Closing Out

¶ We have decided that we will not have sufficient room to handle any other shoes in "The Men's Store" except the famous "Walk-Over" Shoes, and in order to make more space for our growing Ready-to Wear Clothing, we intend to utilize our shoe department—and we must get rid of all these shoes.

We, Therefore, Offer the Following Absolutely REGARDLESS OF COST

All Shoes other than the "Walk-Over" of this season and the "Endicott-Johnson" of this season. These two lines we will be obliged to carry the entire year round, but we will close out all others. Now is the time to buy shoes—and good shoes—very cheap. Some of our best grades and a great many of the "Walk-Over" and "Regal" Shoes will be included in this sale. See our big side window and you will realize what tremendous bargains they really are. It will pay you to see them.

¶ Pay a call early, so that you may get a good selection before the stock is broken in sizes and styles. Low shoes and high, button and lace, tan and black, and patent leather will all go REGARDLESS OF COST.

Ford Co. Not Sold.—After having been asked a number of times regarding the supposed sale of the Ford Motor Car Company to the Standard Oil Company, Mr. Partington, the local manager of the Gomery-Schwartz Company, dealers in Ford cars wrote to the Ford Company to learn the standing. The answer from Henry Ford was short and to the point and read: "The Standard Oil Company has not purchased the Ford Motor Company business. The Ford Motor Company does not sell to mail order houses and we will continue with the same business policy as has in the past been so successful."

LOCAL NOTES

The crabbers of Piney Neck sold over 200 dozen crabs one day last week at 8 cents per dozen.

M. P. Brooks has received a big shipment of spring wheat with which to make his famous Maryland Seal Flour.

The Auto Commissioner arrived in town Tuesday and picked up one of our young men for not having a license on his machine.

An exodus of colored people from Chestertown has taken place this week. There was about 30 men and women who went to Jersey resorts to work during the summer.

Autos by the dozen were to be seen in Chestertown Sunday. Chester river was admired by all visitors, who came from Caroline county and as far north as Massachusetts.

The Chestertown High School will hold its commencement Friday, June 18th; Piney Neck, Wednesday, June 11th, and Rock Hall June 13th. Other schools will close on the 13th.

The death of Charles Coppage has been reported from Chester, Pa. He was about 65 years of age and formerly lived on the Klinefelter farm, near Chester bridge. He leaves a wife and three children.

The State Roads Commission, by advertisement to be found elswhere in this issue, gives notice to owners and operators of traction engines, with cleats on wheels, not to run the same on the State roads.

After the heavy downpour of rain last Friday, Mrs Samuel Sparks found two small fish on her window sill in the second story of her home on High street. They looked like sardines. This is the first instance reported here of its raining fish!

The new bank at Clayton, Delaware, opened its doors Tuesday morning and had quite a rush of depositors. The banking house officers are: Abel Sevil, president; R. Y. Wallen, vice-president; E. Crawford Graham, cashier; John W. Houston, Jr., paying teller.

H. F. Jefferson & Bro. have bought the interest of Mr. James Bowers in the stock of goods in the store formerly owned by Jefferson & Bowers at Crumpton and will conduct the business under the firm name of J. R. Jefferson & Bros.

The game of baseball at Kennedyville on Saturday was marred by an accident to First Baseman Hague. In an effort to recover a wild throw and retire C. Usilton, of the Chestertown team, at first, the two collided, resulting in the fracture of Mr. Hague's arm. He will be incapacitated from work for several weeks, to the regret of himself and employer.

The Chestertown Public Library after June 3rd will be open on Tuesday from 10 to 12. The library this week purchased the Harvard Classics of 50 volumes and the Junior Classics of 10 volumes.

Mr. Robinson driving a Hupmobile made the run from Tolchester to Chestertown in 19½ minutes. Fairlee was reached in 8 minutes! He had one passenger, Mr. W. W. Hubbard, who says he hadn't time to look at his watch, even!

The Just Government League meeting in the Court House Tuesday evening was largely attended and about 15 new members enrolled. Dr L. E. Barrett presided and made a splendid address followed by Rev. J. G. Mythen, of the P. E. Church, New Mexico. Miss Trax, the field agent, made a short talk. She is certainly a winsome agent and makes many friends for her cause by her affable manner.

A series of 12 meetings closed at an enthusiastic meeting at Galena, Wednesday with the enrolling of 44 members. The total attendance at all the meetings has been 1354; total increase in membership 103; entire membership 206. Total collections $25.30. Entire cost of campaign $147.15.
