MONDAY was a great day for Chestertown.

THIS community is to be congratulated upon the fact that while the circus on Wednesday had only 200, the Chautauqua had an intelligent audience of 800 and more at night. This speaks well for Chestertown.

So Mr. Barroll is for the man the Antis want! Who is the Anti-Organization? Barroll; and when anybody says that Mr. Finley Collins was floated without the assistance of Mr. Barroll—then that man had better get out of the Barroll faction. He would not be wanted.

THE only way to prove that the Road Law is economical is to show what it has saved the county—not to pick out one piece of road, show how expensive or how cheap that piece was, and then estimate the cost of the whole county thereby. That's only another way of concealing the truth.

WE agree with the Barroll organ that Mr. Edward W. Hepbron is one of the "Rock of Gibralter" kind. And we say it good naturedly, and with the greatest respect for Mr. Hepbron's belief in himself. Once let Mr. Hepbron set his mind one way—right or wrong—and Gibralter is not firmer.

But while no one denied Mr. Hepbron's ability to distinguish between $1.85 and 94c, we also deny Mr. Hepbron's inability to see how that 94 cents was brought about—unless he exercises some of that Gibralter quality of mind, which resists all argument even as that mighty fortress would resist the 18-pounders of an enemy's battleships.

Such resistence would be merely physical not mental, and only emphasize what we said last week that many are in this fight for the fight's sake and not for any principal involved.

BARROLL'S TEMPERANCE RECORD.

We do not care to discuss Mr. Barroll's temperance record, nor are we to discuss Mr. William H. Anderson's methods. But we must say to him that he is rather independent in his viaws, a man of some intellectual power, evidently fearless, and not looking for any inspiration outside of that furnished by the cause he is representing. And when his attack on Mr. Barroll is attributed to Mr. Anderson's "henchmen" here, the idea is so ludicrous that it cannot do otherwise than bring a smile to the lips of all who read.

It would have been well had the Barroll organ explained who those "henchmen" were. But here again is an absence of detail; a dealing in generalities.

Mr. Barroll's answer to Mr. Anderson's attack is weak in the extreme. It is nothing more than a denial. We all expected that. Quoting Wilson doesn't help Barroll and when he speaks of the "liquor ring," every one can see that his whole statement is based, not on who are included in what Anderson calls the liquor ring, but what constitutes a liquor ring. He does not deny being mixed up with the Mahon-Preston-Kelley combination, but he evidently takes issue on their being a liquor ring. See?

So Mr. Anderson confirms what we have often said of Mr. Barroll; viz., that at home he is too good for the Organization; away from home, and the Organization contains nothing too bad for him.

Such duplicity, voters, can never succeed. No matter what evanescent victory may perch upon the Anti effort, the people will not stand for it; and when they once wake up, Barrollism must go. Next Monday we shall see them aroused and the verdict will be convincing.

MR. BRYAN, in his address Monday night, said he never believed in making a bad matter worse. If then the Antis believed the county debt a bad thing, why do that awful, awful deed—put on the $1.85 rate? That was compounding a felony. That was killing the live man in order to experiment on bringing him to life. Mr. Bryan knows a thing or two!

THE signature to that article headed "What it means," in last week's Transcript, nullifies everything it was meant to accomplish. It surely was a "bonehead" article in the face of Mr. Turner's manly letter in last week's NEWS, and in the face of what Mr Turner stands for. It is only necessary to ask what reason Mr. Turner could have to represent those awful things "Wooden Head" makes him the champion of? More political buncombe.

A GREAT EVENT.

Another week of Chautauqua has gone and it has been a great time for this community. In attending the exercises of the Chautauqua, we not only have diversion from our daily routine of duties, but we are brought into contact with a choice selection of moral and intellectual exercises, such as it is difficult to find anywhere else.

Everything that the Chautauqua presents is of the highest order, and no community can appreciate all that it does present, until it has gone through with it. Some of our public spirited citizens have, at much pains and no little expense, made the Chautauqua possible to Chestertown. It has been a week of rare enjoyment.

WE deny that the Barrollites are the ones who reduced the debt "piled up against the county by the Organization." The Organization did it themselves.

And we will prove this statement by the Antis themselves. They say that the Organization "saddled" the county with $1.85 rate. If that be so, and by that $1.85 rate the indebtedness was paid, who paid the debt? Only one answer according to their logic.

Again, they are continually quoting figures to show, in the aggregate, a great saving during their administration, but they steer very clear of details, when it comes to explaining how that saving has been accomplished.

We showed by figures they could not controvert, that the saving of over $40,000 on roads and bridges has been the only saving accomplished, the only method outside of the $1.85 rate whereby any payments on county indebtedness could have been made.

So, Mr. Voter, all claims to economy are based solely and entirely upon the working out of Organization schemes—schemes of their own, and also that "saddled" upon us by the Antis. We have repeatedly asked them to show how their saving was brought about. They have repeatedly dodged the issue, and stuck to aggregates which if analyzed would show nothing.

Rev. E. R. Perry, in his address before the Chautauqua on Monday afternoon, said that no leadership would ever succeed except that brought about by telling the people the truth. That valuable principle it is well for every one to take into consideration in considering the political issues in this county. The truth and nothing but the truth, tho' the heavens fall!

"STEAM ROLLER BOSS."

The Barroll organ says "there is a tremendous fight of the people against the machine politicians all along the line from one end of the country to the other."

We admit this and claim we are fighting a would-be machine in this county. Search the county over, and if one can find a more strenuous effort to place politics in the control of a steam roller Boss, than there is in this county, then we'll promise to vote for every candidate the Barrollites put up in the primaries.

Don't be deceived, Mr. Voter, the Antis are straining tooth and toe nail to get possession of the very officers they rail at the present incumbents for holding. We ask the intelligent suffragist to analyze their methods for obtaining same. We ask every thinking citizen to take notice that the Barrollites have presented no new thing in their campaigning, and their whole attitude with reference to purity in politics, is similar to that adopted by every ward heeler, and political wire-puller of ringdom.

And they conceal it all under the guise of a great and abiding interest for the welfare of the people.

We ask all you citizens of Kent to look at the composition of the two tickets, and decide for yourselves which set of men are more personally interested in govermental purity and reform; which represent more substantially the material interests of this section of the Eastern Shore; whose responsibilities are greater; which set would be more affected by mistakes in legislatien; which represent the intelligent citizenship more by a demigogue, whose word is law, and whose aim is rule. We leave it to a community which we believe is able to decide, and will express their decision in no uncertain tones next Monday.

"SIGN OF THE TIMES."

The KENT NEWS agrees with the Baltimore Sun when it says, speaking of Mr. Bryan that the "sign of the times" in Maryland indicate that the voters have gotten their eyes very wide open, indeed, and that on the 8th of September they will make it clear that they intend to put and keep this State in line with the forces of progressive Democracy by selecting as its political representatives men who take their orders from the people and not fron the machine or that boss.

Children Cry
CASTORIA

THE Chautauqua has been a great success. They more than fulfilled their contract and the guarantors paid every cent as per contract. Over 400 pledges were received Thursday night for their return. Other notes will appear next week.

HON WM. J. BRYAN took occasion while in Chestertown to tell Mr. Charles L. Dodd that his affection and esteem for the people of Kent county knew no bounds when he recalled that the Democratic Convention in Kent county in 1906 was the first organizatian of any kind in the United States to endorse him for the Presidency, and this at a time when he had not yet returned to New York from the World tour. The convention referred to by Secretary Bryan in his talk to Mr. Chas. L. Dodd was held on June 14, 1906, and the following resolution was drawn and presented to the convention by Mr. Dodd and at his request was unanimously passed:

"We, the Democracy of Kent county in convention assembled do hereby give our hearty approval and endorsement of that matchless leader and Democrat, WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN, and further declare our unwavering belief that he should be the standard bearer of the Democracy in 1908."

The resolution committee consisted of the following gentlemen: First District, R. Wesley Moffett; Second District, Wm. T. Dukes; Third District, Benj. F. Crew; Fourth District, Chas. L. Dodd; Sixth District, Wm. E. Keyser; Seventh District, George Beck.

It will be noticed that the Fifth District then in control of Mr. Barroll and his friends had no representative on this Resolution Committee as they refusedt o participate in the Convention proceedings.

BOSSISM!

Secretary Bryan, in his speech before the Chautauqua on Monday evening, made some remarks concerning Bossism which we think are pertinent to the situation in this county at this time.

The distinguished speaker pictured the condition of things in a party, or faction, when every move is directed by the hand of some one individual. This man dominating the will of all his adherents, and shaping the course of events in which all the people are concerned, Mr. Bryan characterized as a menace to free institutions, and as an evil against which the efforts of all who call themselves Democrats should be exerted, in an attempt to eradicate it.

Kent county is threatened with just such Bossism. The entire Anti movement centres around one man. The character of every man on the Anti ticket reveals elements of such a nature as to stamp him a tool of the boss. Every Anti voter in the county looks to one man for guidance—and in a general way, we are safe in saying, that during the whole life of the Anti Boss, there has never arisen an occasion when he was associated with his fellow men when he did not try to over-ride by the fancied strength of his personality, by an obstinate will, by a noisy rather than argumentative manner, and by a colossal nerve.

This accounts for the position in which we find him today—all alone, by himself.

Unable to rule those of the regular Democracy, he separates himself from the tried and true and draws around him a constituency he can control.

Then seeking to conceal the true reason of his defection, he hides himself behind an artificial wall of economic and civic virtue, or raises himself on a pedestal of pretended ability, has his paper to classify his old associates as liars and grafters and draws around him a constituency whose main grievance against the Organization is duration in office rather than inefficiency in Statecraft.

The Organization makes a plea for support against such conditions. We point with pride to the composition of the ticket and ask if such men could be controlled by any one man. We ask the voters of Kent if they are ready to take a backward step in the face of the present progressive policies of the Democratic party, of Wilsonism, while it is Barrollism a diametically opposed principle to all progressiveism.

We appeal, then, to the voters of Kent from the standpoint of harmonious rule of the many, against the bossism of one; we appeal, from the standpoint of a splendid citizenship in the make up of our ticket; we appeal, from the standpoint of the economy practiced by those Organization men in control of office—the only economy which can be pointed to; we appeal, from the standpoint of an honest Democracy, not a political creed which allows us to damn a principle at home, and canonize it abroad; we appeal, from the standpoint of truly progressive Democracy, the tenets of which are entirely set at nought by the one man power which gives to the Anti movement its entire existence; we appeal, from the standpoint of an attempt to be honest in all our presentation of campaign issues, in contrast to the seeming absolute inability of the opposition to be fair.

THE Barroll organ says "this is not a time for personal friendship, or as to who is the best man?" What an admission. There never was a day when the fitness of men for office was so uppermost in the country than at the present time. Realizing this fact the Organization in Kent present men of unquestioned veracity, Democrats tried and true, intelligent, sober and competent. It is a time for men to show their appreciation of the sacrifice men are making to serve their country. Vote for the best men when the fight for office is between Democrats. The Organization in Kent is fighting against Slavery and Bossism and for Economy, Temperance and Fitness.

THE ANTIS ARE BEATEN.

A candidate on the Barroll ticket in talking with a gentlman in the Sixth District admitted that Organization would carry the 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th districts, but claimed the 1st, 2nd and 3rd districts for Barroll! What do you think of that reader? If this Anti is basing his claims on districts, 1st, 2nd and 3rd, he'll surely get snowed under awful.

BOSSISM IN KENT.

(Communicated.)

MESSRS. EDITORS:

When Theodore Roosevelt decided that he would like to be President for the third time, he undoubtedly thought "That rather than wreck the party they will concede my nomination."

Does Hope Barroll think the same? Does he think that rather than have the House of Democracy torn down, or defaced, the builders will hand it over to him?

This is just where we stand, Democrats of Kent; you are allowing the personal ambition of a selfish man to lead your better judgment astray.

No one blames Mr. Barroll for his ambition; in fact, every fair-minded man should admire him for them, but when his ambition becomes a mania and overrides every sense of justice and right, then it is time for the Democratic party to squelch him.

You men of the Organization who have been warring and you men who call yourselves "Antis," who deep down in your hearts are ashamed of the fact that you have ever considered leaving the party which your sires builded, do you trust Hope Barroll?

Do you believe his motive for leadership is because he loves the people of Kent county?

Does he trust you? If so, why does he insist that you sign a pledge that practically places you on your oath?

Time was when the word of a gentleman of Kent county, Maryland, was accepted in all honor, and woe be to he who doubted it. Are we degenerating?

Don't be blinded; if we need reform, are we not fair-minded and honest enough to reform ourselves?

Are we not Kent countians bred and born? Is not the welfare of our county just as dear to us as to Hope Barroll?

As a matter of fact, when was Hope Barroll ever known to exhibit any heart?

You have the opportunity, Democrats, of putting your house in order on Monday next. Don't let Barroll be the Roosevelt of Kent's Democracy.

Think this over seriously, and if you can find any real generous motive on the part of Barroll for assuming to lead you, support him; but, if you will use your intelligence, you will readily understand that this man's time and efforts are not given for love of you.

Remember, "United we stand; divided we fall." This was proven in 1912. Don't be a Republican. Vote the Organization ticket.

A DEMOCRAT WHO IS DISGUSTED WITH FAKE REFORRM.
