CAN'T BE FAIR.

One would suppose that when a newspaper "double-columns" an article it has something new and important to impress upon the people. But there never was a better example of the predominance of form over matter than the make-up of the Barroll organ's latest issue. When those double-columns flashed upon our view, we expected a revelation; but it needed only a glance to assure us that they contained the same old "spiels" the Barroll scribe has been giving us ever since the campaign started.

They contain the same old prophecies, the same old speculations, the same old attempts to bewilder and mislead.

In the very beginning they mislead. We admitted nothing they say we did On the contrary, we showed that the only saving the years of Anti control of the County Commissioners Office show, was in the item of roads and bridges; and outside of that, the Antis spent $32,000 more than the Organization did.

Furthermore, Mr. Voter and Mr. Taxpayer, we want you to notice that the Anti organ places the Barroll faction in the position of refusing money simply on the ground of an Organization demand for it. No matter how much the roads need mending; no matter how much the schools need improvement; no matter how badly the public depository of county records needs enlargement and repair;—all appropriations for such needs must be opposed, in order that the Barroll faction may parade before the people dressed in the false garb of economizers and savers of public funds.

They can oppose a reassessment, but they can spend unnecesarily nearly $1800 of the county's money in the prosecution of the reassessment; and their whole administration shows no advance whatever along the line of superiority in finance, or care for the people's monetary interests.

In all their opposition to money expenditure they have never sought to argue the principle involved in any money issue; they do not care to have the people think anything about the necessity, or the right or wrong, of county expenses.

Their effort has always been to enlarge upon figures only, and great display of type, delude the people into the belief that all Organization sympathizers are money grabbers and profligate spenders. And yet they can't point to one single department of county finances that shows the Barroll faction otherwise than ever ready to feed at the county money till.

They lay great stress on what an Organization representation tried to do in the last Legislature. They look at it entirely from the view-point of a money expenditure, and not from that of a necessary money expenditure. And their legislative representation opposed such legislation. not from the standpoint of right, and of what advantage might accrue to the people, but simply because they didn't have the money to handle! And if Senator Beck should be opposed by a hostile delegation in the lower house—a most unlikely prospect—the people of Kent may expect to see an obstinate factional, unreasonable, rejection of all bills looking to the welfare of the people—provided said bills call for dollars and cents—in order that the Barrollites may continue the hue and cry of lavish Organization expenditure, and keep up their hypocritical claim of being the watch dog of the public treasury. Their principle is, "Right or wrong, Barroll!"

The next thing we notice in last week's issue of the Anti sheet is some reasons why Mr. Turner should not be elected. This is a very significant straw. It only shows that the Antis know Mr. Turner is to be elected. And that their efforts are desperate to defeat him, is shown by the method employed, viz., an inconsistency in condemning in him the very things they attempt to explain away in Mr. Marbury—their immaculate candidate for the U. S. Senate. To thinking people their article referring to Mr. Turner should boost his candidacy rather than knock it.

Then we come to the "People's Column." We give them credit for not wanting to take the responsibility of those "letters" (?) But that first letter resembles so closely the "editorial" of last week, that few will believe other than that the "the letter" and the "editorial" were of one and the same origin. Another unconscious testimonial to the superiority of Organization material—some more free advertising of the great number of good people in Organization ranks.

And yet we hardly see what the object was. "How it pays to be an Organization Leader!" Would it pay the Anti any less? Are not these offices the same that the Anti politicians are after? Why it seems as if that letter is an arraignment of the county for the very existence of the office itself. These offices have to be, you know, and the people showed their confidence in those prominent citizens by placing them there to fulfill the duties of said office. And the Barroll organ could have gone further back still, and, for instance, could have added the salaries of Drs. Beck and Fisher to that of Mr. Dixon, and obtained a much larger amount than $63,000—it could have been $189,000! The office of clerk of the court has existed a long time, if you recollect. And Mr. Voter, don't you forget that these same figures are mighty catchy to the Anti politician, and if he is not after the same plum, what is he after?

We would also like the public to observe that these same offices are compared to the positions held by "such men as Edward C. Walters and Sheriff McKee." Remember the NEWS made no mention of the salaries of Anti officials who happen to hold office. We did not criticise Mr. Hicks' salary nor his legitimate clerk; nor the county commissioner's pay, nor that of his legitimate helper; the sheriff's salary, nor any of his deputies. We made mention only of unnecessary anti officials, feeding at the public expense, in the face of the great eocnomy song the Barrollite is singing. We did not mention Mr. Barroll's salary, because we thought that to be consistent with his saving ideas, he might have donated his services to the county, but you notice he did not.

This is only another instance of the "junior editor's" studied refusal to understand; an effort to place everything before the public eye in a distorted way; a desperate effort to commend a bad cause to an intelligent community.
