"How's The Market Today?"

Nowadays, the farmer must not only know how to raise good crops, but he must sell them right.

By keeping in touch with the market and selling when the price is right, the farmer is able to clean up a handsome profit.

The Bell Telephone enables him to keep posted on the market, protects him from loss, and saves his time, energy, and the cost of travel.

Have you a Bell Telephone?

Mrs. Youngwife—"Charley's covered the table-cloth with fruit and coffee stains; it's my very best cloth, and because I spoke of it at breakfast, he slammed the door and he—he—he didn't kiss me goodby."

Anty Drudge—"Never mind, dearie, don't cry. Get a cake of Fels-Naptha Soap. It'll take every stain away with a little cool or lukewarm water."

The right way to clean clothes is to wash them with Fels-Naptha Soap in cool or lukewarm water. No boiling or hard rubbing to weaken the fabric. Fels-Naptha won't harm the most delicate fabrics.

Just wet the clothes, soap with Fels-Naptha, roll and soak for a few minutes in cool or lukewarm water. Rub lightly, rinse and hang on the line. Easy, isn't it? And the clothes will be clean, too.

Children Cry
FOR FLETCHER'S
CASTORIA

THE DEAREST BABY

Mrs. Wilkes' Fondest Hopes Realized—Health, Happiness and Baby.

Plattsburg, Miss.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has proved very beneficial to me, for now I am well and have a sweet, healthy baby, and our home is happy.

"I was an invalid from nervous prostration, indigestion and female troubles.

"I think I suffered every pain a woman could before I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I think it saved this baby's life, as I lost my first one.

"My health has been very good ever since, and I praise your medicine to all my friends."—Mrs. VERNA WILKES, R. F. D. No. 1, Plattsburg, Miss.

The darkest days of husband and wife are when they come to look forward to a childless and lonely old age.

Many a wife has found herself incapable of motherhood owing to some derangement of the feminine system, often curable by the proper remedies.

In many homes once childless there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

KENNEDYVILLE NOTES.

The sick people of our village are better Master Bruce Dukes is up and has been walking out of doors.

Quite a number of carloads of cinders have been coming to Kennedyville for grading the Pennsylvania R R, and for dumping against the concrete butments of the bridge recently built for said road just a little East of our village.

Mr. Tilghman Shafer is making great improvements to his premises and dwelling house for water supply, bath room, etc.

Many persons are speaking of the splendid growth of wheat and grass since the late frequent showers of rain.

A very large number of the members of Kennedyville Grange attended the business session on Saturday afternoon, followed by Worthy Lecturer Clendaniel's good program. Miss Anna Melvin gave a most interesting, entertaining and humorous recitation, which was greatly enjoyed by all present. Following this was a spelling bee with Mrs. James Archibald and Mr. Thos. Bramble as captains. A gentleman visitor, who was present and took part in the "bee," said that spelling bees reminded him of bumble bees. Miss Melvin pronounced the words. Following the Lecturer's programme a basket feast of good things bountifully prepared and exceedingly palatable to the taste, was served on two long tables. The cuisine was superb. A free illustrated lecture is to be given in Weer's Hall next Tuesday evening by one versed in forestry.

Rev. and Mrs. F. H. Mullineaux spent part of last Friday in Chestertown, and were the guest for supper of Mr and Mrs. Chas. N. Satterfield Mr. Mullineaux left on Tuesday for Baltimore, to attend the Maryland Annual Conference of the M. P. Church, being held in the city of Lynchburg, Va., beginning Wednesday, April 2. Mr. Mullineaux will be in Kennedyville over two Sundays after the conference closes before going to his new charge, and will preach on Sunday morning, April 18th, and perhaps April 20th. During his absence Mrs. Mullineaux will visit her sister, Mrs. Hazelton A. Joyce, of Cambridge, Md. Mr. Mullineaux, in resigning the Kennedyville charge, leaves many warm friends after a three year's happy pastorate, and goes to the annual conference with a most splendid report, including every dollar paid in full for all purposes.

Four persons were received into full membership, in the Methodist Protestant Church on Sunday morning. The congregations of said church have greatly increased during the past year, and Treasurer Edgar R. Pennington reports a much larger sum at the close of the present year, through the plate offerings, than a year ago. All these things show growth in the church work and services.

BIG SHOW WIPED OUT.

More Than $1,000,000 In Wild Animals Lost By Hagenbeck-Wallace Circus At Peru.

Among the property destroyed in Peru, Ind., by the flood were winter quarters of a menagerie. This menagerie was the Hagenbeck-Wallace three ring circus, the third greatest show of its kind in the country, the value of the wild animals lost being estimated at $1,000,000

From the financial standpoint the Hagenbeck-Wallace loss is the greatest ever known in circus history Old showmen express the opinion that had the Barnum-Bailey outfit been destroyed it could not possibly have met such a loss, inasmuch as the Hagenbeck Wallace investment was centred in trained wild animals. Five hundred such animals, the value alone of which is placed at more than a million dollars, were lost.

"Ben" F. Wallace was proprietor of the exhibition. Less than 20 years ago he was struggling along with what is known to the circus world as a "wagon show," an outfit of such modest pretensions that it is carried from town to town on wagons alone.

He had built up the Wallace three-ring circus when, a few years ago, agents of Carl Hagenbeck, the famous German animal trainer and owner, sent a wild animal exhibition through this country under canvas The Hagenbeck exhibition is believed by many showmen to have been the most wonderful circus that ever toured the United States, but it lost money

Thereupon Wallace bought it out, combined it with his own three-ring and, using methods that out Barnumed Barnum, turned the combined outfit into a golden stream of coin.

Seventy-five cars were used for the transportation of the circus about the country

No city ever harbored such a number of circus men as Peru Wallace has so many interests there he is sometimes known as the "proprietor of Peru" He owns vast tracts of land, hotels, stores, power plants and has found jobs in each for circus men who were too advanced in years for their old game.
