The World's Messenger

Messages by mail are not only delayed in sending. The reply takes time. The telephone is instantaneous. Written messages pass through many hands. A telephone message is direct and personal.

For every ten messages sent by first-class mail, the telephone carries fifteen. In the United States, there are 65,000 post-offices. The Bell Telephone reaches 70,000 places.

The old way to send a message was by carrier. The modern way is by telephone. A message by telephone commands prompt attention. It gets an immediate answer.

Do you use the modern way?

LOCAL NOTES

The postoffice building, owned by Mr. Harry Thomas, has been given a coat of paint by the Needles Bros. The homes of P. G. Wilmer, P. A. M. Brooks, J. D. Bacchus and Mrs. Wm. B. Usilton have been repainted by Elwood Baker's force. Mrs. Mary R. Aldridge's home has been improved by a coat of paint by the skilled brush of Frank H. Howard. Other homes have been touched up and made to "shine" in new paint, &c.

One of the best bred colts in town is that owned by Robert McWhorter. His mother is Alecletia, 2.20, of Easton, now owned by Mr. McW., and sire Star Bingen, trial record 2.20, owned by Chestertown residents. This colt should make something fast.

The scarcity of tomato plants has cut the acreage of tomatoes in Kent. One farmer near town planted a half pound of seed, from which he set out three acres and sold $19 worth of plants. Another planted a pound of seed, from which he set out five acres and sold $69 worth of plants.

There are 693 telephone subscribers in Kent, over 500 being on the Chestertown board. Queen Anne's has only about 300. Kent is somewhat more progressive than her neighbor, eh, Charlie?

E. H. Beck, real estate broker, has sold the "Spotswood farm" of 309 acres, near Hare's Corner, belonging to the estate of Judge Spruance and others, to Walter Morris, cashier of the Farmers' Bank at Dover, for $15,000. Also the George G. Kerr farm, near Newark, containing 172 acres, to Samuel Murray, for $15,000.

That the strawberry crop has been profitable to some of the farmers in Sussex county, Del., is evidenced by the fact that former Coroner Geo. W. Hatfield has cleared nearly $300 from half an acre, while ex-Clerk of the Orphans' Court James H. McGlothen has realized about $375 from an acre. W. H. Truitt, of near St. John's, has sold about $800 worth of the fruit this season.

During the thunder storm which visited Queen Anne's county Monday night the barn on the farm of Mr. Royal Merrick, near Ingleside, was struck by lightning and it, together with the large cow stables adjoining, was burned to the ground. Only a few calves were in the barn at the time and they were gotten out without injury. The loss was partially covered by insurance.

This week's issue of the News comes out on Friday morning instead of Saturday, as Friday is the Fourth of July and the management desires to give the employes a holiday on that day.

The barn on the Northwest Point farm, owned by Walter T. Wright and tenanted by Mr. Lloyd Boyce, was struck by lightning during the storm of last Friday night and burned to the ground. Loss covered by insurance.

A number of farmers are complaining over dogs chasing young rabbits, and are asking what to do with the dogs, which certainly must kill scores of the little cotton tails each week. They were told to kill the first dog caught running rabbits on their lands hereafter.

By a decision of the United States Supreme Court, delivered on Monday last, the entire federal "civil rights" act passed in 1875, imposing criminal penalties for discrimination against negroes was declared void. The court held that as it was not applicable uniformly throughout the country it was entirely unconstitutional. The court's decision was unanimous. The decision was given in settlement of a suit which grew out of a separation of the races on board of steamers carrying interstate passengers.

A Rare Opportunity.—Land within one-half mile of Chestertown, in Queen Anne's county, has advaned in the last 4 years in price from 200% to 250%. The Kent County Land Co. will sell at public sale a dozen small farms on July 8 next, at 11 o'clock a. m., on the Faithful farm, 1½ miles from Chestertown, now tenanted by Lewis Porter, and on macadamized road.

Land in this vicinity has sold as high as $200 per acre. But this is going to be sold and is a chance to get a bargain. Two of the tracts are improved with buildings. The land is rich and very productive, being close to good markets, canneries, Chester river, good transportation facilities and very hospitable neighbors.

You should, if you desire to invest in a home or expect to need a home any time in the near future, attend this sale and get just the kind of land you want and the quantity you want. The sale will take place rain or shine. The terms will allow any man to buy. See the adv. in this week's issue.

Plum Point Summer Resort.—One of the prettiest located farms on the Chesapeake Bay is Plum Point, Mr. C. B. Hazazer's. Originally this farm belonged to the late Mr. George Diehl, and it was the childhood home of Mrs. W. G. Skirven and her brothers, R. S. and Adam Diehl. It is between Worton and Churn Creeks and has quite a shore line. The location and surrounding attract city people from Baltimore and Philadelphia. Mr. Hazazer has not been able to entertain all the applicants for summer board and entertainment. This season he is fully prepared. He has just had completed an up-to-date commodious hotel in connection with his dwelling, Mr. Azariah M. Kendall, contractor and builder. The building including dwelling contains about sixty rooms, besides the many halls, baths, etc. It is four stories high and has spacious porches the full length of building. The dining hall alone is 24x48 ft., and is spaciously arranged. He has two motor boats, meeting guests at Worton Manor, Tolchester, Harris' and Betterton, and in automobiles by land. He has small boats and bath houses and 1000 fruit trees of different kinds, and is ready for the July opening.
