JOHN D. URIE,

Mrs. Housewife—"I'd like to read more books, but I can't seem to find time. Monday I have to wash all day and—"

Anty Drudge—"Stop right there, my dear! If you will begin Monday morning by reading the directions on the back of a Fels-Naptha Soap wrapper, you'll have more time for other kinds of reading and feel more like it, too."

The Fels-Naptha way is the best and easiest way of washing. More than a million women use Fels-Naptha every washday.

If you haven't used Fels-Naptha Soap, try it for your everyday housework and for washing. To wash clothes: Soap, roll and soak for thirty minutes in cool or lukewarm water; no boiling or hot water. Then rub lightly, rinse and hang out to dry.

Full directions for all uses of Fels-Naptha on the Red and Green Wrapper.

NOTICE!

The Board of Shell Fish Commissioners desires to see as many as possible of the practical oystermen of the State take advantage of the leasing law. At the present time leases written or applications filed cover 27,000 acres of land open to lease. It will probably not be long till, in many localities, all the most desirable bottom open to lease will be taken. This notice is inserted in order that the practical oystermen may have every opportunity to secure good territory.

Full information can be secured by writing to the Board of Shell Fish Commissioners, National Marine Bank Building, Baltimore City, or, whenever a number of oystermen in one locality are interested, arrangements can be made for a visit to that locality by an officer of the Commission.

An Interesting Letter from Residents in St. Petersburg, Florida—Money in Roses—Rents High

In a private letter from Mrs. A. P. Matthews dated St. Petersburg, Florida, she states that the News arrives regularly every Monday morning and it is like a letter from home; it fills a large want.

"This has been a beautiful and delightful winter, only a few days when severe storms were in the North did we need wraps or a little fire in the fireplace; at other times the young people were bare headed, low-neck and short sleeves and white dresses. The city has been full of tourists and something going on all the time. Free entertainments, excursions, band concerts in the Park, one week of carnival with parades every day by the different states, the town dressed in bunting and flags, automobiles trimmed for prizes. After all that the G. A. R. State Encampment met here this week with 1,000 veterans and their wives and daughters, also the Woman's Relief Corps. Last Monday night a lecture on "Flags" by a Mrs. Ball of Washington, was given in the Auditorium, showing the history of every flag (and the flag) used since Christopher Columbus brought over the first. It was very interesting and Lillian had the honor of playing their music.

"Nearly all the tourists have gone or will be in a few days, and the town people will get back to their early closing of stores and half holidays on Thursday's. The Fishing is interesting now, mackerel and king fish being abundant. One of my neighbors got yesterday a small king fish 32 inches long. It's flesh, white and tender, was enjoyed by all of us. But, oh, would'nt I like to have one shad or a bunch of herring! I have sold $75 worth of roses off less than one dozen bushes and I did'nt try to do it either. As I look out over my yard it is a blaze of glory with roses, nasturtions, scarlet sage, geranium, sweet elysium, with large bushes of white and pink oleanders down each side. One lady told me this morning, "the prettiest flower yard in the south." We have also two strawberry beds near the gate, from which we have picked since the 15th of January. Every day people stand and look and look, and some beg the priviledge of picking just one, and offer to pay for it.

"Bathing has been enjoyed all winter. Sitting on our porch we can see lots of bathers even while we had a little fire, the water being warm. Were quite surprised last Tuesday by a visit from Murrel Dunbracco. He looks well, but like the rest of us, sun-burn d as brown as a berry.

"Johnney expects to start for home on the 14th. Papa is quite well and still whistling. Our roomers were much amused at his constant whistle and said he rivaled the mocking birds. They sing in the middle of the night if it is moonlight."

We welsome Rev. Fosnochs and his good wife and hope this may be a great Conference year in Asbury M. E. Church.
