LOCAL NOTES

W. R. MAUL has one of the neatest yards in town.

DON'T forget excursion to Washington next Monday by Fairlee church.

THE mercury got up to 95° Monday, 94° Tuesday and 92° Wednesday.

THE Corsica began tri-weekly trips Monday leaving Crumpton at 2 p. m., and Chestertown 5 p. m.

LADIES, Vansant & Newsome, have reduced real high grade Oxfords to a very low price. See their adv. on another page.

THE J. T. Warfield farm of 115 acres, near Fairlee, has been sold to Irwing Ritchie, of West Virginia, by J. W. Russell, broker.

JARMAN won a second game of ball this week shutting out his opponents and allowing but two men to reach second base!

THE ice cream factory of J. Cordray Loud has been busier this season than ever before. Mr. Loud and Bob Gilbert certainly know how to make good ices.

FARMERS with peaches have been fortunate this year. One shipper in Kent sent 1100 baskets one day and received $1100. Prices have ranged from 75 cents to $1 25.

A. COHEN in another column announces his big annual closing out sale. It begins August 4th. Go see him and inspect his goods and prices. Better than a trip abroad.

NED ROBINSON, the faithful colored servant, died suddenly in Chestertown Saturday night. He was hostler for W. Massey, Esq., James G. Beck and Miss Minnie Massey.

IT is predicted by Thos. J. Davis that some farmers in this neighborhood will live on small potatoes for balance of their lives. Little potatoes make big men often, Tom.

A FARMER in Worton says he just made his straw clear on his wheat crop! Another farmer in upper Kent gave his straw to thresh his crop. Who says the straw is not valuable?

THE principal speakers at the Grange picnic to be held in Klinefelter's woods, on August 7th, will be Hon. James A. Pearce, of Chestertown, and President H. J. Patterson, of the Maryland Agricultural College.

THE biggest potato yield yet reported was that of Mr. John E. Morris, near Fairlee. He sold 150 bushels per acre of first-class potatoes and about 50 bushels per acre of seconds. He had 12 acres planted.

THE committee in charge of the Chestertown Chautauqua made efforts to get Wm. J. Bryan here as one of the speakers, but it was impossible. Senator Gore will be the big speaker, besides other great attractions.

THE Tolchester Company has arranged for an Excursion to Annapolis Monday Aug. 11 leaving Betterton at 10 a. m. and Tolchester at 11.15 a. m. Annapolis being the Capitol of our State there is always something of interest to see.

CHESTERTOWN is to have a milk shipping station, as announced in the NEWS. The date set for inauguration of the service is August 4th. This convenience for the farmers and shippers of this section was procured through the efforts and co-operation of the Rich Neck Farmers Club Produce Exchange.

CHESTER river bridge at Chestertown is being repaired by Contractor Wm. S. Carroll and seven men. A nearly new flooring is being put down and a new strip eight inches high put in centre. This is the celebrated strip which was so much talked of two years ago. The State now owns this bridge.

MESSRS. A. PARKS RASIN, Charles A. Baxter and Daniel R. Woodall, Jr., have entered into a partnership agreement to manufacture and market a fertilizer distributor attachment for cultivators, the invention of Mr. Woodall. The appliance is said to do the work for which it is intended perfectly, and to fill a long felt need of farmers and truckers.

FRED WALLACE, of Church Hill, a ball player of ability and liked by all the fans, has just undergone an operation for water on the knee at the University of Maryland. Mr. Wallace hurt his knee while playing short for Washington College. No serious effects were felt however until July 4th when in sliding into a base he experienced a sharp pain in the spot already injured and it was the last game in which he was able to participate. Dr. Sproul operated and Mr. Wallace is convalescing rapidly.

A LADY in Chestertown who has lost several dozen chickens recently was amazed one day this week to find thta some thief had even milked her cow!

THE body of George Stevens, of Rock Hall, was found Tuesday in the water near Swan Point and was so badly disfigured that only his brother could recognize him. He had $29 on his person. The Coroner's inquest gave a verdict of accidental drowning.

THE Grange picnic on the beautiful lawn of Mr. J. C. Redmile, near Kennedyville, last Thursday was a big success. The politicians were out in force and the social intercourse with people from all over Kent was most pleasant.

A SEVERE rain storm, accompanied by wind and lightning, burst over Baltimore Monday at 5 p. m. causing injuries to eighteen persons, two of whom may die, and damaged property to the extent of about $100,000. The downpour lasted nearly an hour and the rain was driven about by a gale that at one time reached a velocity of thirty-four miles an hour. Many houses were unroofed, innumerable trees were uprooted and lightning caused several fires. A suburban automobile fire engine was ditched in a washout and eight firemen were injured. Three trolley cars were struck by lightning. The cloud was seen here but passed by as also Tuesday.

THE terms of about 15 postmasters, appointed by the President, have expired, while the terms of others are approaching the expiration limit, the commission in each case being for four years. The President has made appointments for the offices at Millington, Cheapeake City and North East.

Democratic applicants are becoming uneasy over the delay in making appointments to offices, the terms of whose incumbents have expired. According to information from Washington, the President will make no appointments for or in Maryland, postmasters included, until September, and, perhaps, later.

The term of Postmaster M. Wilbur Thomas, Chestertown, expires August 4, 1913. It is said that Mr. Samuel Hicks has the best chance of landing this plum if the Barroll faction wins.

THE matinee Thursday at Chestertown was attended by about 350. The winners were Edgar Belton, best time 2 28; Baby Wilkes, best time, 2 20¾; Joe B., 2 21; Chimes, 2 30; Susie A., 2 33. The next event will be August 26 29.

Summer Watches

This is the season to leave your fine jeweled watch to be cleaned and overhauled.

It is the better for a vacation, just as you are. And these months you want to be free from the constraint imposed when you carry a delicately constructed timepiece.

We have splendid summer watches from $5 up in substantial solid nickel cases. Or even the Dollar watch will answer ordinary requirements.

We have wrist watches for athletes from $2.50 up.

A lady's watch to slip in the handbag costs $2.00. Others up to $30. We have all kinds of watches, and when fall comes you'll find an extra watch handy to hang about the room, take on your hunting trip or slip under the pillow.
