ROCK HALL NOTES.

St. John's R. C. fair and festival on Saturday night was a great success, numerically, socially and financially. Everything was disposed of, realizing for the same about $300, report says. Now all aboard for the M. P. festival, which will be another big affair this evening.

The Sunday afternoon service at the M. E. Church, after the close of the Sunday school session, was one of the "old fashion" style, conducted in the "old fashion" way, greatly to the enjoyment of every one present. A number of visitors were present, evidently of the "old fashion" style of Methodists, and they entered into the service with shouts and praises. Pastor Prettyman led off with vim.

Extra meetings are being held each evening this week at the M. E. Church. Rev. Mr. Prettyman is being assisted by Rev. Mr. Dupuy, of the M. P. Church, and Rev. Kirby, of Piney Neck Church.

Quite a number of our people attended the camp-meeting of the Adventists and report enjoyable and instructive scenes. "Rock" Scoone ran a regular hack service from here at a 50 cent fare the round trip, giving his passengers the benefit of morning, afternoon and night services.

The Maryland Death Benefit Association has promply paid the claim of Camp No. 37, P. O. S. of A., on the death of Edward Proctor.

Our oyster industry simply will not take on "spurt" enough to lend encouragement to the tongers.

Among the throng of people here on Saturday night were the KENT NEWS junior editor and hustling Charley Dodd, each of whom took in the business places and extended the glad hand with greetings. The junior editor reported times very quiet in the county metropolis since the primaries. Good.

The soaking rain of Wednesday was much appreciated in this section.

OFFICIATES AT SON'S WEDDING.

Rev. F. T. Little, pastor of Allnutt Memorial Methodist Protestant Church, Lombard and Chester streets, officiated at the marriage ceremony of his son, Pere Wilmer Little, when he was married Monday afternoon to Miss Caroline Elizabeth Duke, of Calvert county. The pastor was assisted by his son, Rev. Francis Little, one of the groom's brothers, who is an assistant at the Cathedral of St. John the Divine Church, New York, while Reese H. Little, another brother, was the best man.

The marriage took place at 5 o'clock Monday afternoon at the Allnutt Church in the presence of the immediate families and a few personal friends of the bride and groom. Mr. Little is manager of the special agents of the Fidelity and Deposit Company of Baltimore.

The bride's only attendant was her father, Mr. Perrin Duke, by whom she was given in marriage. She was attired in a neat fitting dark traveling suit and carried a large bunch of yellow chrysanthemums. The wedding march was rendered by Mr. Harry Gilligan, organist at the church.

The bride had been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Duke, her uncle and aunt, at West Grange, N. J., and went to Baltimore a few days ago and stopped at the Belvedere. Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for a two-week trip through the South. They will be at home to their friends after October 15, and will reside at 1401 Linden ave.

DID YOU EVER SEE A HORSE DANCE?

Miss Mable Hackney and her Dancing Horse, Vardius, will be a feature act with Tompkins' Real wild west and Cooper & Whitby's Circus. Miss Hackney bought Vardius of the Imperial Stables in Austria, and, after importing him to America, she trained him to dance cake walk, Spanish, trot, buck and wing, two-step and also shadow jump, jumping as high as four feet, and this is the only horse in the world doing shadow jumps. The Tompkins, Cooper & Whitby Shows exhibit at Chestertown On Monday, Oct. 13. Afternoon at 2 p. m. Night at 8 p. m. Street Parade at Noon.

REAL INDIANS.

with Tompkins Real Wild West and Frontier Exhibition, combined with Cooper & Whitby's Shows this season and which is billed to appear in Chestertown, Oct. 13, are a number of Famous Indian Chiefs, among whom will be found Spotted Horse, Red Calf, Yellow Cloud, Eagle Eye Black Hawk and others. They are accompained by their squaws and pappooses: they are willing at all times to converse with visitors to the Show, and a talk with them is exceptionally entertaining and interesting. They appear to take a special delight in talking to the little folks and there are a score of clowns in the Circus that make mirth for all.
