The telephone is first aid to home-makers in general. It gives the busy woman more time to devote to her family and friends.

It provides a means for absent members of the family to keep within the circle. It brings daily messages of love and sympathy to those who make the home what it is.

LIGHTNING Saturday night killed a mare and colt on Commissioner Fletcher Melvin's farm and a cow on Mr. King's Morgnec place.

AN effort is being made to institute a a Tribe, or local branch, of the Improved Order of Red Men, in Chestertown. Mr. John W. Walker, Great Sachem of Maryland, and Mr. Charles W. Townsend, Past Great Sachem, were in town recently canvassing the situation, and met with much encouragement. There are now three Tribes of Red Men in the county, all of which are in a flourishing condition, and it is believed that Chestertown, with its several secret orders, can easily supply the membership for another worthy society like that of the Red Men.

THE barn and carriage house on the Brown farm, near Chestertown, recently purchased by Mr. James B. Newnam, were destroyed by fire shortly before midnight on Sunday last. The origin of the fire is unknown. The loss is estimated at $750, with $500 insurance in companies represented by J. G. Beck.

GREAT preparations are being made for the Matinee Races at Radcliffe Park on the Fourth. The management is in communication with Mr. Powell Peacock, of Delaware, who has a string of fourteen fine horses, some of them of Grand Circuit calibre, and also with Mr. Enoch Johnson, of Dover, who always has several winners in his big string. Mr. Ford, of Marydel, has written that he will be here this week with his string and you'll see the greatest racing ever held on the Fourth.

COMMENCING June 20th, the Pennsylvania Railroad inaugurated a new daily fast freight service between Baltimore and Chestertown. A regular through merchandise car is now being run daily from President Street Station, Baltimore, and makes delivery at Chestertown the morning after shipment. Freight delivered for shipment at President Street Station up to 3.30 p.m. goes forward the same afternoon and is regularly delivered here next morning, without transfer or handling enroute. Similar deliveries are also made at Worton, Lynch, Still Pond, Kennedyville, Black and Lambson. The new service is a great benefit to merchants and others, as it gives them a regular daily delivery of Baltimore merchandise during the early business hours of the day and within a few hours after shipment.

Could not this train carry the milk from the cooling station, thus accommodating farmers and traveling public?

UNABLE TO GET DOCTOR.

Injured in a racer dip accident at Tolchester Beach Tuesday night, Mrs. Charles Hasslinger, 22 years old, 1501 North Patterson Park avenue lay for more than three hours before medical attention was received.

It was not until she was brought to Baltimore on the steamer Louise and removed in a private ambulance from the pier to St. Joseph's Hospital that anything could be done to relieve her.

The accident happened about 8 o'clock at night. Mrs. Hasslinger, her husband and one other person were riding on the dip when the car in which they were in started down a steep incline. The car it is said, jumped the track and then jumped back again. The jolt caused by "jumping" threw those in the car violently forward. It is thought that Mrs. Hasslinger's leg struck against either the side of the car or the guard rail. She was taken to Tolchester Hotel where she lay for an hour while physicians were vainly summoned.—The SUN.

Mr. Anderson checked his assailant into submission after the latter had struck him in the face with a dog whip. Ulman was later arrested and held under bail.
