We Don't Order These Clothes From a Book

WHEN we make a selection of the famous Adler-Rochester Clothes we don't order them from a book of pictures or some samples of cloth and guess how they will look.

We see every model on a live man.

We see just how the general effect of the materials will look.

We see just how every model fits.

We see just how the cut and the style of every model looks.

We see these superb clothes right on a live man, and that's the only way to buy clothes.

That's the only way for you to buy clothes, too.

That's the way we want to show you our selection of

Adler-Rochester Clothes

We want to show you the style, fit, material and workmanship right on you.

We don't select them by "guess work," and we don't want you to select a suit by "guess work."

Come in and see yourself in these snappy new models. See that you are stylishly fitted—see that the material is becoming before you commit yourself.

Isn't that a lot more sensible than committing yourself in advance and taking chances on the fit and appearance of a suit?

And our prices for these famous Adler-Rochester models are exceptionally moderate.

Also, a COMPLETE LINE OF BOYS' SUITS now on display.

LOCAL NOTES

PEACH trees are in bloom and there is a prospect for plenty of peaches.

THIEVES have been stealing money in milk bottle in town the past week.

TRAVELERS in Queen Anne's Tuesday stated that it was hard to see any house for the sand and that it was even dusty on the river.

THE Town Commissioners have begun the laying of a sewer on Cannon street, a much needed improvement. The present board are making a record for permanent improvement.

AMONG the jurors chosen in Queen Anne's for May Court are: Second District—James E. Meredith, J. Carroll Seney, J. Ellis Porter, John H. Newnam, D. T. Hurlock, H. P. Skipper. Second District—Lambert D. Bowers, H. H. Klinefelter, Jas. R. Jefferson, Robert S. Orem, Jere Godwin, Bud S. Potts.

THE Social and Dramatic Club of St. Luke's Parish, Church Hill, Md., will present that delightful comedy entitled "The Teaser," at Guest's Opera House, Church Hill, on Friday and Saturday evenings, April 4th and 5th, at 8 o'clock, for the benefit of the Reading Room. Admission reasonable.

CHARGED with malicious destruction of a power boat belonging to William Ewing of Galena, Samuel Wilson and his three sons have been arrested and held for the action of the Circuit Court.

THE green houses of Mr. Rumsey Anthony, near Chestertown, could not supply the demand for flowers Saturday. He sold hundreds of carnations and ordered 500 from the city and still his supply was soon exhausted. He promises to be ready another season, this being his first year.

THE store window of T. S. Bordley & Sons was beautifully decorated Saturday with lillies made by Mrs. Brickman, a a guest of Mrs. Geo. B. McWhorter. They were certainly a work of art.

SACHS & SON advertise their opening in another column. They have rented the store-room next door to Toulson's and have a large new stock of goods.

IN another column J. M. Newcomb & Bro., Locust Grove, advertises Rhode Island Red eggs. These young men have eleven hens received February 26th which have only missed laying three days. They have gathered 120 eggs from these 11 hens during this short period. These fowls are known as the heaviest laying strain.

THE Chestertown Orchestra have rented a room in Fraternal Hall and are getting in fine shape to render good music. They meet for their own enjoyment but their music is relished by all who hear them. The members comprise Foster Cannan, Eben F. Perkins, Warren Hurlock, Kemp Bordley, Hynson Rogers, Donald Stam, Joseph N. Wheatley, Arthur Bacon, Hyland Crew, C. Woodland and others. Keep it up, gentlemen.

THE firm of Carter & Iseman, Baltimore is now represented in Kent by Mr. J. Harry Vickers, a former well-known resident of this county. Mr. Vickers is prepared to buy and pay cash for produce or sell on consignment. His firm is one of the progressive houses of Baltimore. See card elsewhere.

THE wedding of Mr. Grover Coleman and Miss Ruth A. Maul, both of near Melitota, was solemnized at Christ M. P. parsonage Wednesday afternoon, Dr. W. R. Graham, officiating.

THE supper given Thursday night under the auspices of the Ladies Town Improvement was a great success under the management of Mrs. P. A. M. Brooks. Vaudeville and play were the features for last night and tonight. The fancy table under Mrs. Wm. F. Russell, chairman, had lots of pretty things and contributions from many. Among the latter was a handkerchief from Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, of Washington.

THE Candy Kitchen on Sparks' corner has been enlarged and a gasoline engine installed by Mr. Kent Lambert with which to make ice cream. Abe Robinson has also installed an engine from Orem & Carson for power to make ice cream.

IF you want pies call at the Eliason store room next Saturday, April 5th, and the Kings' Daughters will serve you.

DON'T forget the play tonight in Firemen's Hall; Miss Carolene Hynson, will be the Star. Admission 35 cents.

Sweet Potatoes Selling High.—Col. S. A. Wallen, of Queen Anne's, was selling sweet potatoes this week to Wilmington parties at 66 cents a basket clear of all expense. Our reference to him last week was not exactly correct for his crop this year, as it was a very light one as it should have been $1400 on 7 acres and not $400 per acre, but he has gotten as high as $600 per acre one year.
