Report of the Ex Committee to the Board of Managers

The executive committee think it proper to report to the Board of Managers an account of business transacted since their last meeting. It was then resolved, that should the Maryland State Colonization Society not require during the present year, the payment for the house built at Cape Palmas for the use of their teacher, then the executive committee are authorised to employ a qualified teacher, to take charge of a school in the Maryland colony, allowing two hundred dollars for an outfit; and a salary of three hundred dollars for the first year, leaving it to the discretion of the Board, to diminish or increase the amount hereafter. The next day the secretary of this Board received the following communication from the Home Agent of the State Society. On my return to the office, I found our Board still in session and read to them the resolution adopted by your Board — On motion it was resolved, "that the
