable.

Even on this anniversary day our local press does not pause in its unholy war of words that savors little of coming victory or glory. It is with sincere regret at the result, I recall an effort of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, made some years ago, to have such a bill introduced in the Legislature as is now the cause of bitter contention. Had women been a part of his constituency and regarded worthy of notice by the delegate to whom the suggestion was made, possibly Kent as well as Queen Anne's county would now be reaping the benefits of such a law instead of being found in the distressing situation of having so many claimants for the honor of the origin of the bill, efforts for its success or for its defeat. No party politics can be attributed to this act of women that failed to accomplish its purpose.

Let us hear from women on the subject of ethical politics versus corrupt politics of the present day.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—

We stated in the NEWS some weeks ago that if Mr. Bowers would stick to the issue and the truth we would soon convince him of certain facts. Even some of his friends now say that he will not do either. Therefore, when such a man tries to evade the issue by villifying and slander, we refuse to stoop to his level. A well-known writer says: "He who tries to appear white by making the other one black becomes so besmeared that he is a disgrace to society."

KENNEDYVILLE NOTES.

Mr. Hartley Weer, of Sparrows Point, Baltimore, is fast recovering from his late attack of pneumonia. He accompanied his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Weer, home on Sunday afternoon last in Kennedyville and is able to take exercise in the open air to the joy and gladness of his numerous friends.

Mr. Frank A. Roeder, of Likes, Berwanger Co., of Baltimore, and wife, were guests of the latter's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Atwell, from Sunday until Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Weer had the pleasure of a visit from Mr. L. J. Hayes, of Dover, Del., and Mrs. E. A. Jones, of Warwick, this week.

Miss Lulu Covington is spending a few days with Miss Lulu VanDyke.

Mrs. Acca Crew and Miss Mary Fulton, the former's company, spent Saturday evening and night with Mrs. Crew's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas VanDyke, and took dinner with the sister, Miss Lula VanDyke on Sunday.

The splendid entertainment under the auspices of the Ladies Aid Society of the M. P. Church of our village, Mrs. Dr. Urie, Mrs. Jos. Weer and other efficient trainers are in the lead is attracting marked attention in the community. It goes without saying, that this popular play to continue in Weer's Hall for an hour and ahalf or over, with fine quartette of music, male voices, will be one of the most humorous and entertaining ever held in said hall. All home talent and of the best. The date will be given next issue and the church announcement next Sunday.

A large number attended the grange meeting on Monday night when a large amount of business was dispatched, followed by a most entertaining program under the direction of the popular and efficient Worthy Lecturer, Mr. W. M. Clendaniel, Jr. Among the rest was a captivating oration on the life and services to his country of George Washington. Mr. Landing displayed wonderful oratorical talent.

Mrs. W. M. Clendaniel accompanied her husband to Baltimore on Monday afternoon. Mr. Clendaniel is still under treatment at the North Mount Street Hospital.
