LOCAL NOTES

THE water front at Chestertown, between High and Maple avenue, will be dredged out so as to get rid of crab grass and filth and make a better anchorage for yachts. It will also make a healthier locality, no doubt. The residents are to be congratulated for their enterprise and liberality.

THE Barkman farm, in Morgnec, has been sold by Mr. Wm. S. Collins to Mr. A. J. Bolin, of near Queenstown, for $7,000.

NEW autos have been bought recently by Mr. T. Benj. Durding, of Rock Hall, and Mr. Julian Brown, Chestertown.

THE applicant for two rooms at a Chestertown hotel got the better of the clerk when he accepted the same and brought seven children, besides himself and wife!

THE Chestertown Strawboard Mill has added two new straw balers, run by gasoline engines, to their equipment. These will be located at points where the wagons cannot get and the straw shipped here by train or boat. Superintendent Quantz is a hustler and is determined to keep this mill running, if possible.

THE lightning played some queer pranks in Quaker Neck last Friday night. The home of Mr. Geo. M. Hadaway was struck and the plaster knocked off the ceiling over a bed in which he was sleeping. Mr. Hadaway quickly arose and expected to see his house on fire, but the shock was the only result. At Johnsontown the home of Morris Brown, colored, was struck. A big hole was made in the roof by a bolt of lightning and the bed post split into two pieces. The occupants thought their end had come, but escaped without serious injury.

BLACKWAY & WADDELL have purchased a 40 h. p. Auto truck to be used in their bottling business. Graham Sutton & Clements made the deal for the machine.

THE S. School at Mowbray enjoyed a splendid picnic on the church green Wednesday, Messrs. Startt, Goodman, O'Meara and others saw that all were well supplied with fried rock and perch, crabs and ice cream.

THE Ladies Institute held at Fairlee proved an interesting event but not well attended. The ladies were shown how to can vegetables at home and other practical matters were presented.

AN Improved Order of Red Men is being organized in Chestertown by Mr. Olin Stafford. About 25 names have been secured and only five more are needed to begin. The mission of this Order is an excellent and most worthy one.

THE Pomona Grange met at Fairlee Thursday a full account of which will appear in the NEWS next week. A meeting of the chorus will be held at the Lyceum next Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. All singers invited.

H. F. JEFFERSON & Bros., proprietors of the Ladies' store, Chestertown will continue their reduction sale of Children's Shoes another week. They are offering rare bargains and give an excellent chance for parents to fit up Children for the summer.

LIGHTNING killed two horses of Mr. W. B. Plummer, near Melitota on Thursday afternoon last. They were insured in the J. G. Beck agency.

AN open-air suffrage meeting was held in Still Pond on Monday July 21st, at 8 p. m. by the Just Government League of Kent county. Miss L. C. Trax and Mr. Laurence Stoudenmire, introduced by Miss M. L. Frazee, addressed an attentive audience of 75 at the town square. After the meeting was adjourned many people expressed their interest and enthusiasm and several new members were taken into the Kent League.

Home Purchased.—Mr. H. R. Graham, has purchased the handsome house of his father, Dr. Graham, on Water St., Chestertown, and will remove there on Oct. 1st. Dr. Graham and wife will remove to the home of Mrs. Wm. E. Jarrell, on Washington avenue.

Die From Burns.—Mrs. J. W. Kirby, of Chestertown, received notice this week of the death of Roland Fischer, aged 5 years, her nephew. The Fischer lad was playing with several other little fellows on the vacant lot at the foot of Folsom street, in South Baltimore. They built a fire and Roland's clothing caught fire from the flames which began shooting up. William Kelly, 413 Folsom street, saw the child ran toward him and extinguished the blaze. Then he carried the little fellow to his home and a physician was summoned. Upon his advice the boy was taken to the hospital. His injuries, were so severe, however, that it was impossible to save his life. He leaves his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Fischer, five brothers and two sisters.

A Bold Thief.—Officer Cooper made an important capture Saturday afternoon due to his skill and efficiency. George Cann, colored, of Chestertown, was the captured prisoner on a charge of burglary at the home of Mr. J. H. Sides, Washington Avenue. About 3 p. m., Mrs. Sides, who was lying down in her bedroom at her home upon being aroused by a noise in the room, was startled almost into hysteria, to find a young negro man crouching on the floor beside her bed. She screamed and the intruder fled. Mrs. Sides immediately called her husband, who in turn invoked the aid of the town officers and prompt investigation resulted in the arrest of Cann. The latter was held for action of Grand Jury. A small sum of money was missing from a drawer down stairs. Persons in the neighborhood saw Cann climbing over the fence and running away from the house. The prisoner was paroled last April court being charged with stealing liquor from Capt. E. W. Emory's carriage.

You are going on your vacation soon

Did you ever pack shoes and collars in the same suit case, and when you opened it found that the shoes and collars had gotten together and were about the same color?

If you have never had this experience you've got it coming unless you get one of our collar bags. They are made of soft, pliable leather nicely lined—very compact, and they not only keep your collars clean but in perfect shape.
