To those who buy Real Estate, or desire to build, or need money on their property, we lend at the low rate of five per cent, interest payable semi-annually, or monthly.

Ask hundreds who have bought their homes through this Company as to the fairness and ease with which it was accomplished.

As a depository, this Company offers unusual advantages: 25 cents paid weekly earns approximately the sum of $100 at expiration of 6½ years. This exceeds any other form of saving which you could adopt. For this reason many of our best and most wide awake professional and business people take out stock in this Company. Regular Series commences January 1st and July 1st each year. Or stock can be subscribed at any intermediate time.

Baltimore's Best Store Refunds Your Money If You are not Satisfied

NOT a new idea with this store—we started to do this nearly sixteen years ago, when the store opened—and we have been doing it every business day ever since. That is one of the reasons why the Hochschild, Kohn & Co. Store is the most popular store in Baltimore.

Why should any merchant want a customer to keep unsatisfactory goods? Goodness knows, we don't. We want the active friendship and co-operation of every living soul with whom we do business. We want to feel that every dollar that comes in represents money given for value received—money paid by people who were satisfied with what they received in exchange for it.

That's the commonsense side of the "money-back" proposition.

And here's another:

The merchant who money-backs his goods is the man who is sure of them. He can't afford to buy doubtful merchandise.

When you come to Baltimore, we want an opportunity to supply you with the things that you can't find in your home-town stores. In the meantime, we'll be glad to serve you by mail.

What The Grange Is Doing For Our Farmers.

Residents of the Eastern Shore of Maryland claim that here was situated the garden of Eden. If it were not here, it well might have been, for nature has blessed this section with a rich soil, level fields, an abundance of wood and water and many beautiful rivers and inlets abounding in fish and oysters. Surely no better farming country is to be found anywhere, and yet 15 years ago the farmers were farming as their grandfathers did, except that their peach trees had died out and they were growing the same crops and following the same rotation year after year. Some of them were making a living, some were not, and the old homes, many of them, had passed into the hands of strangers, while the sons who should have been prosperous on them were seeking their living in various ways in the cities.

Thanks to the influence of the grange, the old order is changing. Under the auspices of the local granges, farmer's institutes are held yearly all over the Eastern Shore and the gospel of better farming is preached by men who have learned to do by doing. The local granges have taught the farmers to combine to obtain better prices, both in buying and selling; to secure legislation that will benefit the rural population, and they are beginning to have a dim perception of the power of co-operation.

It also gives our people a much needed social opportunity, consequently they are joining in increasing numbers as they are beginning to realize what the grange may mean to country people More farm papers are being taken and read and there is growing among our farmers a spirit of inquiry, a disposition to try new crops and new methods and an eager outlook toward the future that spells hopefulness and better times ahead for the coming generation. Our young men are showing a disposition to stay on the farm and the only question of keeping them there seems to be how they shall keep the farm.

The answer to that is; Cut the big farms into small ones. When that is done, the Eastern Shore will blossom as the rose and may well become a veritable Eden of fruitfulness. Our State Grange has worked out a plan that enables the members of each grange to offer whatever they have for sale to the members of all the other gaanges at a minimum cost to the seller that ought to prove of benefit to all the patrons in Maryland.

What has been done is only a beginning. The farmers on the Eastern Shore are not half awake either to the possibilities of their soil and climate or to the power of co-operation. When they are fully awake the Eastern Shore will feed a nation. Meanwhile it is a hopeful sign, and largely due to grange influence that an Eastern Shore farmer no longer takes a man out behind the barn when he wishes to ask him a question about something he does not understand.

GALENA ITEMS.

Misses Isabella and Carrie Wiest of Millington, spent Sunday with friends in town.

Miss Mary Steele, of Philadelphia, is spending some time at home with her parents.

Mrs. H. S. Dempsey and little daughter, Nellie, spent the week end with Mrs. Sarah Hodgkin, of Chestertown.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Redding and family of Cecil county spent Saturday with relatives in town.

Fish must be getting quite plentiful if we are to judge from the large number of fish wagons passing through town.

Miss Katie Ford is spending the week with relatives at Earleville.

Miss Annie Weer, of Kennedyville, spent the week end with her sister. Mrs. Wm. Fogwell.

A pleasant little birthday party was given last Thursday evening to Mrs. Jos. Dixon. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. Brice, Mr. and Mrs. Otho Fogwell, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Fogwell, Misses Abbie and Fannie Wood and Mr. Emory Camp.

Mr. Wm. C. Dempsey, of Wilmington, spent Saturday and Sunday at Galena.

Hanson, the five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Cochran, who has been quite ill with pneumonia, is reported better at this time.

Mr. Whiteford, of Whiteford, Md., is spending some time in town completing his plans for the coming season.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. N. Satterfield and Mrs. J. C. Davis spent Sunday here.

The report of our commissioners shows up finely with a good amount saved to the people.

Suffered Twenty-One Years—Finally Found Relief

Having suffered for twenty-one years with a pain in my side, I finally have found a relief of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. The physicions called it "Mother's Pain" and injections of morphine were my only relief for short periods of time. I became so sick that I had to undergo a surgical operation in New Orleans, which benefited me for two years. When the same pain came back one day I was so sick that I gave up hopes of living. A friend advised me to try your Swamp-Root and I at once commenced using it The first bottle did me so much good that I purchased two more bottles. I an now on my second bottle and am feeling like a new woman. I passed a gravel stone as large as a big red bean and several small ones. I have not had the least feeling of pain since taking your Swamp-Root and I feel it my duty to recommend this great medicine to all suffering humanity. Gratefully Yours.
