GONE UP IN SMOKE

One-half of your coal—and it did you no good. Hard luck that. But there is a way to fix it. Here's how:

That stove of yours has seen its best days. You need a new one. You know it—but you have let things drift along.

Meanwhile, you have been losing HALF of every hod of coal you have put in it.

Of course, you knew it, but you did not think of it that way. You know that half of every lump is gas. Fail to burn that gas and it is like throwing into the ditch half of every dollar you spend in coal.

Rather extravagant? Yes?

The ordinary stove made of a lot of separate castings leaks air. They leak air at the wrong place. Places you can not control.

RESULT—the best part of your coal—the 14,000 cubic feet of common illuminating gas that is in the average ton of $3.00 soft coal—goes up the flue unburned.

You have lost it. It has gone up in smoke.

Save that gas—mix it properly with air and you have the hottest kind of a blue flame. But there is only one way to do this—

Buy the only heater that is made tight—holds tight—stays tight.

Cole's Original Hot Blast Heater

It leaks no air.

This is the heater that mixes the gas and air and gives you all the heat in the coal.

This is the heater that burns any kind of coal and makes a ton of $3.00 soft coal do the work of $8.00 hard coal in a high priced base burner.

This is the heater that is a joy and comfort to the housewife. It makes no dirt or smoke in the house.

This is the heater that saves labor—fix it in the morning and at night and FORGET IT THE REST OF THE TIME.

This is the heater that gives a steady, constant heat from soft coal or lignite.

This is the heater that will hold its fire untouched for a day and a half.

This is the heater we sell you under a guarantee that is as "good as old wheat at the mill." Burns soft coal, lignite, slack, hard coal or wood.

It is just the kind of a heater you want. Come in and see it.

FOOT BALL NOTES.

The outlook for a successful foot ball season at Washington College is very promising. As a nucleus for the 1913 team, there remains from the 1912 eleven, Garrett, tackle; Lewis, end; Biddle, full-back; Branham, half-back; Davis, guard; Bowen, half-back; Healey, end. Of the regular team, Wilkinson, Meekins and Meredith graduated and Long and Brown will not return to college. This leaves center, one guard, one tackle and quarter back to be filled.

The substitutes and 2nd team men of the 1913 aggregation which seem to be good material for the line are Titter, Frampton, Nichols, Boswell, Hooper, Leister, Lickle, Caldwell, Larrimore, Strong and Pfitsch; back of the line such men as Moore, Duyer, Harris, Madden, Graves, Wallace will do to fill in.

Of the new material, Sterling, an athlete from Wilmington Conference Academy, should make good at guard. He weighs 185 pounds, plays basket ball and base ball. He should soon learn foot ball. Other new material that looks particularly good is found in Shartle, from Pennsylvania. He is fast, knows the game and will maee a good man back of the line. Bennett, from Conn., is another candidate for the back field. He has played ball before and will make somebody hustle to keep him off the team. Kratzer is an active little chap and will develop in a good man at half tho' he will hardly make the team this year. Wallace, of Church Hill, a brother of the sturdy little shortstop, already at college, has the making of a good all-around athlete. Bynes, from Conn., comes with a good athletic record and is out every day. He looks like a man for the back field.

Coach Kibler is putting the men through the preliminaries, and seems to be thoroughly conversant with the game. This week has been devoted to running down punts, falling on the ball, catching punts, forward passing, etc., etc. No scrimmages will be held probably 'till next week.

Wilkinson, of last year's eleven, has been on the ground helping out and he will be of invaluable assistance to the man taking his place.

A great many of the old men seem heavier than last year and all are starting with a spirit that augurs well.

PRESIDENT WILSON AND SENATOR SMITH.

Senator John Walter Smith was the directing force of the State Convention which met in the Auditorium theater in Baltimore last Wednesday, and after it was all over, he was a very happy man, receiving congratulations from all sources on the outcome of the Convention and assurances of support in the future from unexpected sources. It is now recognized that President Wilson and his closest advisers have learned who is the dominant force in the Democratic party of Maryland and will act according to their new light. Reports from Washington are to the effect that President Wilson and the members of his Cabinet appreciate the attitude of Senator Smith, and the dignity he has shown in the face of misrepresentation, and they are beginning to view him in the light of a very lovable and dependable man. He has stood shoulder to shoulder with the President in upholding his policies, and the influence he has with other senators, (acknowledged to be very great), has always been used in the advancement of the President's fight for carrying out his promises made to the people and for the fulfillment of the pledges of the Baltimore Convention.

RECOUNT SUSPENDED.

Primary Election Contest Probably Will be Abandoned.

In last weeks issue of the NEWS was published full particulars of the election contests instituted by several Democratic candidates returned as defeated at the recent primary.

As stated the board of Supervisors ordered a recount of ballots cast in certain disputed precincts. The recount was begun on Friday morning and had not proceeded far before it developed that a number of ballots printed for one precinct had been cast and counted in another precinct. The board of Supervisors were unable to determine as to the validity of such ballots, and suspended the recount until the opinion of the Attorney General could be had. The Supervisors went to Baltimore on Monday and had a conference with the Attorney General and his written opinion was received Tuesday. According to his interpretation of the law ballots printed for one precinct can not be legally cast and counted in another precinct.

Under this ruling all such ballots must be thrown out, and as the contest was predicated upon the counting of such ballots which had been rejected, it is believed that the contest will be abandoned.

The supervisors met Thursday morning upon petition of Messrs. J. Henry Thompson, E. M. Taylor and W. H. Stradley the recount was stopped. This will end a recount so far as the supervisors are concerned.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, three-fifths of all the members of the two houses concurring, That the following section be and the same is hereby proposed as an amendment to Section 21 of Article 4, title "Judiciary Department," sub-title "Part III, Circuit Courts," of the Constitution of this State, and if adopted by the legal and qualified voters thereof as herein provided, it shall supersede and stand in the place and stead of Section 21 of said Article 4.

SEC. 21. If two or more persons shall be candidates for associate judge in the same county, in any of the circuits, except the third circuit, that one only in said county shall be declared elected who has the highest number of votes in the circuit. In case any two candidates for associate judge in any of the circuits, except the third circuit, residing in the same county, shall have an equal number of votes greater than any other candidate for associate judge in the circuit, it shall be the duty of the Governor to order a new election for one associate judge; but the person residing in any other county of the circuit and who has the next highest number of votes shall be declared elected. The said judges shall hold not less than two terms of the Circuit Court in each of the counties composing their respective circuits, at such times as are now or may hereafter be prescribed to which jurors shall be summoned; and in those counties where only two such terms are held, two other and intermediate terms, to which jurors shall not be summoned; they may alter or fix the times for holding any or all terms, until otherwise prescribed, and shall adopt rules to the end that all business not requiring the interposition of the jury shall be, as far as practicable, disposed of at said intermediate terms.

The additional associate judge for the third circuit herein provided for, shall be elected by the qualified voters of Baltimore and Harford Counties, at the first election that shall be held in said counties subsequent to the adoption of this amendment, and the judge so elected shall be subject to the same constitutional provisions, hold his office for the same term of years, receive the same compensation and have the same powers as are herein provided for the other associate judges in the third circuit.

But the General Assembly may in its discretion remove the above penalty and all other penalties upon the vote seller so as to place the penalties for the purchase of votes on the vote buyer alone.
